The Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite, or The Traditional Latin Mass

The traditional Latin Mass (more properly known as the Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite) is celebrated at 4pm on Sundays at St. Mary's in Brenham.

Cognizant of the many Catholics worldwide attached to the traditional Mass, His Holiness Pope Benedict XVI, in his July 2007 motu proprio "Summorum Pontificum," authorized the celebration of the 1962 Missal to any priest wanting it and to any stable group of faithful requesting it. The Pope writes, "It behooves all of us to preserve the riches which have developed in the Church's faith and prayer, and to give them their proper place." It is the Holy Father's conviction that using the extraordinary form does not constitute a rejection of Vatican II but an embrace of the broader tradition which the Council Fathers sought to protect and transpose to the modern age.¹

From the motu proprio, "Tra Le Sollecitudini," of Pope St. Pius X of 1903: "the purpose of sacred music is the glory of God and the sanctification of the faithful."

Pope Francis tells us that "Liturgical and sacred music can be a powerful instrument of evangelization, because it gives people a glimpse of the beauty of heaven."

The US Conference of Catholic Bishops, in their document "Sing to the Lord: Music in Divine Worship," tells us that "Steps should be taken so that the faithful may also be able to say or to sing together in Latin those parts of the Ordinary of the Mass which pertain to them."

To add the beauty of sacred music to the Liturgy and to prepare the faithful to sing the Liturgy, we will be teaching the hymns and chants for the Extraordinary Form on Sundays, from 3:00—3:45pm, in the choir loft of the church.

No special requirements except the desire to enhance the Liturgy, to serve the faithful, and to bring honor and glory to God.

For information, call Linda Armstrong, 936-727-0443, or email at linda@brenhamcatholic.org. Classes/rehearsals will begin on Sunday, February 21, 2021.

Did You Know?

The fact that St. Mary's main altar faces East is not a coincidence. While ancient synagogue liturgy was oriented toward Jerusalem, Christian liturgy is supposed to be celebrated with the priest and the congregation facing "East" (ad orientem), the direction whence Jesus, as symbolized by the rising Sun will come again. As written in the Gospel of Matthew, "As the lighting from the East flashes to the West, so will the coming of the Son of Man be." And the Prophet Ezekiel said, "there I saw the glory of God of Israel coming from the East,... the glory of the Lord entered the Temple by way of the gate which faces the East."

¿Sabías Qué?

El hecho de que el altar principal de Santa María esté orientado hacia el este no es una coincidencia. Si bien la liturgia de la antigua sinagoga estaba orientada hacia Jerusalén, se supone que la liturgia cristiana se celebra con el sacerdote y la congregación mirando hacia el "Este" (ad orientem), la dirección de donde vendrá Jesús, simbolizado por el sol naciente. Como está escrito en el evangelio de Mateo, "Así como la luz del Este destella hacia el Oeste, así será la venida del Hijo del Hombre". Y el profeta Ezequiel dijo: "allí vi la gloria del Dios de Israel que venía del oriente... la gloria del Señor entró el Templo por la puerta que da al Este".

The Sunday morning Bible study group will meet on Sundays from 9:15am to 10:15am in the Knights of Columbus Hall.

The topic for study will be the Jewish roots of the Church in light of the Dead Sea Scrolls. The scrolls are the oldest sacred documents of Judaism, the only surviving Jewish documents written before or during the lifetime of Jesus, which reveal surprising connections to early Christianity. Judaism influenced the beliefs, sacraments, and practices of early Christianity, eventually transforming the Roman Empire and Western civilization.

There will be 16 sessions, beginning on Sunday, February 21, 2021.

Stop by St. Mary's Gift Shop to see our books on the Jewish roots of Christianity, such as "Jesus and the Dead Sea Scrolls," by John Bergsma; "The Seventy Faces of Torah," by Stephen M. Wylen; and "Reading the Bible with Rabbi Jesus," by Lois Tverberg; as well as lots of other Bible study aids (Bible covers, books of exegesis, sticky tabs and journaling pages, Bible tabs, Bible timelines and maps, and more).

Please join us for Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament every Friday afternoon, from 12 noon to 5:30 pm in the Church. We will start praying the rosary right after Father finishes with his prayers. Adoration is followed by our 5:30 pm daily mass.

Por favor acompanenos a la Adoracion del Santisimo Sacramento cada viernes, de 12:00 del medio dia a 5:30pm en el Templo. Empezamos rezando el Rosario despues de que el Padre termina con sus oraciones. Despues de la Adoracion tenemos nuestra misa diaria de 5:30 pm.

Altar Care

We are in need of additional volunteers to help clean the church altars during the months of June, July, August, October, and November. Each month has a group that clean every Saturday morning of their month. The time commitment is less than an hour each week. Please consider giving of your time to help prepare our beautiful church for weekend Masses. Please call Sharon Johnston at 979-203-5073 if interested.
