Did You Know?

Where do the ashes used for Ash Wednesday come from? Per instructions of the Roman Missal, ashes are typically supposed to be made from last year's Palm Sunday palm branches. These branches are burned down into a fine powder and here in the United States, are mixed with holy water or chrism oil to create a light paste. Ashes have long been a symbol of repentance and conversion, even in the Old Testament. There is liturgical significance in burning the palms from Palm Sunday; it reminds us what Lent is all about ¿Sabías Qué?

¿De dónde provienen las cenizas utilizadas para el Miércoles de Ceniza? Según las instrucciones del Misal Romano, las cenizas se suponen típicamente que se elaborará con las ramas de palma del Domingo de Ramos del año pasado. Estas ramas se queman hasta convertirlas en un polvo fino y aquí en los Estados Unidos, se mezclan con agua bendita o aceite de crisma para crea una pasta ligera. Las cenizas han sido durante mucho tiempo un símbolo de arrepentimiento y conversión, incluso en el Antiguo Testamento. Hay un significado litúrgico en quemando las palmas del Domingo de Ramos; nos recuerda de qué se trata la Cuaresma

Please join us for Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament every Friday afternoon, from 12 noon to 5:30 pm in the Church. We will start praying the rosary right after Father finishes with his prayers. Adoration is followed by our 5:30 pm daily mass.

Por favor acompámenos a la Adoracion del Santisimo Sacramento cada viernes, de 12:00 del medio día a 5:30pm en el Templo. Empezamos rezando el Rosario despues de que el Padre termina con sus oraciones. Despues de la Adoracion tenemos nuestra misa diaria de 5:30

The Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite, or The Traditional Latin Mass

The traditional Latin Mass (more properly known as the Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite) is celebrated at 4pm on Sundays at St. Mary's in Brenham.

Cognizant of the many Catholics worldwide attached to the traditional Mass, His Holiness Pope Benedict XVI, in his July 2007 motu proprio "Summorum Pontificum," authorized the celebration of the 1962 Missal to any priest wanting it and to any stable group of faithful requesting it. The Pope writes, "It behooves all of us to preserve the riches which have developed in the Church's faith and prayer, and to give them their proper place." It is the Holy Father's conviction that using the extraordinary form does not constitute a rejection of Vatican II but an embrace of the broader tradition which the Council Fathers sought to protect and transpose to the modern age. 1

From the motu proprio, "Tra Le Sollecitudini," of Pope St. Pius X of 1903: "the purpose of sacred music is the glory of God and the sanctification of the faithful."

Pope Francis tells us that "Liturgical and sacred music can be a powerful instrument of evangelization, because it gives people a glimpse of the beauty of heaven."

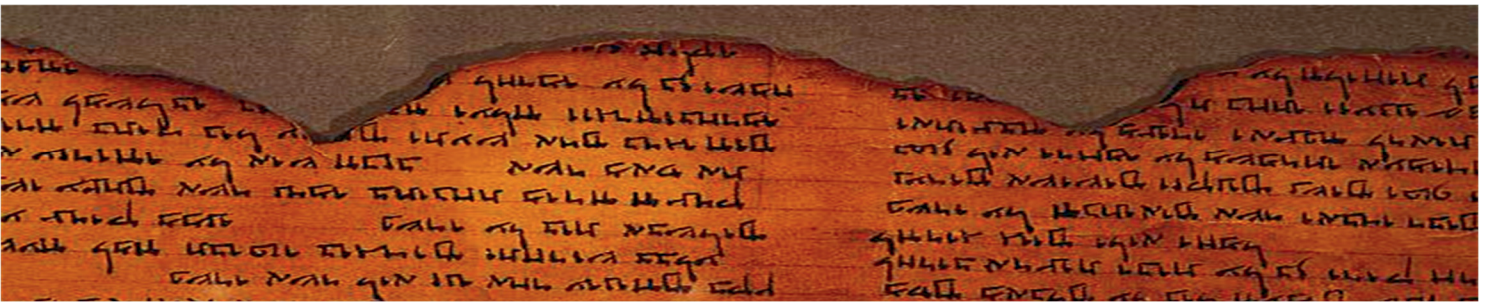

The US Conference of Catholic Bishops, in their document "Sing to the Lord: Music in Divine Worship," tells us that "Steps should be taken so that the faithful may also be able to say or to sing together in Latin those parts of the Ordinary of the Mass which pertain to them."

To add the beauty of sacred music to the Liturgy and to prepare the faithful to sing the Liturgy, we will be teaching the hymns and chants for the Extraordinary Form on Sundays, from 3:00—3:45pm, in the choir loft of the church.

No special requirements except the desire to enhance the Liturgy, to serve the faithful, and to bring honor and glory to God.

For information, call Linda Armstrong, 936-727-0443, or email at linda@brenhamcatholic.org. Classes/rehearsals will begin on Sunday, February 21, 2021.

1 Traditional Mass Booklet, The Pope St. Gregory the Great Society, June 2009, Michael P. Foley, p. 6

The Sunday morning Bible study group will meet on Sundays from 9:15am to 10:15am in the Knights of Columbus Hall.

The topic for study will be the Jewish roots of the Church in light of the Dead Sea Scrolls. The scrolls are the oldest sacred documents of Judaism, the only surviving Jewish documents written before or during the lifetime of Jesus, which reveal surprising connections to early Christianity. Judaism influenced the beliefs, sacraments, and practices of early Christianity, eventually transforming the Roman Empire and Western civilization.

There will be 16 sessions, beginning on Sunday, February 21, 2021.

Stop by St. Mary's Gift Shop to see our books on the Jewish roots of Christianity, such as "Jesus and the Dead Sea Scrolls," by John Bergsma; "The Seventy Faces of Torah," by Stephen M. Wylen; and "Reading the Bible with Rabbi Jesus," by Lois Tverberg; as well as lots of other Bible study aids (Bible covers, books of exegesis, sticky tabs and journaling pages, Bible tabs, Bible timelines and maps, and more).

Altar Server Event

Training for all current Altar Servers and those interested in becoming an Altar Server (must have received the Sacrament of Holy Communion)

Saturday, February 20 – 8:45-12:30

Training will begin at St. Mary's Catholic Church sanctuary. Following training, we will transport the children to Westwood Cinema for a private showing of Rudy that includes popcorn and a drink. Servers may bring money to purchase additional snacks. Parents and other siblings are welcome to watch the movie, which will begin at 10:30. Please email catherinekenjura@gmail.com if you will be attending.
