Did You Know?

For centuries, church bells have summoned, celebrated, reminded and commemorated. They served communities as a tool of mass communication for both spiritual and secular matters. Here at St. Mary's, we ring our bells to mark each hour (ring one peel per hour) and half hour (one ring). Our bells ring 5 minutes before Mass, and at the conclusion of Funeral Masses. At noon and 6 pm, our bells ring the Angelus; a short devotion in honor of the "Incarnation."

¿Sabías Qué?

Durante siglos, las campanas de la iglesia han convocado, celebrado, recordado y conmemorado. Sirvieron a las comunidades como una herramienta de comunicación de Misas tanto para asuntos espirituales como seculares. Aquí en St. Mary's, tocamos nuestras campanas para marcar cada hora (suena una campanada por hora) y media hora (un toque) Nuestras campanas suenan 5 minutos antes de la misa, y al final de las misas fúnebres. Al mediodía y a las 6 de la tarde, nuestras campanas toca el Ángelus; una breve devoción en honor a la "Encarnación".

Help Us Protect the Most Vulnerable

The parish will be offering an Ethics and Integrity in Ministry workshop on Wednesday, September 8.

- In this workshop we will learn to recognize the signs of child abuse and, most importantly, to avoid risky situations at church, at school and in the family.
- To take this course you must register online at www.austindiocese.org/eim

This workshop is indispensable for those who provide a service in the parish.

Dear friend,

For 20 years, the Ethics and Integrity in Ministry (EIM) Office has worked diligently toward healing while creating safe environments throughout the Diocese of Austin. We are proud that our efforts have helped to ensure the safety of those who need our protection most — minors, the elderly and adults with disabilities — while promoting ethical behavior in our ministries. Thank you for accompanying us as we answer this universal call to protect those among us who are vulnerable.

As we look to the future, we are contemplating how we can build on this well-established foundation. First and foremost, the mission of the EIM Office is to uphold the requirements of the USCCB Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People. Although our primary focus will always be the protection of minors, the elderly and adults with disabilities from abuse through healing, reporting and utilizing the strong prevention strategies of screening and education, we are considering how we might present this important ministry in a new way. Neither “Ethics and Integrity in Ministry” nor “EIM” clearly illustrate the specific mission of the program, the breadth of what this ministry now accomplishes or are aligned with the names of similar departments in other dioceses. Adopting a new identity would allow us to present EIM in a clearer, more relatable way.

To ensure we make an informed decision about rebranding EIM, and to better understand the experiences of those who have been involved with this vital ministry, we have created a short survey. We hope you will spare a few minutes of your time to share your thoughts with us. To access the survey, please scan the QR code or go to <https://doal.ink/EIMRUY>.

Thank you in advance for your participation. Please keep us in your prayers as we embark on this process.

Sincerely in Christ,

Emily Hurlimann, LCSW
Associate Director
Office of Ethics and Integrity in Ministry

P.S. Please pass this letter along to others in your circle who have participated in EIM before the survey link closes on Friday, Sept. 10.

Estimado(a) amigo(a),

Durante 20 años, la Oficina de Ética e Integridad en el Ministerio (EIM, por sus siglas en inglés) ha trabajado diligentemente hacia la sanación mientras crea ambientes seguros en toda la Diócesis de Austin. Estamos orgullosos de que nuestros esfuerzos hayan ayudado a garantizar la seguridad de quienes más necesitan nuestra protección: menores, ancianos y adultos con discapacidad, al tiempo que promovemos el comportamiento ético en nuestros ministerios. Gracias por acompañarnos mientras respondemos a este llamado universal para proteger a aquellos entre nosotros que son vulnerables.

Al mirar hacia el futuro, estamos contemplando cómo podemos construir sobre esta base bien establecida. En primer lugar, la misión de la Oficina de EIM es cumplir con los requisitos del Capítulo de la USCCB para la protección de niños y jóvenes. Aunque nuestro enfoque principal siempre será la protección de los menores, los ancianos y los adultos con discapacidad del abuso a través de la sanación, informando y utilizando sólidas estrategias de prevención, de detección y educación, estamos considerando cómo podemos presentar este importante ministerio de una manera nueva. Ni “Ética e integridad en el ministerio” ni “EIM” ilustran claramente la misión específica del programa, la amplitud de lo que este ministerio logra ahora o que está alineado con los nombres de departamentos similares en otras diócesis. Adoptar una nueva identidad nos permitiría presentar EIM de una manera más clara y con la que sea posible relacionarse.

Para asegurarnos de tomar una decisión informada sobre el cambio de marca de EIM, y para comprender mejor las experiencias de aquellos que han estado involucrados en este ministerio vital, hemos creado una breve encuesta. Esperamos que dedique unos minutos de su tiempo para compartir su opinión con nosotros. Para acceder a la encuesta, escanee el código QR o vaya al <https://doal.ink/EIMRYS>.

Gracias de antemano por su participación. Por favor, manténganos en sus oraciones mientras nos embarcamos en este proceso.

Sinceramente en Cristo,

Emily Hurlimann
Directora Asociada
Oficina de Ética e Integridad en el Ministerio

P.D. Por favor, pase esta carta a otras personas de su círculo que hayan participado en EIM antes de que el enlace de la encuesta se cierre el viernes 10 de septiembre.
