Did You Know?

On November 19, 1870, the Bassett brothers of Brenham deeded one acre of land to the Catholics to be used as parish grounds. Ownership of the land can be traced back to April 26, 1831 when the Mexican government deeded to Arabella Harrington, 4,428 acres of land (1 league). This was a result from a contract (May 20, 1825) Stephen F. Austin obtained from the government of Coahuila and the Texas States of the Republic of Mexico. Mrs. Harrington, a widow with family and a native of the United States of the North, and a member of the 500 families to colonize the region, was entitled to the grant of one league of land.

¿Sabías Qué?

El 19 de noviembre de 1870, los hermanos Bassett de Brenham cedieron un acre de tierra a la Católicos para ser usados como terrenos parroquiales. La propiedad de la tierra se remonta al 26 de abril de 1831 cuando el gobierno mexicano cedió a Arabella Harrington, 4,428 acres de tierra (1 legua). Esto fue el resultado de un contrato (20 de mayo de 1825) que Stephen F. Austin obtuvo de el gobierno de Coahuila y los estados de Texas de la República de México. La Sra. Harrington, una viuda con familia y ciudadana de los Estados Unidos del Norte, y miembro de las 500 familias para colonizar la región, tenía derecho a la concesión de una legua de tierra.

DEACON'S CORNER

"We are all made in God's image and likeness. We are called to reverence the Lord in the many ways in which he is present in his world. When we love other people, we are loving people who themselves are unique reflections of the presence of God. We cannot love God and hate others. Sometimes people say that they pray hard, they come to Church often, but they don't feel they are making any progress in their spiritual life. Maybe we all feel this way at times. Perhaps, when we feel this way, we need to ask ourselves if we are at peace with other people. We may not like someone, but if we are full of hatred for someone, we are destroying the love of God within us.

People used to ask Mother Theresa why she cared for the poor, dying on the streets. They would point out to her that these people weren't even Christian. Her response was, "How can you love God and not care for his image?" To this we can add, "We don't help others according to whether they are Catholic or not. We help them because we are Catholic." God doesn't expect us to leave our families and go to the poorest countries of the world to seek out those who need the most help, but he does expect us to reverence His Presence in others. God doesn't want us to be bogged down in a quagmire of laws, but he does expect us to live out the one law of loving him with all our hearts, minds and souls and loving our neighbors as ourselves.

The people who heard Jesus speak realized this. After he spoke no one dared ask him any question. Nor should we ever question the Law of Love.

"You shall love your God with your whole heart, your whole mind and whole soul and you shall love your neighbor as yourself."

Peace. Deacon Al

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

Todos fuimos hechos a imagen y semejanza de Dios. Estamos llamados a reverenciar al Señor en las muchas formas en que él está presente en su mundo. Cuando amamos a otras personas, amamos a personas que en sí mismas son reflejos únicos de la presencia de Dios. No podemos amar a Dios y odiar a los demás. A veces las personas dicen que oran mucho, que vienen a la Iglesia con frecuencia, pero no sienten que estén progresando en su vida espiritual. Quizás todos nos sintamos así a veces. Quizás, cuando nos sentimos así, necesitamos preguntarnos si estamos en paz con otras personas. Puede que no nos caiga bien alguien, pero si estamos llenos de odio por alguien, estamos destruyendo el amor de Dios dentro de nosotros.

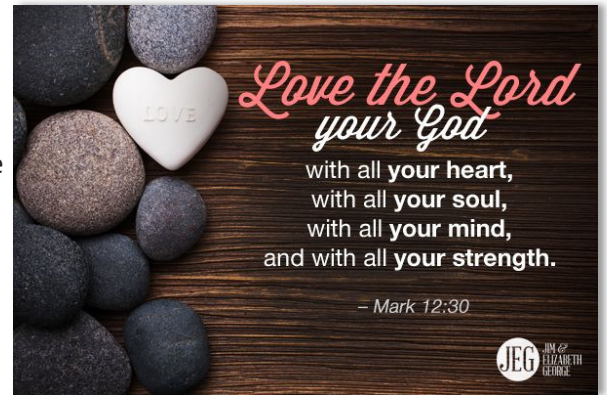

La gente solía preguntarle a la Madre Teresa por qué se preocupaba por los pobres, muriendo en las calles. Le señalaban que estas personas ni siquiera eran cristianas. Su respuesta fue: "¿Cómo puedes amar a Dios y no preocuparte por su imagen?" A esto podemos agregar: "No ayudamos a los demás según sean católicos o no. Les ayudamos porque nosotros somos católicos". Dios no espera que dejemos a nuestras familias y vayamos a los países más pobres del mundo para buscar a los que necesitan más ayuda, pero sí espera que reverenciamos Su Presencia en los demás. Dios no quiere que estemos empantanados en un lodazal de leyes, pero sí espera que vivamos la única ley de amarlo con todo nuestro corazón, mente y alma y amar a nuestro prójimo como a nosotros mismos.

Las personas que escucharon a Jesús hablar se dieron cuenta de esto. Después de hablar, nadie se atrevió a hacerle ninguna pregunta. Tampoco deberíamos nunca cuestionar la Ley del Amor.

"Amarás a tu Dios con todo tu corazón, con toda tu mente y con toda tu alma, y amarás a tu prójimo como a ti mismo".

Paz. Diácono Al
