DEACON'S CORNER

"What the widows from the gospel did is extremely difficult for all of us. No matter how great our faith is, it is extremely difficult to put our total trust in God. There is something within us all that looks for solutions to our problems outside of the realm of faith. Perhaps as rugged individualists we think that we can solve our own problems, conquer all obstacles ourselves. Certainly, we are all tempted to believe that the proper amount of cash applied in the right places can heal all life's ills. At the same time, I know you will agree that the great fallacy of our age is that money can solve our problems. It is the job of advertisers to convince us that we can buy happiness. The fact is that among those who have been blessed with material success the happiest are those who have no qualms about sharing their wealth. The radical message of today's readings is that we must place our confidence in God rather than in our Material possessions. This is difficult for us to do because it demands our practicing the forgotten virtue of humility. Humility? Yes, humility. Only a humble person recognizes where he or she stands before God. Only a humble person recognizes his or her profound need for God. Only a humble person is certain that the presence of God in his or her life is fundamental to happiness.

The two widows gave from their substance. They put their trust in God shouting with their actions that His presence in their lives was infinitely more important than anything they owned, even more important than everything they owned. They give us the example of ideal Christians, humbly trusting in God to care for them.

Perhaps, some day, you and I will have faith so profound that we trust in God as the two widows. But, then again, that is one of the reasons why we go to Church, isn't it? We are here to pray for faith.

Peace. Deacon Al

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

Lo que hicieron las viudas del evangelio es extremadamente difícil para todos nosotros. No importa cuán grande sea nuestra fe, es extremadamente difícil poner nuestra total confianza en Dios. Hay algo dentro de todos nosotros que busca soluciones a nuestros problemas fuera del ámbito de la fe. Quizás como individualistas rudos pensamos que podemos resolver nuestros propios problemas, conquistar todos los obstáculos nosotros mismos. Ciertamente, todos estamos tentados a creer que la cantidad adecuada de efectivo aplicada en el los lugares adecuados pueden curar todos los males de la vida. Al mismo tiempo, sé que estarás de acuerdo en que el mayor engaño de nuestra época es que el dinero puede resolver nuestros problemas. Es trabajo de los anunciantes convencernos de que podemos comprar la felicidad. El hecho es que entre Aquellos que han sido bendecidos con el éxito material, los más felices son aquellos que no tienen inconveniencias en compartir su poder. El mensaje radical de las lecturas de hoy es que debemos poner nuestra confianza en Dios más que en nuestras posesiones materiales. Esto es difícil para nosotros porque exige que practiquemos la olvidada virtud de la humildad. ¿Humildad? Sí, humildad. Solo una persona humilde reconoce su posición ante Dios. Solo una persona humilde reconoce su profunda necesidad de Dios. Solo una persona humilde tiene la certeza de que la presencia de Dios en su vida es fundamental para la felicidad.

Las dos viudas dieron de sus bienes. Pusieron su confianza en Dios gritando con sus acciones que Su presencia en sus vidas era infinitamente más importante que cualquier cosa que tuvieran, incluso más importante que todo lo que ellas poseían. Nos dan el ejemplo de cristianos ideales, confiando humildemente en Dios para que los cuide.

Quizás, algún día, tú y yo tengamos una fe tan profunda que confiemos en Dios como las dos viudas. Pero entonces de nuevo, esa es una de las razones por las que vamos a la Iglesia, ¿no es así? Estamos aquí para orar por la fe.

Paz. Diácono Al
