Did You Know?

Typically, a Deacon is assigned to a parish in a non-funded position. He provides volunteer work in support of his ministry.

Most deacons work in the secular world to provide income for their family and themselves. In order, a deacon's priorities are: God, family, job, diaconal ministry. It is the bishop who assigns a deacon to a particular ministry and parish. As a parish, we are blessed to have outstanding deacons who serve our spiritual needs and support our staff with their knowledge and experience.

Thank you deacons, we appreciate everything you do.

¿Sabías Qué?

Por lo general, se asigna un diácono a una parroquia en una posición no pagada. Ofrece trabajo voluntario en apoyo de su ministerio.

La mayoría de los diáconos trabajan en el mundo secular para generar ingresos para su familia y ellos mismos. En orden, las prioridades de un diácono son: Dios, familia, trabajo, ministerio diaconal. Es el obispo quien asigna un diácono a un ministerio y parroquia en particular. CLOSING OF OUR JUBILEE YEAR

December 8, 2021 | 6:00 PM

Brenham, TX 77833

Please join us for Mass honoring our Patron Saint and the closing of our Jubilee year; reception to follow.

Raffle Drawing will be held at the reception.

Electronic Donations are the modern way to provide St. Mary's with your gifts. When a family moves to electronic donations there has been shown to be a drop off of recorded donations for the Diocese or Parish Special Collections – Assumption of Mary, Purple Bag, Catholic Higher Education, Seminarian and Priest Education, etc. You are probably dropping in cash when the special collection comes around at the end of Mass, but then you don't receive credit on your taxes or your Church annual donation letter. These special collections are listed on your Donation page – please consider adding them to your electronic donations throughout the year.

Thank You

List of Annual Special Collections:

Kept at the Parish:

All Holy Days; Monthly Purple Bag; Monthly Maintenance Donation; Monthly Consecrated Life donation; Catholic Spirit; Vacation Bible School; St. Mary's Religious Education.

Collected by the Diocese:

Catholic Universities; Ash Wednesday - World & Home Missions; Catholic Relief Services; Holy Land; Seminarians and Priest Education; Archdiocese for the Military Services; Peter's Pence – Holy Fathers Mission; Catholic Services Appeal; Catholic Campaign for Human Development; World Mission Sunday; Retired & Medical for older Clergy and Religious; Catholic Charities Weekend; Feast of the Holy Family; Disaster Relief, as needed; Annual Diocesan Mission Appeal – 2021 was the Diocese of Kurnool, India

Las donaciones electrónicas son la forma moderna de proporcionar sus ofrendas a St. Mary's. Cuando una familia cambia a donaciones electrónicas, se ha demostrado que hay una disminución de las donaciones registradas para las Colectas Especiales de la Diócesis o Parroquia: Asunción de María, Bolsa Morada, Educación Superior Católica, Educación de Seminaristas y Sacerdotes, etc. Probablemente esté dando dinero en efectivo cuando la colecta especial llega al final de la misa, pero luego no recibe crédito en sus impuestos o en su Carta de donación anual de la Iglesia.

Estas colecciones especiales se enumeran en su página de donaciones; considere agregarlas a sus donaciones electrónicas durante todo el año. Gracias

Lista de colecciones especiales anuales:

Para la parroquia:

Día de Todos los Santos; Bolsa Morada Mensual; Donación de Mantenimiento mensual; Donación mensual de vida consagrada; Espíritu católico; La escuela Bíblica de Vacaciones; Educación religiosa de Santa María.

DEACON'S CORNER

Today's readings are full of gloom and doom. The first reading from the Book of Daniel talks about the end of time being a time of unsurpassed stress. The Gospel reading from the Apocalyptic sections of Mark presents the end of time as being the day of tribulations. Scary stuff, these end of the world readings.

But are they? Look again at that first reading: Daniel prophesies that many will live forever. The wise will shine brightly like the splendor of the firmament and those who lead the many to justice will be like the stars forever. And in Mark, Jesus adds, "the elect will be gathered from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky."

The early Christians did not look at the Second Coming and end of time with terror. Instead, they saw it as a time when the Lord would return to his people and correct the injustices of the world. Throughout the world, little children were starving to death while rich people ate heartily. The conquering Romans, like the Greeks and Persians before them, had no respect for any life other than their own and killed the population of whole cities. This is not what God created the world to be. The world was suffering from sin.

The world has not changed all that much. And yet, it has. The major change in the world is that with Jesus Christ there is hope. There is hope that war will not have the last word. There is hope that starvation will become a bad memory. There is hope that racism and sexism will not in the end dance a jig together. There is hope that oppression will not have a lasting foothold over the vulnerable. There is hope that those who do evil will not prevail.

The visions we heard today rely on us to take a role in the conquest of the Kingdom. We are assured that if we take up the battle of good against evil, good will prevail and we will join in the triumph of God's forces.

Peace. Deacon Al

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

Las lecturas de hoy están llenas de pesimismo y fatalidad. La primera lectura del Libro de Daniel habla sobre el El final de los tiempos es una época de estrés insuperable. La lectura del Evangelio de las secciones apocalípticas de Marcos presenta la el fin de los tiempos es el día de las tribulaciones. Cosas aterradoras, estas lecturas del fin del mundo.

¿Pero lo son? Mire de nuevo esa primera lectura: Daniel profetiza que muchos vivirán para siempre. El sabio brillará intensamente como el esplendor del firmamento y los que llevan a muchos a la justicia serán como las estrellas para siempre. Y en Marcos Jesús agrega, "los elegidos serán reunidos de los cuatro vientos, desde el fin de la tierra hasta el fin del cielo".

Los primeros cristianos no miraron la Segunda Venida y el fin de los tiempos con terror. En cambio, lo vieron como un momento en que el Señor volvería a su pueblo y corregiría las injusticias del mundo. En todo el mundo, los niños pequeños muriendo de hambre mientras los ricos comían con ganas. Los romanos conquistadores, como los griegos y los persas antes que ellos, no tenían respeto por ninguna vida que no fuera la suya propia y mataron a la población de ciudades enteras. Esto no es lo que Dios creó al mundo para ser. El mundo estaba sufriendo por el pecado.

El mundo no ha cambiado tanto. Y sin embargo, lo ha hecho. El mayor cambio en el mundo es que con Jesucristo hay esperanza. Hay esperanza de que la guerra no tenga la última palabra. Existe la esperanza de que el hambre se convierta en un mal recuerdo. Existe la esperanza de que el racismo y el sexismo al final no bailen juntos. Hay esperanza de que la opresión no tenga un punto de apoyo duradero sobre los vulnerables. Hay esperanza de que los que hacen el mal no prevalezcan.

Las visiones que escuchamos hoy dependen de que tomemos un papel en la conquista del Reino. Estamos seguros de que si asumimos la batalla del bien contra el mal, el bien prevalecerá y nos uniremos al triunfo de las fuerzas de Dios.

Paz. Diácono Al
