A sincere Thank You for all the coats, jackets and hoodies that were donated to the STRIVE Prison Ministry. Because of your generosity, we were able to deliver a tremendous number of cold weather items. Your support is truly a blessing to these women as they begin putting their lives back together.

Un sincero Agradecimiento por todos los abrigos, chaquetas y sudaderas con capucha que fueron donados al Ministerio de Prisiones STRIVE. Gracias a su generosidad, pudimos entregar una gran cantidad de artículos para el clima frío. Su apoyo es verdaderamente una bendición para estas mujeres mientras comienzan a reconstruir sus vidas.

DEACON'S CORNER

"Jesus' call in the Gospel to watch and stay awake is good for us to meditate on during Advent. Jesus' call to us is to remember who we are and not forget the real meaning of life. During Advent we reflect on Jesus in the womb of Mary, growing slowly, silently and invisibly, present even though invisible. In these times when some may be tempted to allow their hearts be "coarsened with debauchery and drunkenness and the cares of life." Advent and baby Jesus growing silently in Mary's womb, present but invisible, remind us to look beyond what we can see, and not forget God whom we cannot see, to "stay awake, praying at all times...to stand with confidence before the Son of Man."

During Advent let us once again reflect on who we really are and the only way in which we will achieve the happiness we seek. During Advent let us look beyond the fact that Santa Claus is coming to town and prepare our hearts and town for Jesus coming to town. We are God's people and we will only have peace and happiness if Christ is at the center of our lives. Paul wrote to the Thessalonians and us in the second reading,

"May the Lord so confirm your hearts in holiness that you may be blameless in the sight of our God and Father when our Lord Jesus Christ comes with all his saints...We urge you and appeal to you to make more and more progress in the kind of life you are meant to live."

I conclude with the words of Jesus in the Gospel today,

"Watch yourselves, or your hearts will be coarsened with debauchery and drunkenness and the cares of life...Stay awake, praying at all times...to stand with confidence before the Son of Man."

Wide awake. Deacon Al

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

El llamado de Jesús en el Evangelio a velar y permanecer despierto es bueno para que meditemos durante el Adviento. El llamado de Jesús para nosotros es recordar quiénes somos y no olvidar el verdadero significado de la vida. Durante el Adviento reflexionamos sobre Jesús en el vientre de María, creciendo lenta, silenciosa e invisiblemente, presente aunque invisible. En estos tiempos en los que algunos pueden ser tentados para permitir que sus corazones sean "toscos con el libertinaje, la borrachera y las preocupaciones de la vida". Adviento y el niño Jesús creciendo silenciosamente en el vientre de María, presente pero invisible, nos recuerda mirar más allá de lo que podemos ver y no olvidar a Dios a quien no podemos ver, "permanecer despiertos, orando en todo momento ... para estar de pie con confianza ante el Hijo del Hombre".

Durante el Adviento, reflexionemos una vez más sobre quiénes somos realmente y la única forma en que lograremos la felicidad que buscamos. Durante el Adviento, miremos más allá del hecho de que Santa Claus viene a la ciudad y preparemos nuestro corazón y nuestra ciudad para cuando Jesús venga. Somos el pueblo de Dios y solo tendremos paz y felicidad si Cristo está en el centro de nuestras vidas. Pablo escribió a los tesalonicenses y a nosotros en la segunda lectura:

"Que el Señor confirme así vuestros corazones en santidad, para que seáis irreprochables ante los ojos de nuestro Dios y Padre cuando nuestro Señor Jesucristo venga con todos sus santos ... Te insistimos y te pedimos que prograses cada vez más en el género de la vida que estás destinado a vivir".

Concluyo con las palabras de Jesús en el Evangelio de hoy,

"Cuidense, o sus corazones se volverán toscos con el libertinaje y la borrachera y las preocupaciones de la vida... Manténganse despiertos, orando en todo momento ... para estar con confianza ante el Hijo del Hombre".

Despierto por completo. Diácono Al
