Wellness Ministry
1Corinthians 6: 19-20

It is our duty and an expression of Christ's love to extend help to someone who seems depressed. The very first thing to do is seek guidance from the Holy Spirit. Quiet your own life business and listen to His leadership. Many times the Holy Spirit will respond with the simple thought of a name of someone from your life who needs to be checked on. The Holy Spirit can also provide you with words. Ask lots of open ended questions. Sit and listen without offering up your own experience or advice. You don't have to have a shared experience to understand someone's pain. Oftentimes people just need someone to listen and display understanding and empathy. If you know of someone who always struggles during this time of year, it is often helpful to be a positive distraction. Invite them to a movie, coffee or lunch. If they are widowed or single, make a plan to sit with them at one of the Advent liturgical celebrations. It gets old attending Mass alone, especially if there was a time when you had family sharing your pew. Start by slowing yourself down and asking the Holy Spirit to see others through Christ's lens. This lens sees those who are hurting. Draw near those in mental and physical pain.

What to do if you or a loved one displays signs of depression?

Contact the Church office to Seek Spiritual Council. We have many parishioners, staff and clergy who are here to help. We are a body of Christ and this kind of support is active in our parish. Explore the strategies below and see if any of these strategies can be improved upon. Access your Primary Care Physician. PCP's are aware of depression, especially during the holidays. They will be able to help you with resources available. If you do not have a Primary Care Physician, contact the Wellness Committee for guidance on how to get one.

Simple strategies to manage depression?

Increase daily water intake. Observe diet. Take note of eating habits. Exercise. Move at least once a day.

Get outdoors. Sit in the sunshine. Serve someone else.

Avoid Social Media. Contemplate giving up Social Media for Advent.

Julie Sawyer, LCSW

Ministerio del Bienestar
1Corintios 6: 19-20

Es nuestro deber y una expresión del amor de Cristo brindar ayuda a alguien que parece deprimido. La primera cosa que debemos hacer es buscar la guía del Espíritu Santo. Tranquilece los asuntos de su propia vida y escuche su liderazgo. Muchas veces el Espíritu Santo responderá con el simple pensamiento de un nombre de alguien de su vida que necesite la ayuda. El Espíritu Santo puede también proporcionarte las palabras. Haga muchas preguntas abiertas. Siéntese y escuche sin ofrecer su propia experiencia o consejo. No es necesario tener una experiencia compartida para comprender el dolor de alguien. A menudo, la gente solo necesita que alguien la escuche y demuestre comprensión y empatía. Si conoces a alguien que siempre lucha durante esta época del año, es a menudo útil ser una distracción positiva. Invítelos a ver una película, tomar un café o almorzar. Si son viudos o solteros, haga un plan para sentarse con ellos en una de las celebraciones litúrgicas de Adviento. Se vuelve viejo asistir a misa solo, especialmente si hubo un momento en que tuviste familia compartiendo tu banco. Empiece por reducir la velocidad de tu vida y pedirle al Espíritu Santo que veas a los demás a través del lente de Cristo. Esta lente ve a los que están sufriendo. Acérquese a los que sufren dolores físicos y mentales.

¿Qué hacer si usted o un ser querido muestra signos de depresión?

Comuníquese con la oficina de la Iglesia para buscar un consejo espiritual. Tenemos muchos feligreses, personal y clérigos que están aquí para ayudar. Somos un cuerpo de Cristo y este tipo de apoyo está activo en nuestra parroquia. Explore las estrategias a continuación y vea si alguna de estas estrategias pueden mejorarse. Acuda a su médico de atención primaria. Los PCP son conscientes de la depresión, especialmente durante las vacaciones. Ellos podrán ayudarlo con los recursos disponibles. Si no tiene un médico de atención primaria, comuníquese con el Comité del Bienestar para obtener orientación sobre cómo obtener uno.

¿Estrategias simples para manejar la depresión?

Incrementar la ingesta diaria de agua. Observe la dieta. Toma nota de los hábitos alimenticios. Ejercicio. Muévete al menos una vez al día.

Sal al aire libre. Siéntese al sol. Sirve a alguien más.

Evite las redes sociales. Piense en renunciar a las redes sociales por el Adviento.

DEACON'S CORNER

This weekend we celebrate the Second Sunday of Advent. The coming of our Savior at Christmas is fast approaching! Are we ready to receive Him into our hearts? Or are we preoccupied with decorating, planning and attending parties and buying gifts?

In the Gospel St. John the Baptist tells the people "Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths...all flesh will see the salvation of God." The text from Isaiah Chapter 40 announces the restoration of Israel and the world. Other ancient texts use similar passages to describe the triumphant return of a king. St. John tells the people and us to prepare for the coming of our saving King Jesus Christ. Advent like lent is a penitential season. During Advent we can prepare worthily for Christmas and the coming of Christ by removing those things in our hearts and lives that hinder Jesus our savior from coming anew into our lives. Prepare the Way of the Lord!

On this Wednesday Dec. 8 we will celebrate the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception our parish's patron. In Genesis chapter 3 God promised that the seed of a woman would crush Satan's head and so it was. The Blessed Virgin, the New Eve conceived without sin, would bring forth her Son, the New Adam, the one who would defeat Satan. Her Immaculate Conception is a singular grace and privilege given to Mary by God through the preapplication of the merits of her Son and Savior Jesus Christ.

On Wednesday we will also celebrate the closing of our Jubilee Year; a singular grace given to our parish by Pope Francis. I hope everyone has taken advantage of the plenary indulgence associated with the Jubilee Year and our Holy Door. Bishop Joe Vasquez will celebrate the closing mass of our Jubilee Year this Wednesday at 6PM.

May the peace of Christ and the prayers of the Immaculate Conception be with you all. Amen

Deacon John

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

Este fin de semana celebramos el Segundo Domingo de Adviento. La venida de nuestro Salvador en Navidad se acerca rápidamente! ¿Estamos listos para recibirlo en nuestro corazón? ¿O estamos preocupados por decorar, planificar y asistir a fiestas y comprar regalos?

En el Evangelio San Juan Bautista dice al pueblo "Preparad el camino del Señor, enderezad sus sendas ... toda carne verá la salvación de Dios ". El texto del capítulo 40 de Isaías anuncia la restauración de Israel y del mundo. Otros textos antiguos utilizan pasajes similares para describir el regreso triunfal de un rey. San Juan nos dice a la gente y a nosotros que nos preparemos para el venida de nuestro Rey salvador Jesucristo. El Adviento como cuaresma es tiempo de penitencia. Durante el Adviento podemos prepararnos dignamente para la Navidad y la venida de Cristo quitando esas cosas en nuestros corazones y vidas que obstaculizan a Jesús nuestro salvador de venir de nuevo a nuestras vidas. ¡Preparad el Camino del Señor!

Este miércoles 8 de diciembre celebraremos la Solemnidad de la Inmaculada Concepción patrona de nuestra parroquia. En Génesis capítulo 3 Dios prometió que la simiente de una mujer aplastaría la cabeza de Satanás y así fue. La Santísima Virgen, la Nueva Eva concebida sin pecado, daría a luz a su Hijo, el Nuevo Adán, el que derrotaría a Satanás. Su inmaculada concepción es una gracia y un privilegio singular que Dios le dio a María mediante la aplicación previa de los méritos de su Hijo y Salvador Jesucristo.

El miércoles también celebraremos la clausura de nuestro Año Jubilar; una gracia singular dada a nuestra parroquia por el Papa Francisco. Espero que todos hayan aprovechado la indulgencia plenaria asociada al Año Jubilar y nuestra Puerta Santa. El Obispo Joe Vasquez celebrará la misa de clausura de nuestro Año Jubilar este miércoles a las 6PM.

Que la paz de Cristo y las oraciones de la Inmaculada Concepción estén con todos ustedes. Amén

Diácono John
