Conference: The Bible Alone?

Presenter: Den. John Pelletier

Date: Wednesday February 16, 6:00PM

The Bible Alone?

Sola Scriptura?

Is the bible alone the sole rule of faith? Does it contain everything that God wants to reveal to us? Does it contain all we need to be saved? Why do so many Christian denominations that rely solely on the bible disagree about various doctrines? Is Sola Scriptura in the bible? Is it historical? Come and see why the Catholic Church is the bible Church.

Did You Know?

In early martyrologies, three different St. Valentines are mentioned, all sharing February 14 as a feast day. The first was a priest and physician in Rome. He was arrested and condemned to die for his marrying couples, comforting and aiding Christian martyrs during the persecution of Emperor Claudius II, and refusal to give up his faith. The second St. Valentine was the bishop of Interamna, also persecuted and put to death under Emperor Claudius. The third St. Valentine suffered martyrdom in Africa. Little is known about this third St. Valentine.

¿Sabías Qué?

En los primeros martirologios se mencionan tres San Valentín diferentes, todos compartiendo el 14 de febrero como día de fiesta. El primero era un sacerdote y médico en Roma. Fue arrestado y condenado a muerte por sus parejas que caso, consoló y ayudo a los mártires cristianos durante la persecución del emperador Claudio II, y por negarse a renunciar a su fe. El segundo San Valentín fue obispo de Interamna, también perseguido y ejecutado bajo el emperador Claudio. El tercer San Valentín sufrió el martirio en África. Poco se sabe de este tercer San Valentín.

DEACON'S CORNER

Who invented the Valentine's Day that we know of?

Saints are certainly expected to keep busy in the afterlife. Their holy duties include interceding in earthly affairs and entertaining petitions from living souls. In this respect, St. Valentine has wide-ranging spiritual responsibilities. People call on him to watch over the lives of lovers, of course, but also for interventions regarding beekeeping and epilepsy, as well as the plague, fainting and traveling. As you might expect, he's also the patron saint of engaged couples and happy marriages.

The medieval English poet Geoffrey Chaucer often took liberties with history, placing his poetic characters into fictitious historical contexts that he represented as real. No record exists of romantic celebrations on Valentine's Day prior to a poem Chaucer wrote around 1375. In his work "Parliament of Fowles," he links a tradition of courtly love with the celebration of St. Valentine's feast day—an association that didn't exist until after his poem received widespread attention. The poem refers to February 14 as the day birds (and humans) come together to find a mate. When Chaucer wrote, "For this was sent on Seynt Valentyne's day / Whan every foul cometh ther to choose his mate," he may have invented the holiday we know today.

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

¿Quién inventó el Día de San Valentín que conocemos?

Ciertamente se espera que los santos se mantengan ocupados en el más allá. Sus deberes sagrados incluyen interceder en asuntos terrenales y entreteniendo peticiones de almas vivientes. En este sentido, San Valentín tiene varias responsabilidades espirituales. La gente lo llama para que vigile la vida de los amantes, por supuesto, pero también para intervenciones relacionadas con la apicultura y la epilepsia, así como la peste, los desmayos y los viajes. Como podrías esperar, también es el santo patrón de las parejas comprometidas y los matrimonios felices.

El poeta inglés medieval Geoffrey Chaucer a menudo se tomaba libertades con la historia, colocando sus poéticos personajes en contextos históricos ficticios que representó como reales. No existe registro de romanticismo celebraciones del Día de San Valentín antes de un poema que Chaucer escribió alrededor de 1375. En su obra "Parlamento de Fowles", vincula una tradición de amor cortés con la celebración de la fiesta de San Valentín, asociación que no existió hasta después de que su poema recibiera una amplia atención. El poema se refiere al 14 de febrero como el día de los pájaros. (y los humanos) se unen para encontrar pareja. Cuando Chaucer escribió: "Porque esto fue enviado por encargo de Seynt Valentyne día / Cuando todo lo malo viene allí a elegir a su pareja", es posible que haya inventado la festividad que conocemos hoy.
