DEACON'S CORNER

Many people who do not regularly attend Mass come to Church on Easter. I am not saying that all the additional worshipers on Easter do not regularly attend Mass, many are visitors, vacationing in Texas or coming from out of state to spend time with their parents or grandparents. But those who do not regularly attend Mass come on Easter for one simple reason: they are Catholic. They want to pray with their Catholic community. They want to celebrate the New Life of the Lord they received at their baptism. They are here for the best of reasons, they want to draw closer to their Savior and they want to do this through the beauties and sacraments of the Catholic Church. Catholicism runs deep, very deep. And that is wonderful. So, what does it mean to be a Catholic? I could answer this question in a theological way, but, instead, I want to consider our participation in three of the many fundamental elements of Catholicism: the Church, the Eucharist and Easter.

Being Catholic means that we are part of a Church with a huge number of devoted worshipers, 1.285 billion people or more. Back in 2004 on our first trip to Rome we were in the Piazza San Pietro waiting for Pope Benedict to arrive in the Pope-Mobile. We were in among a huge crowd of people, thousands and thousands, in the piazza, waiting for the Pope to arrive. That is when it really hit me. The people in the piazza were from all over the world. And I was part of them. I belonged there. Every person who comes to Church on Easter belongs here. We are all part of this, this worldwide assemblage of devoted worshipers who today come together to proclaim our belief in the resurrection of the Lord. We are all part of this, this massive and wonderful Catholic Church.

What else does being a Catholic mean? It means that we receive the Body and Blood of the Lord in the Eucharist. We take Jesus inside of us. We are united to him in His death on the Cross and in His Resurrection.

The tomb is empty. But the world is full. The Savior Lives. May his life change the world. May we let his life change our worlds.

Alleluia "He has risen!" .

Deacon Al

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

Muchas personas que no asisten regularmente a Misa vienen a la Iglesia en Pascua. No digo que todos los feligreses adicionales en Pascua no asistan regularmente a misa, muchos son visitantes, están de vacaciones en Texas o vienen de fuera del estado para pasar tiempo con sus padres o abuelos. Pero los que no asisten regularmente a Misa vienen en Pascua por una simple razón: son católicos. Quieren orar con su comunidad católica. Quieren celebrar la Vida Nueva del Señor que recibieron en su bautismo. Están aquí por la mejor de las razones, quieren acercarse a su Salvador y quieren hacerlo a través de las bellezas y los sacramentos de la Iglesia Católica. El catolicismo es profundo, muy profundo. Y eso es maravilloso. Entonces, ¿qué significa ser católico? Podría responder a esta pregunta de manera teológica, pero, en cambio, quiero considerar nuestra participación en tres de los muchos elementos fundamentales del catolicismo: la Iglesia, la Eucaristía y la Pascua.

Ser católico significa que somos parte de una Iglesia con una gran cantidad de adoradores devotos, 1.285 billones de personas o más. En 2004, en nuestro primer viaje a Roma, estábamos en la Piazza San Pietro esperando que llegara el Papa Benedicto en el Papa-Móvil. Estábamos en medio de una gran multitud de personas, miles y miles, en la plaza, esperando que llegara el Papa. Fue entonces cuando realmente me golpeó. La gente en la plaza era de todo el mundo. Y yo era parte de ellos. Yo pertenecía allí. Cada persona que viene a la Iglesia en Pascua pertenece aquí. Todos somos parte de esto, esta asamblea mundial de adoradores devotos que hoy se unen para proclamar nuestra creencia en la resurrección del Señor. Todos somos parte de esta, esta Iglesia Católica masiva y maravillosa.

¿Qué más significa ser católico? Significa que recibimos el Cuerpo y la Sangre del Señor en la Eucaristía. Llevamos a Jesús dentro de nosotros. Estamos unidos a él en Su muerte en la Cruz y en Su Resurrección.

La tumba está vacía. Pero el mundo está lleno. El Salvador Vive. Que su vida cambie el mundo. Que dejemos que su vida cambie nuestros mundos
