DEACON'S CORNER

This weekend's readings talk about commitment to God and His place in our lives. The prophet Elijah meets with his successor Elisha. Before beginning his ministry Elisha asks to bid farewell to his family and Elijah agrees. Leaving his family and livelihood behind, he slaughters his oxen and burns their yokes as fuel to cook them. Elisha is totally committed to God's plan for his life.

In the Gospel Jesus is also looking for total commitment to His mission. He seems harsh not even allowing those He calls to say goodbye to their families or bury their dead. Instead Jesus says get on with the ministry I am calling you to. Perhaps Jesus knew that if they returned to their families they would never return to Jesus. He asks for total commitment. Jesus still calls some to give up family and livelihood, missionaries for example. We also see total commitment in the lives of the saints and martyrs whether clergy, religious, married or single. Of course Jesus Himself was the one totally committed to God's plan. To complete the Father's plan Jesus left his throne in heaven and his family in Nazareth behind and endured ridicule, abuse and death in order to fulfill His mission. Jesus is not asking us to do anything He was not willing to do Himself.

Jesus does not call everyone to leave home and family behind like those today's readings. What He does require is to put God first in our lives and serve Him with total commitment in our state in life and become saints. He tells us to pick up our cross and follow Him. What is Jesus asking of you today?

Deacon John

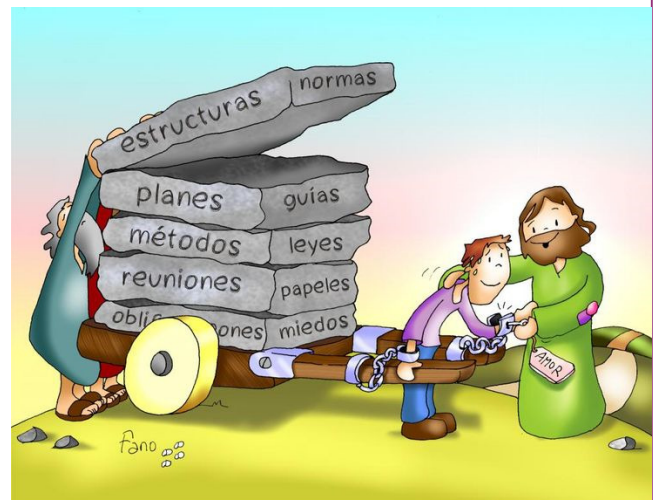

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

Las lecturas de este fin de semana hablan sobre el compromiso con Dios y su lugar en nuestra vida. El profeta Elías se encuentra con su sucesor Eliseo. Antes de comenzar su ministerio Eliseo pide despedirse de su familia y Elías accede. Dejando detrás su familia y su estilo de vida atrás, sacrifica sus bueyes y quema sus yugos como combustible para cocinarlos. Eliseo está totalmente comprometido con el plan de Dios para su vida.

En el Evangelio, Jesús también busca un compromiso total con su misión. Parece duro ni siquiera permitir a los que Él llama despedirse de sus familias o enterrar a sus muertos. En cambio, Jesús dice que sigan con el ministerio al que los estoy llamando. Quizás Jesús sabía que si volvían a sus familias nunca volverían a Jesús. Él pide total compromiso. Jesús todavía llama a algunos a dejar la familia y el estilo de vida, misioneros por ejemplo. Vemos también un compromiso total en la vida de los santos y mártires ya sea clérigos, religiosos, casados o solteros. Por supuesto, Jesús mismo era el que estaba totalmente comprometido con el plan de Dios. Para completar el plan del Padre, Jesús dejó su trono en el cielo y su familia en Nazaret atrás y soportó burlas, abusos y muerte para cumplir Su misión. Jesús no nos está pidiendo que hagamos nada que Él no estuviera dispuesto a hacer por sí mismo.

Jesús no llama a todos a dejar atrás el hogar y la familia como los de hoy en las lecturas. Lo que sí requiere es poner a Dios en primer lugar en nuestras vidas y servirle con total compromiso en nuestro estado de vida y convertirnos en santos. Él nos dice que tomemos nuestra cruz y lo sigamos ¿Qué te pide Jesús hoy?
