St. Mary's has a diverse music ministry with different choirs who lead the music at our Sunday Masses and other Liturgies. One of the choirs is the Family Choir, made up of adults, teens, and children with a parent, who leads the music at the Sunday 10:30am Mass.

You are invited to be a part of the music ministry by adding your voice or instrument. Practice is held on Tuesdays at 5:30pm in the choir loft (balcony) of the church. Our mission is nothing more than to praise God through song. Please consider joining and bring your family! For more information about the Family Choir, please call: Frances Karonika (979) 357-2607 or Deidra Mearns (979) 836-5240. For more information about any of the choirs, call the church office.

DEACON'S CORNER

The Boy Scout's motto is to 'Be Prepared', which is of course always good advice. Jesus reminds us of the same thing in our gospel reading where he reminds his followers to always be watchful for the master's return, "for we know not the time and the hour".

When I was a fisherman, we used a helicopter on our ship, which was secured with chains. One of the most common causes of crashes on takeoff was when one chain was left attached. The pilots were trained, of course, to always make a last check that the chains are off, but still crashes happened. One of the captains once asked why the pilots couldn't learn to keep up their guard, as a boxer does. The answer is that if a boxer let's his guard down, he immediately get's hit in the face. Pretty soon he learns the lesson. However, the pilot can forget to check many times, and if the chains were removed, nothing happens.

Jesus warns that we don't know the time and hour when our life will end. That begs the question, if you know your life was going to end next week, what would you make sure to do? Well, first on the list is to be sure you are in a state of grace, so you would get to heaven. You might want to be on good terms with the family and leave your affairs in order. What would be on your list?

Now the question is, if you had died last week, how many of those things on your list would have been left undone?

Blessings and peace, Deacon Steve

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

El lema de los Niños Exploradores es "Estar preparado", lo que, por supuesto, siempre es un buen consejo. Jesús nos recuerda lo mismo en nuestra lectura del evangelio donde les recuerda a sus seguidores que siempre estén atentos al regreso del maestro, "porque no sabemos el tiempo ni la hora".

Cuando yo era pescador, usábamos un helicóptero en nuestro barco, que estaba asegurado con cadenas. Una de las causas más comunes de choques en el despegue fue cuando se dejó una cadena atada. Los pilotos fueron entrenados, por supuesto, para hacer siempre una última verificación de que las cadenas estaban sueltas, pero aun así ocurrían accidentes. Uno de los capitanes preguntó una vez por qué los pilotos no podían aprender a mantener la guardia, como lo hace un boxeador. La respuesta es que si un boxeador baja la guardia, inmediatamente recibe un golpe en la cara. Muy pronto aprende la lección. Sin embargo, el piloto puede olvidarse de revisar muchas veces, y si se quitaron las cadenas, no pasa nada.

Jesús advierte que no sabemos el tiempo y la hora en que terminará nuestra vida. Eso plantea la pregunta, si sabes que tu vida va a terminar la próxima semana, ¿qué te asegurarías de hacer? Bueno, lo primero en la lista es asegurarse de estar en estado de gracia, para poder llegar al cielo. Es posible que desee llevarse bien con la familia y dejar sus asuntos en orden. ¿Cuál estaría en tu lista?

Ahora la pregunta es, si hubieras muerto la semana pasada, ¿cuántas de esas cosas en su lista se habrían quedado sin hacer?

Bendiciones y paz, Diácono Steve
