DEACON'S CORNER

Here at St. Mary's we now gather for a holy hour of prayer on the first Thursday of each month to pray for religious vocations. However, the question of vocation extends beyond just religious vocations. God has a plan for each of us and it is our task to determine where he is leading us.

Consider the experience of St. Anthony of Padua. He left his native Portugal to preach to the Saracens in Morocco, fully expecting to be put to death for doing so. Instead, he became very ill and had to return home and on the return journey was blown off course by storms. He wound up in Sicily and the Franciscans there cared for him. They sent him to Northern Italy to study, and it was there that they discovered his great gift for preaching. Even though he only lived to the age of 37, he revered for his preaching, holy life and his teaching. There were so many miracles associated with him during his life and at his tomb after his death that he was declared a Saint the year after he died and so great was the devotion to him that we even have his statue here in St. Mary's. (He is next to the ambo, holding a bible with the baby Jesus rising out of it).

When we find in our own lives that our plans don't seem to be working out and we always seem to be 'blown off course' from the path we have chosen, perhaps we need to consider if God is trying to tell us something. Perhaps he has something great in mind for us and we need to change our direction in life. Why not join us for the holy hour each month and see where it leads. Who knows, perhaps there may be a statue of you in a Church one day. But even if that doesn't happen, you still may be led to a happier and more fulfilling life by finding your true vocation.

Blessings and peace, Deacon Steve

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

Aquí en St. Mary's ahora nos reunimos para una hora santa de oración el primer jueves de cada mes para orar por las vocaciones religiosas. Sin embargo, la cuestión de la vocación se extiende más allá de las vocaciones religiosas. Dios tiene un plan para cada uno de nosotros y es nuestra tarea determinar hacia dónde nos lleva.

Considere la experiencia de San Antonio de Padua. Dejó su Portugal natal para predicar a los sarracenos en Marruecos, esperando ser condenado a muerte por hacerlo. En cambio, se enfermó gravemente y tuvo que regresar a casa y en el viaje de regreso fue desviado por las tormentas. Terminó en Sicilia y los franciscanos lo cuidaron. Lo enviaron al norte de Italia a estudiar, y fue allí donde descubrieron su gran don para la predicación. A pesar de que solo vivió hasta la edad de 37 años, fue reverenciado por su predicación, vida santa y su enseñanza. Hubo tantos milagros asociados con él durante su vida y en su tumba después de su muerte que fue declarado santo al año siguiente de su muerte y tan grande fue la devoción hacia él que incluso tenemos su estatua aquí en St. Mary's. (Está junto al ambón, sosteniendo una biblia de la que sale el niño Jesús).

Cuando encontramos en nuestras propias vidas que nuestros planes no parecen estar funcionando y siempre parecemos estar "desviados del rumbo" del camino que hemos elegido, tal vez debemos considerar si Dios está tratando de decirnos algo. Tal vez el tiene algo grandioso en mente para nosotros y necesitamos cambiar nuestra dirección en la vida. ¿Por qué no acompañarnos para la hora santa cada mes y ver a dónde lleva? Quién sabe, tal vez algún día haya una estatua tuya en una iglesia. Pero incluso si eso no sucede, aún puede ser conducido a una vida más feliz y satisfactoria al encontrar su verdadera vocación.

Bendiciones y paz, Diácono Steve
