DEACON'S CORNER

"A humbled, contrite heart you will not spurn"

In our Gospel reading this week Jesus offers the advice that you should not exalt yourself, but rather, take the lowest place and allow yourself to be recognized by others. He then cautions against hosting and doing favors only for those who you think can respond with favors for you. He advises us to be humble and let God recognize our worth.

How easily we get offended when we think our achievements, expertise and position are not being recognized. We are defensive and outraged when accused unfairly. We insist that we are being disrespected and demand justice. Nothing good comes from this attitude. We should rather adopt an attitude of gratitude and humility. Stop worrying about what others think of you; worry about what God thinks of you. Stop worrying about trying to impress others; impress God instead.

Former President Ronald Reagan had a sign in the Oval Office that read "There's no limit to what you can accomplish when you don't care who gets the credit." So often our desire for recognition just gets in the way. Always take the blame, even when it's not your fault and always share the credit as widely as possible and you will find life will have much more joy. You will also please your Father in heaven.

Blessings and peace, Deacon Steve

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

"Un corazón humillado y contrito no lo despreciarás"

En nuestra lectura del Evangelio de esta semana, Jesús ofrece el consejo de que no debes exaltarte a ti mismo, sino tomar el lugar más bajo y permitirte ser reconocido por los demás. Luego advierte contra hospedar y hacer favores solo a aquellos que cree que pueden responder con favores para usted. Nos aconseja ser humildes y dejar que Dios reconozca nuestro valor.

Con qué facilidad nos ofendemos cuando pensamos que nuestros logros, experiencia y posición no están siendo reconocidos. Estamos a la defensiva y nos indignamos cuando se nos acusa injustamente. Insistimos en que se nos está irrespetando y exigimos justicia. Nada bueno viene de esta actitud. Más bien debemos adoptar una actitud de gratitud y humildad. Deja de preocuparte por lo que los demás piensen de ti; Preocúpate por lo que Dios piensa de ti. Deja de preocuparte por tratar de impresionar a los demás; impresionar a Dios en su lugar.

El expresidente Ronald Reagan tenía un letrero en la Oficina Oval que decía: "No hay límite para lo que puedes lograr cuando no te importa quién se lleva el crédito". Muy a menudo, nuestro deseo de reconocimiento se interpone en el camino. Siempre asuma la culpa, incluso cuando no sea su culpa, y siempre comparta el crédito lo más ampliamente posible y encontrará que la vida tendrá mucha más alegría. También agradecerás a tu Padre que está en los cielos.

Bendiciones y paz, Diácono Steve

Es sorprendente lo que puedes lograr si no te importa quién obtendrá el crédito.
