DEACON'S CORNER

God is mysterious. The book of Isaiah says "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, says the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts."

Sometimes we might think we have God figured out; we have the Scriptures, the teaching of Jesus, thousands of years of theology, and the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Yet, sometimes we tend to put God in a bottle up on a shelf. We take the bottle down and uncork it when we need something from God, treating God like the genie in Aladdin's lamp. We expect God to say "your wish is my command!" We want to be in control of our relationship with God. But we are not in control because what God thinks we need may be different than what we think we need, what we want or what we think we need to do.

For example, in the Gospel Jesus says if anyone comes to me without hating his family they cannot be my disciple. Can Jesus really mean we have to hate others? He told us to love our neighbor. Hating someone is sinful. The word hate in the today's Gospel is not the same as the word hate we use today. The word Jesus uses means to "love less," to detach ourselves from, turn our attention away from and not prefer anything to Christ. Jesus is to be the first love in our lives. All other loves should be subordinate to our love of Christ. Loyalty to Jesus and his Gospel is paramount and redefines all of our other priorities. May we all grow in our love of the God who loves us!

Deacon John

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

Dios es misterioso. El libro de Isaías dice: "Porque mis pensamientos no son vuestros pensamientos, ni vuestros caminos mis caminos, dice el Señor. Porque como los cielos son más altos que la tierra, así mis caminos son más altos que vuestros caminos y mis pensamientos más que vuestros pensamientos".

A veces podemos pensar que tenemos a Dios descubierto; tenemos las Escrituras, la enseñanza de Jesús, miles de años de teología y la guía del Espíritu Santo. Aún, a veces tendemos a poner a Dios en una botella en un estante. Bajamos la botella y la descorchamos cuando necesitamos algo de Dios, tratándolo como el genio en la lámpara de Aladino. Nosotros esperamos que Dios diga "¡tu deseo es mi orden!" Queremos tener el control de nuestra relación con Dios. Pero no tenemos el control porque lo que Dios cree que necesitamos puede ser diferente de lo que lo que nosotros creemos que necesitamos, lo que queremos o lo que creemos que debemos hacer..

Por ejemplo, en el Evangelio Jesús dice que si alguien viene a mí sin odiar a su familia, no puede ser mi discípulo. ¿Puede Jesús realmente querer decir que tenemos que odiar a los demás? Nos dijo que amemos a nuestro prójimo. Odiar a alguien es pecaminoso. La palabra odio en el Evangelio de hoy no es lo mismo que la palabra odio que usamos hoy. La palabra que usa Jesús significa "amar menos", desapegarse, desviar la atención y no preferir nada mas que a Cristo. Jesús debe ser el primer amor en nuestras vidas. Todos los demás amores deben estar subordinados a nuestro amor por Cristo. La lealtad a Jesús y su Evangelio es primordial y redefine todas nuestras otras prioridades. ¡Que todos crezcamos en nuestro amor por el Dios que nos ama!

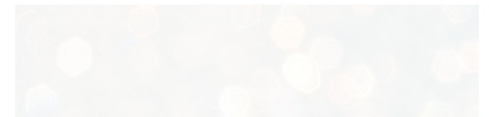

Diacono John

God wants you to have a good life, a life filled with love, joy, peace, and fulfillment. That doesn't mean it will always be easy, but it does mean that it will always be good.
