DEACON'S CORNER

"Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you; I no longer deserve to be called your son." These words are the prodigal son's confession and repentance that he has squandered his inheritance in sin and dissipation.

The son is willing to become one of his father's hired servants because he considers himself no longer worthy or deserving to be his father's son. But, his merciful, loving father does not respond with words of anger or condemnation but in joy that his son has returned alive and safe. He has been waiting for his son's return. He immediately restores the son to his place as a son.

Father I have sinned against you; I no longer deserve to be your son or daughter. We are not perfect. Sometimes we squander out eternal inheritance by mortal sin. But God is always waiting for our return. Like the father in the gospel, our Heavenly Father will joyfully welcome us with open arms and restore us to our place as his sons and daughters when we turn from sin, repent and return to Him. He will invite us to the eternal banquet of heaven!

JESUS TOLD THE STORY OF THE
PRODIGAL SON TO MAKE A POINT:
NEVER MIND WHAT YOU'VE DONE,
JUST COME HOME.

A word about the elder son in the Gospel. He is angry and envious that his sinful brother has been restored the family. Are we ever angry when a sinner is restored to God's family? Do we think that the forgiven sinner is not worthy or deserving of God's forgiveness? Do we think we are more worthy or deserving? None of us is worthy or deserving of God's forgiveness. No one remains faithful without God's grace. May we rejoice when a sinner returns to God.

Deacon John

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

Padre, he pecado contra el cielo y contra ti; Ya no merezco ser llamado tu hijo". Estas palabras son la confesión y el arrepentimiento del hijo pródigo de que ha despilfarrado su herencia en el pecado y la disipación.

El hijo está dispuesto a convertirse en uno de los jornaleros de su padre porque ya no se considera digno o merecedor de ser hijo de su padre. Pero, su padre misericordioso y amoroso no responde con palabras de enojo o condena, sino con alegría porque su hijo ha regresado vivo y seguro. Ha estado esperando el regreso de su hijo. Inmediatamente restaura al hijo a su lugar como hijo.

Padre he pecado contra ti; Ya no merezco ser tu hijo o hija. No somos perfectos. A veces desperdiciamos la herencia eterna por el pecado mortal. Pero Dios siempre está esperando nuestro regreso. Como el padre en el evangelio, nuestro Padre Celestial nos recibirá gozosamente con los brazos abiertos y nos restaurará a nuestro lugar como sus hijos e hijas cuando nos apartemos del pecado, nos arrepintamos y volvamos a Él. ¡Él nos invitará al banquete eterno del cielo!

Una palabra sobre el hijo mayor en el Evangelio. Está enojado y envidioso de que su hermano pecador haya sido restaurado a la familia. ¿Nos enojamos alguna vez cuando un pecador es restaurado a la familia de Dios? ¿Pensamos que el pecador perdonado no es digno o merecedor del perdón de Dios? ¿Creemos que somos más dignos o merecedores? Ninguno de nosotros es digno o merecedor del perdón de Dios. Nadie permanece fiel sin la gracia de Dios. Que nos regocijemos cuando un pecador vuelve a Dios

Diacono John

Jesús contó la historia del hijo
pródigo para destacar esto:
No importa lo que has hecho,
solo vuelve a casa.
