DEACON'S CORNER

The readings today talk about gratitude, the gratitude that Naaman the Syrian showed the prophet Elisha and the gratitude that one of the ten healed lepers showed the Lord. These were miraculous events. In both cases, lepers were cured and saved from a life of suffering and scorn. God's hand was experienced in tremendous, awe-inspiring ways. Gratitude should be given to God for his powerful intervention. Giving thanks, expressing gratitude, is a learned action. Laughing when we are happy and crying when we are sad are natural responses, but saying "Thank you," has to be learned. That's what you parents always do with their little children, "What do you say to Aunt Jill for giving you that present?" "Thank you." We adults have to be reminded to say thank you too. That is one of the lessons of today's readings. We thank God for all He has done and is doing for us. We thank God for the prayers that have been answered the way we wish they would be answered, and for the prayers that have been answered in ways different than we have asked. Perhaps it would be good for all of us to reflect today on the greatest blessings we have received in our lives, and thank God for each of them. We need to thank God, not just for his intervention in the major events of our lives, but for our everyday lives. We should have gratitude to God for the people who love us and whom we love, for the happiness that we receive from others and are able to bring to others, for the joy of laughing over the antics of a child and those of a dear elderly senior. We have so much for which to be thankful. We should thank God for his daily intervention in our lives.

A BIG Thank you from Deacon Al

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

Las lecturas de hoy hablan sobre la gratitud, la gratitud que Naamán el sirio mostró al profeta Eliseo y la gratitud que uno de los diez leprosos curados mostró al Señor. Estos fueron eventos milagrosos. En ambos casos, los leprosos fueron curados y salvados de una vida de sufrimiento y desprecio. La mano de Dios fue experimentada en tremendas e impresionantes maneras. Se debe agradecer a Dios por su poderosa intervención. Dar gracias, expresar gratitud, es una acción de aprendizaje. Reír cuando estamos felices y llorar cuando estamos tristes son respuestas naturales, pero decir "gracias" tiene que ser aprendido. Eso es lo que ustedes padres siempre hacen con sus hijos pequeños, "¿Qué le dices a la tía Jill por darte ese regalo?" "Gracias." A nosotros, los adultos, también se nos debe recordar que debemos decir gracias. Esa es una de las lecciones de las lecturas de hoy. Damos gracias a Dios por todo lo que ha hecho y está haciendo por nosotros. Damos gracias a Dios por las oraciones que han sido contestadas de la forma en que deseamos que sean respondidas, y por las oraciones que han sido respondidas de maneras diferentes a las nuestras. Quizás sería bueno que todos reflexionáramos hoy sobre las mayores bendiciones que hemos recibido en nuestra vida, y demos gracias a Dios por cada una de ellas. Debemos agradecer a Dios, no sólo por su intervención en los grandes acontecimientos de nuestra vida, sino por nuestra vida cotidiana. Debemos tener gratitud a Dios por las personas que nos aman y a quienes amamos, por la felicidad que recibimos de los demás y somos capaces de llevar a los demás, por el placer de reírnos de las travesuras de un niño y las de un querido anciano mayor. Tenemos mucho por lo que estar agradecidos. Debemos agradecer a Dios por su intervención diaria en nuestra vida..

MUCHAS GRACIAS del Diacono Al
