DEACON'S CORNER

So, you are fighting an addiction to alcohol, or porn, or drugs, or sex, or gambling, or whatever. Let's say it's alcohol. You are a member of AA. You attend weekly meetings. You have your own devices to deal with various situations where people have a drink in hand. If you are a Teen, you know the parties you need to avoid and do so. If you are an adult and feel obliged to attend certain parties, you have sparkling mineral water with lime or you drink non alcoholic beer. You have been sober for five years and are pretty happy with yourself and are deeply indebted to God to help you fight the addiction. And then everything in life comes down on you. You lose your job. There are problems in the home. You fail a course in school. You break up with your girlfriend or boyfriend. Your marriage is falling apart. One of your parents is sick. So you figure, "This is an extreme situation. One drink won't hurt. It'll take the edge off." You deceive yourself. But you can't stop at one. Then when the three six packs are finished, or the two bottles are drained, when you wake up, and sober up, you are angrier with yourself than you have ever been. You can't stand the fact that you are back to square one. You have the choice: trust in God and start over, or give up. It is easy to give up. It is easy to decide that the addiction is more than you will ever be able to handle. It is easy to give up. Don't. Remember Amalek! Trust in God, continue to pray and do your best. The enemies of his people, your enemies, will be defeated. It might take AA buddies to hold up your arms in prayer. It may take a whole parish full of committed Christians to hold you up in prayer. Just don't give up, no matter what! Persevere in prayer. Put up the fight. Remember Amalek! Those fierce fighters were defeated by the Hebrews who prayed and fought, and who had God on their side.

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

Entonces, estás luchando contra una adicción al alcohol, la pornografía, las drogas, el sexo, las apuestas o lo que sea. Digamos que es alcohol. Tú eres miembro de AA. Asistes a reuniones semanales. Tienes tus propios dispositivos para hacer frente a diversas situaciones en las que la gente tiene una bebida en la mano. Si eres adolescente, conoces las fiestas que debes evitar y lo haces. Si eres mayor de edad y te sientes obligado a asistir a ciertas fiestas, bebes agua mineral con limón o bebes cerveza sin alcohol. Tú has estado sobrio durante cinco años y estás bastante contento contigo mismo y estás profundamente endeudado con Dios por ayudarte a luchar contra la adicción. Y luego todo en la vida se te viene encima. Pierdes tu trabajo. Hay problemas en el hogar. Fallas un curso en la escuela. Rompes con tu novia o novio. Tu matrimonio se está desmoronando. Uno de tus padres esta enfermo. Entonces piensas, "Esta es una situación extrema. Un trago no te hará daño. Le quitará el borde. Te engañas a ti mismo. Pero no puedes detenerte en uno. Luego, cuando los tres paquetes de seis estén terminados, o las dos botellas estén vacías, cuando te despiertes, y sobrio, estás más enojado contigo mismo que nunca. No puedes soportar el hecho de que has vuelto a un cuadrado. Tienes la opción: confiar en Dios y empezar de nuevo, o rendirte. Es fácil darse por vencido. Es fácil decidir que la adicción es más de lo que nunca serás capaz de manejar. Es fácil darse por vencido. No. ¡Recuerda a Amalek! Confianza en Dios, continúa orando y haz lo mejor que puedas. Los enemigos de su pueblo, vuestros enemigos, serán vencidos. Podría tomar amigos de AA levantar los brazos en oración. Puede ser necesaria una parroquia entera llena de cristianos comprometidos para sostenerte en oración. Sólo ¡no te rindas, pase lo que pase! Perseverar en la oración. Pon la pelea. ¡Recuerda a Amalek! Esos feroces luchadores eran derrotados por los hebreos que oraron y pelearon, y que tenían a Dios de su lado...
