DEACON'S CORNER

Have you ever felt lost? I don't mean lost on a car trip, or lost on a hike, but lost in life. Maybe there are a lot of people around you, but you still feel lost. A high school student might also feel very much lost in a very large crowd. He, she, might go from class to class, assembly to assembly and get to where he is supposed to be, but he still feels lost. When people enter the job force, it often takes them quite a while to find their place in society. Many young people are still trying to find themselves. Everyone goes through stages of life when he or she feels lost. And this does not just refer to the young. A widow or widower who is a senior citizen feels lost when his or her spouse dies. Perhaps some of us have had times that we have been lost. We go to Church every week, and that is a very good thing. But sometimes we are just going through the motions. We stand and sit and kneel and sing. The hardest times for us are often the quiet times. That is a sure sign that something is very wrong. It is hard to hide non-Christian behavior when it is only ourselves and the Lord. Those are the times when our consciences are telling us: I'm lost. Maybe, I shouldn't even be here. But we are here. We are in Church. Perhaps when we walked through the doors of the Church, we have taken the first step to see who this Jesus is. Walking through the doors of the Church is, for many, like climbing the sycamore tree to get a glimpse of Jesus. We certainly don't expect Jesus to single us out from the crowd of worshipers. But he does. He stands under the tree that every single person has climbed in his life, the tree that many of us are still looking down from, and he says, "Judy, Frank, Shirley, Bill, Zacchaeus, come down from there. I want to stay in your house tonight and from now on" Now, we are faced with what is really an easy decision: do we want Him in our house? It is going to cost us. We are going to have to abandon that which has no place in our house, in our lives. But it is an easy decision. Nothing can surpass the all-encompassing joy of having Jesus in our lives. We may have been lost in a crowd. But he searched for us and called to us. And we responded. And we have found ourselves in Jesus Christ.

Deacon Al - Amazing Grace!

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

¿Alguna vez te has sentido perdido? No me refiero a perdido en un viaje en auto, o perdido en una caminata, sino perdido en la vida. Tal vez hay mucha gente a tu alrededor, pero todavía te sientes perdido. Un estudiante de secundaria también puede sentirse muy perdido en una multitud muy grande. Él, ella, puede ir de clase en clase, de asamblea en asamblea y llegar a donde se supone que debe estar, pero todavía se siente perdido. Cuando las personas ingresan a la fuerza laboral, a menudo les toma bastante tiempo encontrar su lugar en la sociedad. Muchos jóvenes todavía están tratando de encontrarse a sí mismos. Todo el mundo pasa por etapas de la vida en las que se siente perdido. Y esto no se refiere sólo a los jóvenes. Una viuda o viudo de edad avanzada se siente perdido cuando muere su cónyuge. Quizás algunos de nosotros hemos tenido momentos en que nos hemos perdido. Vamos a la iglesia todas las semanas, y eso es algo muy bueno. Pero a veces solo estamos siguiendo los movimientos. Nos ponemos de pie, nos sentamos, nos arrodillamos y cantamos. Los tiempos más difíciles para nosotros son a menudo los tiempos tranquilos. Esa es una señal segura de que algo anda muy mal. Es difícil ocultar un comportamiento no cristiano cuando solo somos nosotros y el Señor. Son los momentos en que nuestra conciencia nos dice: estoy perdido. Tal vez, ni siquiera debería estar aquí. Pero estamos aquí. Estamos en la Iglesia. Quizás cuando atravesamos las puertas de la Iglesia, hemos dado el primer paso para ver quién es este Jesús. Atravesar las puertas de la Iglesia es, para muchos, como subirse al árbol sicómoro para vislumbrar a Jesús. Ciertamente no esperamos que Jesús nos separe de la multitud de adoradores. Pero lo hace. Se para debajo del árbol al que cada persona se ha subido en su vida, el árbol desde el que muchos de nosotros todavía miramos hacia abajo, y dice: "Judy, Frank, Shirley, Bill, Zaqueo, bájense de allí. Quiero quedarme en tu casa esta noche y de ahora en adelante" Ahora, nos enfrentamos a una decisión realmente fácil: ¿Lo queremos en nuestra casa? nos va a costar. Vamos a tener que abandonar lo que no tiene cabida en nuestra casa, en nuestra vida. Pero es una decisión fácil. Nada puede superar la alegría que todo lo abarca de tener a Jesús en nuestras vidas. Es posible que nos hayamos perdido en una multitud. Pero él nos buscó y nos llamó. Y respondimos. Y nos hemos encontrado en Jesucristo.
