¡Seguridad Primero!

Lo sucedido en Uvalde, TX es algo que nos a conmovido a todos, nos llevo a las lagrimas con a una ferviente oración por las victimas y para que esto no se repita. Pero mi compromiso como Pastor de esta comunidad, es tratar de proveer un ambiente seguro. La responsabilidad es grande y mucho el trabajo. Lo importante es empezar a dar pasos que nos lleven a mejorar día con día.

Por esa razón hemos, en la medida de nuestra capacidad, implementado algunos cambios e incluido protocolos se seguridad.

- Se han cambiado la orientación de las sillas en los salones de clase del catecismo, como los profesionales nos lo sugieren. Para ello se tuvieron que comprar pizarrones nuevos.
- Estamos en el proceso de cambiar las chapas de las puertas, para incrementar la seguridad y controlar quien entra a los salones de clase.
- Hemos desarrollado un plan de evacuación y de encierro, en caso de incendio o de la aparición de algún intruso. (espero pronto podamos tener simulacros con todos los alumnos, maestros y padres de familia)
- Se han instalado cámaras de seguridad en los accesos de las puertas. Principalmente en el edificio de Educación Religiosa e Iglesia, incluyendo una cámara al playground y a al jardín.

Todo esto esto representa un gasto económico que es posible gracias al compromiso de cada uno de los que integramos esta comunidad parroquial. Por favor considera incrementar tu donación semanal. Es importante y la necesitamos.

P. Everardo Cazares

"En unidad con nuestra Iglesia Diocesana de Austin siguiendo los lineamientos emitidos por nuestro obispo buscamos EVANGELIZAR, DISCIPULAR y FORMAR LA COMUNIAD CRISTIANA".

Gracias!!!

Mi mas profundo agradecimiento a "RH y su Resia de Tejupilco" al DJ Chacós y a todos los que contribuyeron en la realización de este evento. Están presente en mi oración.

P. Everardo Cazares

Safety First!

What happened in Uvalde, TX is something that has moved us all. It brought us to tears as well as a fervent prayer for the victims that this does not happen again. But my commitment as pastor of this community is to try to provide a safe environment. The responsibility is huge and a lot of work, but the important thing is to start taking steps that lead us to improve day by day.

For that reason, we have, to the best of our ability, implemented some changes and created security protocols

- The orientation of the chairs in the catechism classrooms has been changed, per professional guidelines we followed. Because of those protocols we also had to buy new whiteboards.
- We are in the process of changing the locks on all the classroom doors, to increase security and control who enter.
- We have developed an evacuation and lockdown plan, in case of fire or the appearance of an intruder. (I hope soon we can have drills with all students, teachers and parents)
- Security cameras have been installed at all the door accesses. This is mainly in the religious education building and church, including cameras on the playground and the rosary garden.

All this represents a monetary expense that is possible thanks to the commitment of each one of us who make up this parish community. Please consider increasing your weekly donation. It is important and we need it.

Jr. Everardo Cazares

DEACON'S CORNER

A Child of God

Ten or twelve years ago I was having a conversation with a good friend of mine, a Priest in Nebraska, he expressed concern about where we were heading as a country. "We are getting so polarized, Steve," he said. Well, he was certainly correct then and things have only gotten worse. We have an election coming up and people seem to want to divide us by political party, gender, race, nationality, income, education level and just about every other way imaginable. However, the only thing that truly matters is that each of us is a human being, a child of God, and that we are beloved by our creator. It is the one defining characteristic that unites us all.

These other differences exist, certainly. Some are important and some are not, but none if them should cause us to lose sight of what unites us. By our adoption into God's family, we have a duty and responsibility to all others. So let us have our election and have a good argument over the issues and positions of the people who want to be our leaders. Guided by a well-formed conscience and our Catholic faith, let us make our decisions and cast our votes. But when it's all over, let us set aside these unimportant things, return to the vineyard and continue our work to expand The Kingdom of God, with love and goodwill for our fellow man.

Blessings and peace, Deacon Steve

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

Un Hijo de Dios

Hace diez o doce años estaba teniendo una conversación con un buen amigo mío, un sacerdote en Nebraska, expresó su preocupación sobre hacia dónde nos dirigíamos como país. "Nos estamos polarizando mucho, Steve". él dijo. Bueno, ciertamente tenía razón entonces y las cosas solo han empeorado. Se acerca una elección y la gente parece querer dividirnos por partido político, género, raza, nacionalidad, ingresos, nivel de educación y casi cualquier otra forma imaginable. Sin embargo, lo único que realmente importa es que cada uno de nosotros es un ser humano, un hijo de Dios, y que somos amados por nuestro creador. Es la característica definitoria que nos une a todos.

Estas otras diferencias existen, ciertamente. Algunas son importantes y otras no, pero ninguna debe hacernos perder de vista lo que nos une. Por nuestra adopción en la familia de Dios, tenemos un deber y una responsabilidad hacia todos los demás. Así que tengamos nuestra elección y tengamos una buena discusión sobre los temas y las posiciones de las personas que quieren ser nuestros líderes. Guiados por una conciencia bien formada y nuestra fe católica, tomemos nuestras decisiones y emitamos nuestros votos. Pero cuando todo termine, dejemos de lado estas cosas sin importancia, volvamos a la viña y continuemos nuestro trabajo para expandir el Reino de Dios, con amor y buena voluntad para con nuestro prójimo.
