DEACON'S CORNER

Today we celebrate Gaudette (Rejoice) Sunday the Third Sunday of Advent. Tomorrow we celebrate the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe the Patroness of the Americas. Advent is a penitential season of preparation for the coming of Christ at Christmas. But this weekend we take a respite from the more somber and penitential aspects of Advent. The music is more joyful. The candle on the Advent wreath and the clergy vestments are rose colored instead of purple.

Why rejoice? Our entrance antiphon says we rejoice because the Lord is near.

The Lord Jesus probably did not fit the idea of what some people thought the Messiah would be like. Some expected Him to be a military commander who would overthrow the Romans; a brilliant military king like King David. Do we ever have doubts that Jesus is the messiah? Do we ever think he should have been a different kind of messiah? Do we want to take Jesus on our terms rather than his terms? Do we accept some of his teachings but not others?

Jesus is the messiah. His ministry fulfills a prophecy from Isaiah from our first reading that God will heal the blind, lame, deaf and mute. While Isaiah is referring to God rescuing his people from the Babylonian exile, it also likely also a prophecy of the coming messiah. The Gospel shows that the Jesus the Son of God has done all of these things. Jesus tells the followers of John the Baptist that this is evidence that He (Jesus) is the messiah; God among us.

Jesus cured not only physical blindness but also spiritual blindness so people could see who he really was. He cured not only physical deafness but gave people ears of faith to hear and believe the Good News. He loosened the tongues of the mute not only so they could speak but also so that they could proclaim the Jesus is Lord and rejoice and sing God's praises. If we let him he will cure our spiritual blindness, gives us ears of faith and loosen our tongues to proclaim his marvelous works and rejoice because He has saved us and destined us for eternity with Him..

Let us Rejoice in the Lord always...let us say rejoice!!

Deacon John

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

Hoy celebramos el Domingo Gaudette (Regocijo) el Tercer Domingo de Adviento. Mañana celebramos la Fiesta de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe la Patrona de las Américas. El Adviento es un tiempo penitencial de preparación para la venida de Cristo en Navidad. Pero este fin de semana nos tomamos un respiro de los aspectos más sombríos y penitenciales del Adviento. La música es más alegre. La vela de la corona de Adviento y las vestimentas del clero son de color rosa en lugar de púrpura.

¿Por qué alegrarse? Nuestra antifona de entrada dice que nos alegramos porque el Señor está cerca.

El Señor Jesús probablemente no se ajustaba a la idea de cómo algunas personas pensaban que sería el Mesías. Algunos esperaban que Él fuera un comandante militar que derrocaría a los romanos; un rey militar brillante como el rey David. ¿Alguna vez tenemos dudas de que Jesús es el Mesías? ¿Alguna vez pensamos que debería haber sido un tipo diferente de mesías? ¿Queremos tomar a Jesús en nuestros términos en lugar de en sus términos? ¿Aceptamos algunas de sus enseñanzas pero no otras?

Jesús es el mesías. Su ministerio cumple una profecía de Isaías de nuestra primera lectura de que Dios sanará a los ciegos, cojos, sordos y mudos. Si bien Isaías se refiere a Dios rescatando a su pueblo del exilio de Babilonia, también es probable que también sea una profecía de la venida del mesías. El Evangelio muestra que Jesús, el Hijo de Dios, ha hecho todas estas cosas. Jesús les dice a los seguidores de Juan el Bautista que esto es evidencia de que Él (Jesús) es el Mesías; Dios entre nosotros

Jesús curó no solo la ceguera física sino también la ceguera espiritual para que la gente pudiera ver quién era él realmente. Curó no solo la sordera física, sino que le dio a la gente oídos de fe para escuchar y creer en la Buena Nueva. Él desató las lenguas de los mudos no solo para que pudieran hablar, sino también para que pudieran proclamar que Jesús es el Señor y regocijarse y cantar alabanzas a Dios. Si le dejamos, curará nuestra ceguera espiritual, nos dará oídos de fe y soltará nuestra lengua para proclamar sus maravillas y alegrarnos porque nos ha salvado y destinado para la eternidad con Él..

Regocijémonos en el Señor siempre... digamos regocijarnos!!
