DEACON'S CORNER

This weekend we celebrate the Fourth Sunday of Advent. Christmas is next Sunday! Are we ready? During Advent have we prepared our hearts for the coming of the Lord?

Today's Gospel tells us that the Virgin Mary was with child fulfilling a prophecy from Isaiah that a virgin would conceive and bear a child and name him Emanuel meaning God with us. The Hebrew word for woman is almah often commonly understood as a virgin. The Greek version of the Old Testament uses the word virgin reflecting the common understanding of the passage from Isaiah. The ultimate fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecy is the conception of Jesus of the Virgin Mary. Matthew's Gospel focuses most of its' attention on St. Joseph because the promised messiah would be a descendant of King David. Joseph is of the house/lineage of David. Matthew is stating that Jesus is the promised messiah.

Mary becomes pregnant during her betrothal to Joseph but before their marriage. While betrothed the couple were legally married but not living together. Thus her pregnancy is a problem. She could be stoned to death if she was found guilty of adultery.

Joseph decides to quietly put her away. There could be two theories as to why Joseph wants to put her away. The first is that he loves her and doesn't want her to be stoned to death. Perhaps he believes that she was an adulteress. Scholars call this the Suspicion Theory. The second theory, called the Reverence Theory says that Joseph concludes that the conception of Jesus is a miracle of God and that he is unworthy to be associated with such a great miracle. Whichever theory is correct, Joseph obeys the command of an angel to take Mary into his home. He follows God's will and becomes her husband and a foster father to the messiah Jesus Christ. What a privilege! What an honor! He does everything a father of the time did for his family through times of struggle and times of joy while remaining celibate and Mary remaining a virgin. It was not an easy life. At some point he no longer appears in the scriptures. Tradition says he dies before Jesus began His ministry. He is the patron saint of the Church. All this because he followed God's will. What is God's will for us today as we grow closer to Christmas? St. Joseph pray for us.

Deacon John

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

Este fin de semana celebramos el Cuarto Domingo de Adviento. ¡La Navidad es el próximo domingo! ¿Estamos listos? Durante el Adviento, ¿hemos preparado nuestro corazón para la venida del Señor?

El evangelio de hoy nos dice que la Virgen María estaba encinta cumpliendo una profecía de Isaías de que una virgen concebiría y daría a luz un hijo y le pondría por nombre Emanuel que significa Dios con nosotros. La palabra hebrea para mujer es almah, comúnmente entendida como virgen. La versión griega del Antiguo Testamento usa la palabra virgen reflejando el entendimiento común del pasaje de Isaías. El cumplimiento final de la profecía de Isaías es la concepción de Jesús de la Virgen María. El Evangelio de Mateo centra la mayor parte de su atención en San José porque el mesías prometido sería descendiente del rey David. José es de la casa/linaje de David. Mateo está afirmando que Jesús es el Mesías prometido.

María queda embarazada durante su compromiso con José, pero antes de su matrimonio. Mientras estaban comprometidos, la pareja estaba legalmente casada pero no vivían juntos. Por lo tanto, su embarazo es un problema. Podría ser apedreada hasta la muerte si fuera declarada culpable de adulterio.

Joseph decide encerrarla en silencio. Podría haber dos teorías sobre por qué Joseph quiere encerrarla. La primera es que la ama y no quiere que muera apedreada. Quizás cree que ella era una adúltera. Los eruditos llaman a esto la Teoría de la Sospecha. La segunda teoría, llamada Teoría de la Reverencia, dice que José concluye que la concepción de Jesús es un milagro de Dios y que él es indigno de estar asociado con un milagro tan grande. Cualquiera que sea la teoría correcta, José obedece la orden de un ángel de llevar a María a su casa. Él sigue la voluntad de Dios y se convierte en su esposo y padre adoptivo del Mesías Jesucristo. ¡Qué privilegio! ¡Que honor! Él hace todo lo que un padre de la época hizo por su familia en momentos de lucha y momentos de alegría mientras permanece célibe y María permanece virgen. No fue una vida fácil. En algún momento ya no aparece en las escrituras. La tradición dice que murió antes de que Jesús comenzara su ministerio. Es el patrón de la Iglesia. Todo esto porque siguió la voluntad de Dios. ¿Cuál es la voluntad de Dios para nosotros hoy a medida que nos acercamos a la Navidad? San José ruega por nosotros
