DEACON'S CORNER

You have a choice.

Our first reading from Sirach repeats a common message from scripture; that each of us has the choice between good and evil. That we can choose to do good and live or to do evil and die. Good works are for the soul what good food is for the body and in the same way, sin is to the soul what disease is to the body.

People in the ancient world didn't separate the body and soul into two things. They would see the body as the words of a book and the soul as the meaning. You can't change one without changing the other. The words of the prophets in the Old Testament and Jesus in the New Testament are clear. Doing good leads to health and life and choosing evil leads to disease and death.

Today we try to make it complicated. We tell ourselves that we really don't know what is God's will and the choices before us are not at all clear. But usually, we do know and just don't want to admit it. We muffle our conscience and choose to just do as we please. This usually leads initially to unhappiness and pain. Eventually it leads to death and destruction.

So as Moses says in Deuteronomy 30:19-20, you have a choice between life and death, so choose life and live. Live in Christ so you can live forever.

Blessings and peace, Deacon Steve

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

Tienes una opción.

Nuestra primera lectura de Siracides repite un mensaje común de las Escrituras; que cada uno de nosotros tiene la opción entre el bien y el mal. Que podemos elegir hacer el bien y vivir o hacer el mal y morir. Las buenas obras son para el alma lo que el buen alimento es para el cuerpo y del mismo modo el pecado es para el alma lo que la enfermedad es para el cuerpo.

La gente del mundo antiguo no separaba el cuerpo y el alma en dos cosas. Verían el cuerpo como las palabras de un libro y el alma como significado. No se puede cambiar uno sin cambiar el otro. Las palabras de los profetas en el Antiguo Testamento y Jesús en el Nuevo Testamento son claros. Hacer el bien conduce a la salud y la vida y elegir el mal conduce a la enfermedad y la muerte.

Hoy tratamos de hacerlo complicado. Nos decimos a nosotros mismos que realmente no sabemos cuál es la voluntad de Dios y las opciones que tenemos ante nosotros no están del todo claras. Pero por lo general, lo sabemos y simplemente no queremos admitirlo. Amortiguamos nuestro conciencia y elegimos hacer lo que nos plazca. Esto generalmente conduce inicialmente a la infelicidad y al dolor. Eventualmente conduce a la muerte y la destrucción.

Entonces, como dice Moisés en Deuteronomio 30:19-20, tienes una elección entre la vida y la muerte, así que elige la vida y vivir. Vive en Cristo para que puedas vivir para siempre.

Bendiciones y paz, Diácono Steve
