DEACON'S CORNER

Water is a necessity of life. We need water to live. In the scriptures water is also a symbol of the grace of the Holy Spirit necessary for the spiritual life.

Water events appear often in the scriptures. In the book of Genesis God's spirit hovered over the waters. God saved Noah and his family through the waters of the Great Flood. Through God's power Moses led the Hebrews to safety through the Red Sea. God provided water from a rock during the Hebrews' journey in the book of Exodus. (our first reading). St. Paul (1. Cor) says that the rock symbolizes Christ who provides us the Holy Spirit and the spiritual food and drink in the Eucharist. Through God's power Joshua miraculously led the Hebrews through the Jordan River into the promised land. Jesus was later baptized in the water of that same Jordan River with God the Father as His witness. Jesus said we will not see God's Kingdom without being born of water and the Holy Spirit (John 3). The Church has always said this refers to baptism. Later he would say that rivers of living water, i.e., the Holy Spirit, would flow out from those who believe in Him. (John 7:37-39). At his crucifixion blood and water flowed out from his pierced heart reminding us of the love he gives us in the waters of baptism the Precious Blood of the Eucharist.

Today's Gospel The Woman at the Well is another water event with a spiritual message. The woman is a gentile who comes to the well at midday. During her conversation with Jesus she becomes a believer and brings everyone in her town to see Him. During that conversation Jesus tells her that if she knew who it was that was offering her a drink, in other words if she knew that Jesus is the messiah, He would give her living water, in other words the Holy Spirit. As followers of Jesus are we thirsty for that Living Water of God's Spirit? Lent is the perfect time to turn once again to Jesus the eternal well spring of Living Water of the Holy Spirit and allow Him to refresh our souls. Are we thirsty for this Living Water?

Peace to you. Deacon John

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

El agua es una necesidad de la vida. Necesitamos agua para vivir. En las Escrituras el agua es también símbolo de la gracia del Espíritu Santo necesaria para la vida espiritual.

Los eventos relacionados con el agua aparecen a menudo en las Escrituras. En el libro de Génesis, el espíritu de Dios flotaba sobre las aguas. Dios salvó a Noé y su familia a través de las aguas del Gran Diluvio. Mediante el poder de Dios, Moisés llevó a los hebreos a un lugar seguro a través del Mar Rojo. Dios proveyó agua de una roca durante el viaje de los hebreos en el libro del Éxodo. (Nuestra primera lectura). San Pablo (1. Cor) dice que la roca simboliza a Cristo que nos proporciona el Espíritu Santo y el alimento y bebida espiritual en la Eucaristía. A través del poder de Dios, Josué guió milagrosamente a los hebreos a través del río Jordán hacia la tierra prometida. Jesús fue bautizado más tarde en las aguas de ese mismo río Jordán con Dios Padre como Su testigo. Jesús dijo que no veremos el Reino de Dios sin nacer del agua y del Espíritu Santo (Juan 3). La Iglesia siempre ha dicho que esto se refiere al bautismo. Más tarde diría que de los que creen en Él brotarán ríos de agua viva, es decir, del Espíritu Santo. (Juan 7:37-39). En su crucifixión, sangre y agua brotaron de su corazón traspassado, recordándonos el amor que nos da en las aguas del bautismo, la Preciosa Sangre de la Eucaristía.

El Evangelio de hoy La Mujer en el Pozo es otro evento de agua con un mensaje espiritual. La mujer es una gentil que viene al pozo al mediodía. Durante su conversación con Jesús, ella se convierte en creyente y lleva a todos en su pueblo a verlo.

Durante esa conversación Jesús le dice que si ella supiera quién es el que le estaba ofreciendo de beber, es decir, si supiera que Jesús es el Mesías, Él le daría agua viva, es decir, el Espíritu Santo. Como seguidores de Jesús, ¿estamos sedientos de esa Agua Viva del Espíritu de Dios? La Cuaresma es el tiempo perfecto para volvernos una vez más a Jesús, el manantial eterno de Agua Viva del Espíritu Santo y permitir que Él refresque nuestras almas. ¿Tenemos sed de esta Agua Viva?

La paz sea contigo. Diacono John
