DEACON'S CORNER

"Alleluia, Jesus Christ has risen."

Jesus Christ, the Eternal Word of the Father, killed in his humanity, has risen from the dead. And we have risen with Him. We have risen from the stranglehold of the devil. We have risen from evil, from the empty promises of materialism, and from the idolatry of selfishness. We have risen to a new life, the life of baptism, the life of Jesus Christ, the life of the Trinity, the life of Easter. We are the Easter people. We have received the resurrected life of the Lord at our baptism. Possessing the Life of Jesus Christ mandates that we strengthen the Kingdom of God, the Kingdom of Life. The Lord has called us out of this darkness and death and given every one of us the ability to make His Presence real for others. Most everyone would agree that a holiday at a time like this is a celebration of renewal and hope. There is no question that Spring is here. The trees and flowers are blooming and it is a time of growth. People are moving through the stages of life as the season of weddings; graduations and so on are upon us. We are all just happy to be able to go outside into the sunshine after our so-called winter hibernation. The cascade of chocolates and baskets bursting with bunnies all proclaim that everything is new. But do we really need a religious holiday to tell us that? For some time now, we have been "dumbing down" religious observances. Folks who reject anything of God masquerade under the sensible banner of not wishing to offend anyone. So Christmas becomes the winter holiday. Even Saint Patrick's Day has been called "Shamrock Day" and I am sure that Independence Day will be reduced to something completely crazy. Easter, simply put, cannot be reduced to anything other than the bodily resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. I'm not talking about His memory, or His influence, or how He will live on through His disciples. We're talking about Him rising from the dead in the glory of the Father. Take this away, and you do not have Christianity.

Alleluia! Deacon Al

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

"Aleluya, Jesucristo ha resucitado".

Jesucristo, Verbo eterno del Padre, muerto en su humanidad, ha resucitado de entre los muertos. Y hemos resucitado con Él. Nos hemos levantado del dominio del diablo. Nos hemos levantado del mal, de las promesas vacías del materialismo y de la idolatría del egoísmo. Hemos resucitado a una vida nueva, la vida del bautismo, la vida de Jesucristo, la vida de la Trinidad, la vida de la Pascua. Somos el pueblo de Pascua. Hemos recibido la vida resucitada del Señor en nuestro bautismo. Poseer la Vida de Jesucristo manda que fortalezcamos el Reino de Dios, el Reino de la Vida. El Señor nos ha llamado a salir de esta oscuridad y muerte y nos ha dado a cada uno de nosotros la capacidad de hacer que Su Presencia sea real para los demás. La mayoría estaría de acuerdo en que un día festivo en un momento como este es una celebración de renovación y esperanza. No hay duda de que la primavera está aquí. Los árboles y las flores están floreciendo y es un tiempo de crecimiento. La gente se está moviendo a través de las etapas de la vida como la temporada de bodas; graduaciones y así sucesivamente están sobre nosotros. Todos estamos felices de poder salir a la luz del sol después de nuestra llamada hibernación invernal. La cascada de bombones y las cestas repletas de conejitos proclaman que todo es nuevo. Pero, ¿realmente necesitamos una fiesta religiosa para decirnos eso? Desde hace algún tiempo, hemos estado "embruteciendo" las prácticas religiosas. Las personas que rechazan cualquier cosa de Dios se disfrazan bajo la sensata bandera de no querer ofender a nadie. Entonces la Navidad se convierte en la fiesta de invierno. Incluso el Día de San Patricio ha sido llamado "Día del Trébol" y estoy seguro que el Día de la Independencia se verá reducido a algo completamente loco. La Pascua, en pocas palabras, no puede reducirse a nada más que a la resurrección corporal de Jesucristo de entre los muertos. No me refiero a Su memoria, o Su influencia, o cómo Él vivirá a través de Sus discípulos. Estamos hablando de Él resucitando de entre los muertos en la gloria del Padre. Quita esto, y no tienes cristianismo.
