THE PERFECT GIFT FOR MOM

With Mother's Day arriving soon, what better gift to give this loved one, whether living or deceased, than a spiritual bouquet of prayers for them... and you too. Clerical Endowment Fund cards offer a spiritual bouquet of Masses and daily prayers by the Bishop and seminarians for the enrolled as well as the benefactor. Funds raised from the sale of the cards are loaned to Parishes and the interest is given to the Bishop to aid in the education of seminarians.

The ladies of the PCCW will be available the weekend of April 29th and 30th to take enrollments as you leave Mass.

The parish office has cards in English and Spanish year-round. Cards valued at $2 or $5 offer a year of spiritual benefits. Perpetual prayers and Masses come with a $25 individual, $50 family or $100 group donation. They are a unique way to honor living or deceased relatives or friends for any celebratory occasion.

EL REGALO PERFECTO PARA MAMÁ

Con la proximidad del Día de la Madre, que mejor regalo que ofrecer al ser amado, ya sea en vida o difunto, que un ramillete de oraciones para ellos...y para ustedes también. Las tarjetas del Fondo de Beneficencia Clerical ofrecen un ramillete espiritual de Misas y oraciones diarias del Obispo y los seminaristas, tanto para quien hace el registro, como para el benefactor. Los fondos recaudados de la venta de las tarjetas se prestan a las parroquias y el interés se da al obispo para ayudar en la educación de los seminaristas.

DEACON'S CORNER

Last week I was focused on the word “detachment” and I realized after what Sandy said about my article – “are you writing this about yourself,” is that I prefer the word playfulness to detachment, this is so because, for me, detachment often conjures up images of withered, long faced, black robed monks meditating in the desert caves. Playfulness, on the other hand, conjures up images of laughing children building sand castles on a beach and skipping along the shore. That image of children playing on the beach, reminds me of another story that illustrates why, as believers, we can afford to play instead of getting caught up in the busyness of everyday life.

Once there was a large cruise ship caught in a storm on the ocean. While the ship tossed back and forth and up and down, a small boy was out playing on the deck, a concerned couple went out to him and asked, “little boy, aren’t you afraid to play out here during this storm?” No,” he replied, “Because my father is the captain of this ship.” As Christians, we can afford to play even during stormy times, for we know that God is the captain of our ship. The concept of playfulness has scriptural foundations, in Psalm 46:11, we read, “Be still” and know that I am God!” Another translation says, “pause a while and know that I am God.” Someone has suggested that both “be still and Pause a while” really mean “have leisure.” Without too much of a strain, we could say that the line really means: “Play and know that I am God!” How about these lines. “For peace of mind, resign as general manager of the universe! Or “It is of the essence of faith to let God be God! Sometimes it is easy to let God be God, easy to play and let go. When things are going well in life, play often rises naturally and spontaneously. Similarly, there are times when it is easy to let go of certain situations, relationships, places, and plans. But other times, play is difficult and letting go proves nearly impossible. And we find ourselves asking: how can I play when there is so much work to be done? How can I play when so many people are suffering? How can I let go when this person or place or thing means so much to me? How can I let go when I have invested so much of myself in this relationship or work or project?

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

La semana pasada me concentré en la palabra "desapego" y me di cuenta después de lo que dijo Sandy sobre mi artículo: "¿Estás escribiendo esto sobre ti", es que prefiero la palabra alegría a desapego, esto es así porque, para mí, el desapego a menudo evoca imágenes de monjes marchitos, de cara alargada y vestidos de negro que meditan en las cuevas del desierto. Alegría, por otro lado, evoca imágenes de niños riendo construyendo castillos de arena en una playa y saltando a lo largo de la orilla. Esa imagen de niños jugando en la playa, me recuerda otra historia que ilustra por qué, como creyentes, podemos darnos el lujo de jugar en lugar de quedar atrapados en el ajetreo de la vida cotidiana.

Había una vez un gran crucero atrapado en una tormenta en el océano. Mientras el barco se sacudía adelante y atrás y arriba y abajo, un niño pequeño estaba jugando en la cubierta, una pareja preocupada se acercó a él y le preguntó: "pequeño, ¿no tienes miedo de jugar aquí durante esta tormenta? No", respondió, "porque mi padre es el capitán de este barco". Como cristianos, podemos darnos el lujo de jugar incluso en tiempos de tormenta, porque sabemos que Dios es el capitán de nuestro barco. El concepto de el juego tiene fundamentos en las escrituras, en el Salmo 46:11, leemos, “Estad quietos” y sabed que yo soy Dios!” otra traducción dice, “haz una pausa y reconoce que yo soy Dios”. Alguien ha sugerido que tanto “estar quieto como hacer una pausa” realmente significan “tener tiempo libre”. Sin demasiada tensión, podríamos decir que la línea realmente significa: "¡Juega y sabe que soy Dios!" Que tal estas lineas. “¡Para su tranquilidad, renuncie como gerente general del universo! O “Es de la esencia de la fe dejar que Dios sea Dios! A veces es fácil dejar que Dios sea Dios, fácil jugar y dejarse llevar. Cuando las cosas van bien en la vida, el juego a menudo surge de forma natural y espontánea. Del mismo modo, hay momentos en que es fácil dejar de lado ciertas situaciones, relaciones, lugares y planes. Pero otras veces, jugar es difícil y dejarse llevar resulta casi imposible. Y encontramos preguntándonos: ¿cómo puedo jugar cuando hay tanto trabajo por hacer? ¿Cómo puedo jugar cuando hay tanta gente con sufrimiento? ¿Cómo puedo dejar ir cuando esta persona, lugar o cosa significa tanto para mí? ¿Cómo puedo dejar ir cuando tengo invertido tanto de mí mismo en esta relación o trabajo o proyecto?
