Did You Know?

The English word "tabernacle" is derived from the Latin "tabernaculum" meaning "tent". The Hebrew word For "tabernacle" is "miskan" implies "dwell", "rest", or To "live in". We are all familiar with the tabernacle in our church which is located on the high altar.

A "monstrance", Also known as an "ostensorium", is a vessel used in the Roman Catholic Church for the display of the Eucharist host during Eucharist adoration. In our Adoration chapel, we have a vessel that provides both functions. When the doors are open it is a "monstrance", when they are closed it is a "tabernacle". According to our logs, our vessel functions as a "tabernacle" twice as often as it is as a "monstrance". An average day is eight hours of adoration, with twelve hours being the high water mark. Our Lord sacrificed His life for us, can't we sacrifice at least one hour a week for Him.

¿Sabías Que?

La palabra "tabernáculo" se deriva del latín "tabernaculum" que significa "tienda". La palabra hebrea para "tabernáculo" es "miskan" que implica "morar", "descansar" o "vivir en". Todos estamos familiarizados con el tabernáculo en nuestra iglesia que está ubicado en el altar alto.

Una "custodia", también conocida como "ostensorio", es un recipiente utilizado en la Iglesia Católica Romana para la exhibición de la hostia de la Eucaristía durante la adoración de la Eucaristía. En nuestra capilla de Adoración, tenemos un ostensorio que cumple ambas funciones. Cuando las puertas están abiertas es una "custodia", cuando están cerradas es un "tabernáculo". Según nuestras bitácoras, nuestro ostensorio funciona como un "tabernáculo" el doble de veces que como una "custodia". Un día promedio son ocho horas de adoración, siendo doce horas el punto más alto. Nuestro Señor sacrificó Su vida por nosotros, ¿no podemos sacrificar al menos una hora a la semana por Él?

DEACON'S CORNER

This weekend we celebrate the Feast of The Body and Blood of the Lord. The Eucharist is the body, blood soul and divinity of the resurrected, glorified Jesus Christ: the bread of life and the cup of eternal salvation. Heavenly food miraculously given to us by God and taught from early Church times; prefigured in the Old Testament starting with Moses and fulfilled in the New Testament by Jesus. In the Eucharist the bread and wine no longer exist, only the risen Christ exists under the appearances bread and wine.

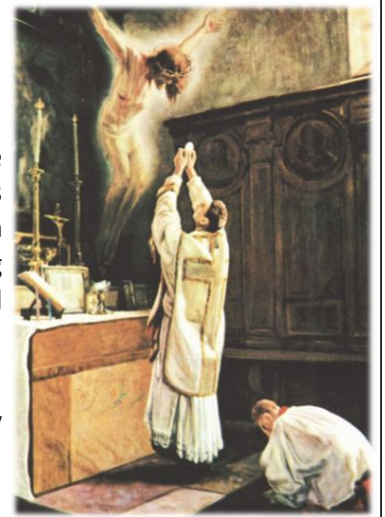

Many miracles have occurred with the Eucharist. Saints have died for the Eucharist, e.g., St. Tarcisius a 3rd century altar server martyred while taking the Eucharist the sick. Early Church Fathers called the Eucharist the medicine of immortality and the antidote to death! People should be streaming to our churches for the medicine of the Eucharist!

Unfortunately, today many Catholics, and Christians from other denominations do not believe what the church teaches about the Eucharist. In John's Gospel Jesus says my flesh is real food and my blood real drink. Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood you have no life in you. In Corinthians Paul says if we receive the Eucharist unworthily we are responsible for the for the body of the Lord (1 Cor. 11:27). Do we receive the Eucharist worthily? Do we believe in the Eucharist?

The Eucharist gives us a share in the divine life of Christ. We become one with Christ and the members of His Mystical Body. It forgives venial sin and strengthens us on our Christian journey. The Eucharist is a great treasure given to us by God. Are we taking full advantage of this gift? The word Eucharist means thanksgiving. Do we thank Jesus for the gift of the Eucharist? Are we amazed at what Jesus has done for us?

May God's peace be with you.

Dcn. John

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

Este fin de semana celebramos la Fiesta del Cuerpo y la Sangre del Señor. La Eucaristía es el cuerpo, sangre, alma y divinidad de Jesucristo resucitado y glorificado: pan de vida y cáliz de eterna salvación. Alimento celestial que Dios nos da milagrosamente y que se enseña desde los primeros tiempos de la Iglesia; prefigurado en el Antiguo Testamento a partir de Moisés y cumplido en el Nuevo Testamento por Jesús. En la Eucaristía el pan y el vino ya no existen, sólo existe Cristo resucitado bajo las apariencias de pan y vino.

Muchos milagros han ocurrido con la Eucaristía. Los santos han muerto por la Eucaristía, por ejemplo, San Tarsicio un monaguillo del siglo XXI martirizado al llevar la Eucaristía a los enfermos. Los primeros Padres de la Iglesia llamaban a la Eucaristía la medicina de la inmortalidad y antídoto de la muerte! La gente debería estar fluyendo a nuestras iglesias por la medicina de la Eucaristía! Desafortunadamente, hoy en día muchos católicos y cristianos de otras denominaciones no creen lo que la iglesia enseña acerca de la Eucaristía. En el Evangelio de Juan, Jesús dice que mi carne es verdadero alimento y mi sangre verdadera bebida. A menos que comáis la carne del Hijo del Hombre y bebáis su sangre, no tenéis vida en vosotros. En Corintios Pablo dice que si recibimos la Eucaristía indignamente somos responsables del cuerpo del Señor (1 Corintios 11:27). ¿Recibimos la Eucaristía dignamente? ¿Creemos en la Eucaristía?

La Eucaristía nos da una participación en la vida divina de Cristo. Llegamos a ser uno con Cristo y los miembros de Su Cuerpo Místico. Perdona los pecados veniales y nos fortalece en nuestro camino cristiano. La Eucaristía es un gran tesoro que Dios nos ha dado. ¿Estamos aprovechando al máximo este regalo? La palabra Eucaristía significa acción de gracias. ¿Damos gracias a Jesús por el don de la Eucaristía? ¿Estamos asombrados de lo que Jesús ha hecho por nosotros? Que la paz de Dios esté contigo.
