Did You Know?

The English word "tabernacle" is derived from the Latin "tabernaculum" meaning "tent". The Hebrew word for "tabernacle" is "miskan" implies "dwell", "rest", or To "live in". We are all familiar with the tabernacle in our church which is located on the high altar.

A "monstrance", Also known as an "ostensorium", is a vessel used in the Roman Catholic Church for the display of the Eucharist host during Eucharist adoration. In our Adoration chapel, we have a vessel that provides both functions. When the doors are open it is a "monstrance", when they are closed it is a "tabernacle". According to our logs, our vessel functions as a "tabernacle" twice as often as it is as a "monstrance". An average day is eight hours of adoration, with twelve hours being the high water mark. Our Lord sacrificed His life for us, can't we sacrifice at least one hour a week for Him.

¿Sabías Que?

La palabra "tabernáculo" se deriva del latín "tabernaculum" que significa "tienda". La palabra hebrea para "tabernáculo" es "miskan" que implica "morar", "descansar" o "vivir en". Todos estamos familiarizados con el tabernáculo en nuestra iglesia que está ubicado en el altar alto.

Una "custodia", también conocida como "ostensorio", es un recipiente utilizado en la Iglesia Católica Romana para la exhibición de la hostia de la Eucaristía durante la adoración de la Eucaristía. En nuestra capilla de Adoración, tenemos un ostensorio que cumple ambas funciones. Cuando las puertas están abiertas es una "custodia", cuando están cerradas es un "tabernáculo". Según nuestras bitácoras, nuestro ostensorio funciona como un "tabernáculo" el doble de veces que como una "custodia". Un día promedio son ocho horas de adoración, siendo doce horas el punto más alto. Nuestro Señor sacrificó Su vida por nosotros, ¿no podemos sacrificar al menos una hora a la semana por Él?

DEACON'S CORNER

In the Gospel Jesus gives his apostles a mission because He has pity on the people who are abandoned like sheep without a shepherd.

He gives the apostles power and authority over unclean spirits and diseases.

He says proclaim that The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand!

Throughout history, church saints and ministers, have driven out unclean spirits. To this day bishops appoint exorcists to carry out this ministry of mercy. There is even a school for exorcists to train them for this ministry. While the Kingdom of God is with us today many have turned away from God, sometimes to practices forbidden by God and the Church. As a result the need for exorcists has increased in recent years. In response bishops have commissioned more exorcists. Usually this ministry is discreet. However, some, with the permission of their bishops, are now on social media sites or giving conferences discussing their ministry and the liberation of people who need this ministry of mercy.

Only a few of the cases reported to exorcists require an exorcism. However, if, after detailed analysis, an exorcism is deemed necessary, through the ministry of the church the exorcist and only a commissioned exorcist will conduct an exorcism.

The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand! We should not fear the devil if we go to mass and the sacraments, pray, and follow Jesus!

Peace

Dcn. John

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

En el Evangelio Jesús da una misión a sus apóstoles porque tiene piedad de la gente que está abandonada como ovejas sin pastor.

Da a los apóstoles poder y autoridad sobre los espíritus inmundos y las enfermedades. Él dice proclamad que el Reino de los Cielos está cerca!

A lo largo de la historia, los santos y ministros de la iglesia han expulsado a los espíritus inmundos. A este día los obispos nombran exorcistas para llevar a cabo este ministerio de misericordia. Incluso hay una escuela para exorcistas para entrenarlos para este ministerio. Mientras el Reino de Dios está con nosotros hoy, muchos se han apartado de Dios, a veces a prácticas prohibidas por Dios y la Iglesia. Como resultado la necesidad de exorcistas ha aumentado en los últimos años. En respuesta, los obispos han encargado más exorcistas. Por lo general, este ministerio es discreto. Sin embargo, algunos, con el permiso de sus obispos, ahora están en los sitios de redes sociales o dando conferencias discutiendo su ministerio y la liberación de las personas que necesitan este ministerio de misericordia.

“Vayan y proclamen
por el camino
que ya se acerca
el Reino de los cielos”

San Mateo 10, 1-7

Solo unos pocos de los casos informados a los exorcistas requieren un exorcismo. Sin embargo, si, después de detallado análisis, se considera necesario un exorcismo, a través del ministerio de la iglesia el exorcista y solo un exorcista comisionado realizará un exorcismo.

¡El Reino de los Cielos está cerca! No debemos temer al diablo si vamos a misa y los sacramentos, orar y seguimos a Jesús!

Paz

Dcn. John
