DEACON'S CORNER

In today's first reading Jeremiah complains about his situation. The people denounce him, laugh at him, want to take vengeance on him. One of the temple priests beat him and imprisoned him. Why? Because he prophesied the unpopular message that God would punish the nation for idolatry, i.e., that the Babylonians would come, destroy Jerusalem, slay many by the sword and carry the nation into captivity. Jeremiah didn't particularly want or like this ministry, he wanted out at one point he even curses the day that he was born. But he also says that God's word is like a fire burning within His bones that he cannot hold in. God's spirit compels him to preach God's message. At the end of today's first reading he ends up praising God possibly remembering that God told him Be not afraid of them, for I am with you to deliver you, says the LORD" (Jer. 1:8).

*Have Confidence in God's Love
for You*

Throughout history many, beginning with Jesus, have suffered for the faith. All of the apostles except John were martyred. The first martyr of the church was the Deacon St. Stephen. Many lay people have also had to suffer and die for their faith. There is an old saying "the blood of the martyrs is the seed of the church." All of those who persevered in the faith despite persecution, hardship and even death did so with the strength given them by God.

While none of us will likely suffer martyrdom, we may at times need to stand up for our faith especially in a world that seems to be getting further and further from God. We may be ridiculed or disparaged for our beliefs. Are we ready to stand up for our faith? Are we ready to counter those parts of our society that champion things contrary to God? Is God's word like a fire in our bones? The same strength that God gave to Jeremiah and to the martyrs God offers to us. Have confidence in God's love and promises for you. The God who loves us stands ready to strengthen us in time of trial.

Dcn. John

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

En la primera lectura de hoy, Jeremías se queja de su situación. La gente lo denuncia, se ríe de él, quiere vengarse de él. Uno de los sacerdotes del templo lo golpeó y lo encarceló. ¿Por qué? Porque profetizó el impopular mensaje de que Dios castigaría a la nación por la idolatría, es decir, que los babilonios vendrían, destruirían Jerusalén, matarían a muchos a espada y llevarían a la nación al cautiverio. Jeremías no quería ni le gustaba este ministerio en particular, él quería salir en un momento, incluso maldice el día que nació. Pero también dice que la palabra de Dios es como un fuego que arde dentro de Sus huesos que él no puede contenerse. El espíritu de Dios lo obliga a predicar el mensaje de Dios. Al final de la primera lectura de hoy termina alabando a Dios posiblemente recordando que Dios le dijo no temas delante de ellos porque contigo estoy para librarte dice el Señor" (Jeremías 1:8).

A lo largo de la historia muchos, empezando por Jesús, han sufrido por la fe. Todos los apóstoles excepto Juan fueron martirizados. El primer mártir de la iglesia fue el diácono San Esteban. Que los laicos también tuvieron que sufrir y morir por su fe. Hay un viejo dicho "la sangre de los mártires es la semilla de la Iglesia." Todos los que perseveraron en la fe a pesar de la persecución, las penalidades e incluso la muerte, así con la fuerza que les ha dado Dios.

Si bien es probable que ninguno de nosotros sufra el martirio, es posible que a veces tengamos que defender nuestra fe, especialmente en un mundo que parece alejarse cada vez más de Dios. Podemos ser ridiculizados o menospreciados por nuestras creencias. ¿Estamos listos para defender nuestra fe? ¿Estamos listos para contrarrestar esas partes de nuestra sociedad que defiende cosas contrarias a Dios? ¿Es la palabra de Dios como un fuego en nuestros huesos? La misma fuerza que Dios le dio a Jeremías y a los mártires Dios nos ofrece. Ten confianza en el amor de Dios y promesas para ti. El Dios que nos ama está listo para fortalecernos en el momento de la prueba.
