DEACON'S CORNER

Have you ever decided to go on a journey without making any plans? Do you just get into your car and drive to an airport and decide to take a plane somewhere without any planning? I don't think so. A successful journey takes planning to make things go so much smoother.

Six months ago, we started planning a trip to attend two family reunions on two different weekends and one reunion also included finally placing my younger brother's ashes into a columbarium after sitting on my sister-in-law's dresser for seven years. Both Sandy and I started planning the acquiring the best air travel to Milwaukee Wisconsin, Pre-flight parking at Hobby airport, car rental in Milwaukee, one night hotel stay in Milwaukee, lodging for 5 nights in Boulder Junction Wisconsin, 2-week fishing license in Wisconsin, then air travel from Milwaukee to St. Louis MO, car rental in St. Louis, four-night hotel stay in O'Fallon MO, graveside service in "Our Lady cemetery" in Lake St. Louis, and a flight back to Houston.

And then there was the deciding to what clothes to take, the packing of the suitcases (Sandy's expertise), the programming the home thermostat for vacation mode, setting up the house security lights, stopping the mail, notifying the neighbors of our travels and letting the church office know of our time away.

This trip went well as we visited our extended families and everything went off without a hitch. There was work involved, fun putting this trip together, experiencing the joys of being with family and not a burden on both Sandy and I as we traveled on this journey. Can you imagine if we did not preplan this trip, it would have been chaos and a nerve-racking travel experience. And we would have arrived back home in a frenzy mode and would not have been able to enjoy the time spent with our families.

So where am I going with this – It will be revealed next week.

Deacon Al

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

¿Alguna vez has decidido emprender un viaje sin hacer ningún plan? ¿Simplemente te subes a tu auto y conduces a un aeropuerto y decides tomar un avión a algún lugar sin ningún tipo de planificación? No me parece. Un viaje exitoso requiere planeación para hacer que las cosas vayan mucho mejor.

Hace seis meses, comenzamos a planear un viaje, asistir a dos reuniones familiares en dos fines de semana diferentes y una reunión también incluyó finalmente colocar las cenizas de mi hermano menor en un columbario después de sentarse en el tocador de mi cuñada por siete años. Tanto Sandy como yo comenzamos a planificar la adquisición de los mejores viajes aéreos a Milwaukee, Wisconsin, estacionamiento en el aeropuerto de Hobby, alquiler de autos en Milwaukee, estadía de una noche en un hotel en Milwaukee, alojamiento por 5 noches en Boulder Junction Wisconsin, licencia de pesca de 2 semanas en Wisconsin, luego viaje en avión desde Milwaukee a St. Louis MO, alquiler de auto en St. Louis, estadía de cuatro noches en un hotel en O'Fallon MO, servicio junto a la tumba en el "Cementerio de Nuestra Señora" en Lake St. Louis, y un vuelo de regreso a Houston.

Y luego estaba la decisión de qué ropa llevar, el hacer las maletas (la experiencia de Sandy), el programar el termostato de la casa para el modo de vacaciones, configurar las luces de seguridad de la casa, detener el correo, notificar a los vecinos de nuestros viajes e informar a la oficina de la iglesia de nuestro tiempo fuera.

Este viaje salió bien ya que visitamos a nuestras familias extendidas y todo transcurrió sin problemas. Hubo trabajo involucrado, diversión al armar este viaje, experimentar las alegrías de estar con la familia y no ser una carga para Sandy y para mí mientras viajábamos en este viaje. ¿Te imaginas que si no hubiéramos planeado este viaje con anticipación, habría sido un caos y un nerviosismo y una tormentosa experiencia de viaje. Y habríamos llegado a casa en un modo frenético y no habríamos podido disfrutar el tiempo que pasamos con nuestras familias.

Entonces, ¿a dónde voy con esto? Se revelará la próxima semana.
