PLANNING A JOURNEY PART 2

A recap from last week's article – A trip from home with POI'S (Points of interest) in between and arriving back home with comfort and ease. If you missed the article you can get it on our website and Parish APP.

This week let's focus on our earthly journey as a human being. All of us were brought into this world at a certain time and a certain date and that is the beginning of our journey as a human being. I believe that all of you who are reading this article have been Baptized. And probably most of you were Baptized as an infant thus we do not have a memory of this Sacrament. Our parents brought us into this world as Christians when we were Baptized. Then comes the Sacrament of Confirmation and for me this is a blurry memory. All that I remember is that I was in the 8th grade at St. Bernard's, my Uncle Ted was my sponsor and the church was full of incense. At least seeds of my Catholic Faith were planted and my parents nurtured those seeds. Then the teen years arrived when the thought of aging wasn't even on my radar. Sound familiar? Then came attending a school of higher education that prepared me for my future life. In my early twenties I then received the Sacrament of marriage with Sandy which started the both of us on another new journey as a married couple. Our four children eventual came along which tickled my mind to think about their future and our future. On what we needed to support our children as they were growing up and also what Sandy and I would need when we reached our retirement age. We invested in IRA's, saved money, life insurance's, long term health care, wills, Power of attorney, and all of the necessary items that are needed to take care of us as we grew older. We wanted to make sure that our children did not have to experience any hassles at any time when we left this earth and arrived home with Jesus.

All of the above is the normal stuff that we do and that the world tells us to do and probably most of you who are reading this are saying – Got it done. But there is more to this journey that we are taking. Something that we avoid and are afraid to face the fact that one day our journey ends. And then what? Stay tuned.

PLANIFICANDO UN VIAJE PARTE 2

Un resumen del artículo de la semana pasada: un viaje desde casa con PDI (Puntos de interés) en el medio y el regreso a casa con comodidad y tranquilidad. Si te perdiste el artículo puedes conseguirlo en nuestra pagina web y APP Parroquial.

Esta semana concentrémonos en nuestro viaje terrenal como ser humano. Todos nosotros fuimos traídos a este mundo en un cierto tiempo y una fecha determinada y ese es el comienzo de nuestro viaje como ser humano. Yo creo que todos los que están leyendo este artículo han sido bautizados. Y probablemente la mayoría de ustedes fueron bautizados cuando eran bebés, por lo que no tenemos un recuerdo de este Sacramento. Nuestros padres nos trajeron a este mundo como cristianos cuando fuimos bautizados. Luego viene el Sacramento de la Confirmación y para mí esto es un recuerdo borroso. Todo lo que recuerdo es que estaba en octavo grado en St. Bernard's, mi tío Ted fue mi padrino y la iglesia estaba llena de incienso. Al menos las semillas de mi fe católica fueron plantadas y mis padres cultivaron esas semillas. Luego llegaron los años de la adolescencia, cuando la idea de envejecer ni siquiera estaba presente en mi radar ¿Suena familiar? Luego vino asistir a una escuela de educación superior que me preparó para mi vida futura. En mi veinte años, recibí el sacramento del matrimonio con Sandy, lo que nos inició a los dos en otro nuevo viaje como pareja casada. Eventualmente llegaron nuestros cuatro hijos, lo que me hizo pensar en su futuro y nuestro futuro. Sobre lo que necesitábamos para apoyar a nuestros hijos mientras crecían y también lo que Sandy y yo necesitábamos cuando llegamos a nuestra edad de jubilación. Invertimos en IRA, dinero ahorrado, seguros de vida, atención médica a largo plazo, testamentos, poderes notariales y todos los elementos necesarios para cuidarnos a medida que envejecemos. Queríamos asegurarnos de que nuestros hijos no tuvieran que experimentar ningún problema en ningún momento cuando dejáramos esta tierra y llegáramos a casa con Jesús.

Todo lo anterior son las cosas normales que hacemos y que el mundo nos dice que hagamos y probablemente la mayoría de ustedes que están leyendo esto están diciendo – Lo hice. Pero hay más en este viaje que estamos tomando. Algo que evitamos y tenemos miedo de enfrentar el hecho de que un día nuestro viaje termina. ¿Y entonces que? Manténganse al tanto.
