Gratitude.

"The Lord is my mighty protector; in him I trusted fully, and he helped me. My heart is glad; I will sing and give thanks to the Lord." Ps. 28:7

Gratitude is present throughout the Sacred Scripture as a virtue that springs from the heart of man when he recognizes the greatness of the Lord and the help he receives from others. He who discovers that God is the source of all good received, of all gifts, and that he is the one who sustains us by his mercy cannot but, as the Psalm says, give thanks to the Lord. The Apostle James tells us: "all good given and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father" (James 1:17). Gratitude opens us to generosity, since we cannot withhold blessings selfishly, for the same Word of the Lord teaches us that "He who confers benefits will be amply enriched, and he who refreshes others will himself be refreshed" (Prov. 11:25).

You who are reading this: Have you ever stopped to think about the good things God has given you? The simple fact of seeing or reading is already a reason to give thanks. Many people can't. You are privileged! However, many times we focus more on our problematic situations or what we lack, and we don't realize how blessed we are. Gratitude is an attitude and language in the Christian life. Complaining, on the contrary, closes us to the experience of God's generosity and makes us selfish and complainers, and we were not created to be that, but to be the praise and glory of our God.

And I leave you this other biblical quote, so that together with the others you can reflect on it this week and so you can raise your eyes to heaven and say: thank you, Lord, for all that you give me. I probably do not deserve it, but you are my Father, Amen.

"In all circumstances give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus" (1 Thess 5:18).

See you next time!

La gratitud.

«El Señor es mi poderoso protector; en él confié plenamente, y él me ayudó. Mi corazón está alegre; cantaré y daré gracias al Señor.» Sal. 28, 7

La gratitud está presente a lo largo de toda la Sagrada Escritura como virtud que brota del corazón del hombre, cuando reconoce la grandeza del Señor y la ayuda que recibe de los demás. El que descubre que Dios es la fuente de todo bien recibido, de todos los dones y que es quien nos sostiene por su misericordia, no puede más que como dice el Salmo, dar gracias al Señor. El apóstol Santiago nos lo dice: «todo lo bueno y perfecto que se nos da, viene de arriba, de Dios» (Sant. 1,17).

La gratitud nos abre a la generosidad, ya que no podemos retener las bendiciones de manera egoísta, pues la misma Palabra del Señor nos enseña que «El que es generoso, prospera; el que da también recibe» (Prov. 11,25), y nunca le ganaremos al Señor en generosidad, él siempre da más.

Tú que estás leyendo esto: ¿Alguna vez te has detenido a pensar en las cosas buenas que Dios te ha dado? El simple hecho de ver o de leer ya es un motivo para agradecer. Muchas personas no pueden hacerlo. ¡Eres privilegiado! Sin embargo, muchas veces nos enfocamos más en nuestras situaciones problemáticas o lo que nos hace falta y no caemos en cuenta en lo bendecidos que somos.

La gratitud es actitud y es lenguaje en la vida cristiana. La queja, por el contrario, nos cierra a la experiencia de la generosidad de Dios y nos vuelve egoístas y quejumbrosos, y no fuimos creados para ser eso, sino para ser alabanza y gloria de nuestro Dios.

Y te dejo esta otra cita bíblica, para que junto con las demás las reflexiones esta semana y así puedas levantar la mirada al cielo y decir: Gracias Señor, gracias por todo lo que me das, probablemente no lo merezco, pero tu eres mi Padre. Amén.

«Den gracias a Dios por todo, porque esto es lo que él quiere de ustedes como creyentes en Cristo Jesús» (1Tes 5,18).

¡Hasta la próxima!

Fr. Juan José Díaz

WHAT IS DISCERNMENT?

LEARN THE BASICS

Vocational discernment precedes the choice of giving a definitive direction to your life – the fundamental way that you will follow Christ. As with all important decisions, it is essential in vocational discernment to have good information. There are three things to know:

1. You are called to holiness
2. The vocations of priesthood, consecrated life, and marriage are three ways of being holy
3. Celibacy is a foretaste of heaven that Jesus wants to give some of His friends already on earth

1. You are called to holiness

Regarding God's will, the one thing you do not have to discern is His desire for your holiness. "This is the will of God, your holiness" (1 Thessalonians 4:3)

Unfortunately, because holiness is a term that we use so often, there is a risk of being uninterested in this call. If we appreciated holiness for what it truly is, pursuing it would become the most urgent and important task every day of our lives.

The following passages from Scripture are helpful to begin appreciating the call to holiness:

- "I came that they might have life and have it to the full." – John 10:10
- "Come to me, all you who labor and are heavy burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart, and you will find rest for your souls. My yoke is easy, and my burden is light." – Matthew 11:28-30
- "He has granted to us his precious and very great promises, that through these you may escape from the corruption that is in the world because of passion, and become partakers of the divine nature." – 2 Peter 1:4

Holiness is nothing less than sharing in God's life, becoming a "partaker of the divine nature." He came in order that we might have His life "and have it to the full." Until we heed His call, our hearts will remain restless, but when we take up our cross and follow Him, we find the "rest" that our hearts seek. The glory of salvation is not merely freedom from sin; it is freedom for divine sonship. Salvation makes us sons and daughters of God – able to love as He loves and to know the joy that He knows.

- "I have told you these things so that my joy might be in your and your joy might be complete. This is my commandment, love one another as I have loved you." – John 15:11-12

Vocational discernment rests on the firm foundation of the call to holiness. By seeking holiness as you are right now, God will make known the particular way of holiness that He wants you to embrace in the future.

The next topic, will be in the next bulletin...

VOCATIONS

¿QUE ES DISCERNIMIENTO?

Aprende lo básico

El discernimiento vocacional precede a la elección de dar una dirección definitiva a tu vida, el camino fundamental en el que seguirás a Cristo. Como ocurre con todas las decisiones importantes, en el discernimiento vocacional es fundamental contar con buena información. Hay tres cosas que debes saber:

1. Estás llamado a la santidad
2. Las vocaciones al sacerdocio, a la vida consagrada y al matrimonio son tres modos de ser santos
3. El celibato es un anticipo del cielo que Jesús quiere dar a algunos de sus amigos que ya están en la tierra

1. Estáis llamados a la santidad

Respecto a la voluntad de Dios, lo único que no tienes que discernir es su deseo por tu santidad. “Esta es la voluntad de Dios, vuestra santidad” (1 Tesalonicenses 4:3)

Desafortunadamente, debido a que santidad es un término que usamos con tanta frecuencia, existe el riesgo de no estar interesados en este llamado. Si apreciáramos la santidad por lo que realmente es, perseguirla se convertiría en la tarea más urgente e importante de cada día de nuestras vidas.

Los siguientes pasajes de las escrituras son útiles para comenzar a apreciar el llamado a la santidad:

“He venido para que tengan vida y la tengan en plenitud”. – Juan 10:10

“Venid a mí todos los que estáis trabajados y agobiados, y yo os haré descansar. Llevad mi yugo sobre vosotros y aprended de mí, que soy manso y humilde de corazón, y encontraréis descanso para vuestras almas. Mi yugo es suave y ligera mi carga”. – Mateo 11:28-30

“Él nos ha concedido sus preciosas y grandísimas promesas, para que por ellas escapen de la corrupción que hay en el mundo a causa de las pasiones, y lleguen a ser partícipes de la naturaleza divina”. – 2 Pedro 1:4

La santidad es nada menos que compartir la vida de Dios, llegar a ser “participante de la naturaleza divina”. Él vino para que podamos tener su vida “y tenerla en plenitud”. Hasta que escuchemos su llamado, nuestro corazón permanecerá inquieto, pero cuando tomamos nuestra cruz y lo seguimos, encontramos el “descanso” que nuestro corazón busca.

La gloria de la salvación no es simplemente estar libre del pecado; es libertad para la filiación divina. La salvación nos hace hijos e hijas de Dios, capaces de amar como él ama y de conocer el gozo que él conoce.

“Os he dicho estas cosas para que mi gozo esté en vosotros y vuestro gozo sea completo. Este es mi mandamiento: amaos unos a otros como yo os he amado”. – Juan 15:11-12

El discernimiento vocacional descansa sobre el fundamento firme de la llamada a la santidad. Al buscar la santidad como estás ahora, Dios te dará a conocer el camino particular de santidad que él quiere que adoptes en el futuro.

El próximo punto, estará en el próximo boletín...

DEACON'S CORNER

Catholics Care. Catholics Vote.

The phrase "Render to Caesar what is Caesar's and to God what is God's," has deeper implications, particularly to us here in the United States. First of all, "render to Caesar what is Caesar's." We have a responsibility to be good citizens of our country. That means participating in protecting our country from those who would destroy it by joining the military and by supporting those in the military. We do not need another 9/11 to remind us that there are people in the world who are searching for ways to destroy us. What the members of the military do is protect our country even if this means sacrificing their lives for our country. We have a debt to all who serve or have served. Second, we have a responsibility to take an active role in our government from town hall to Washington, DC. If we, as Catholics, want the laws of our country to be based on principals of Catholic morality and social justice, we have to take part in the government, not be bystanders. Yes, we need to vote, but more than vote, we need to be actively engaged in the working of our government. This is how we can lead our country to develop and expand our democracy. Of course, the least we can do is vote, not just in presidential elections but in every election. Our Catholic voice needs to be heard. Those are just some points flowing from "Render to Caesar what is Caesar's." Infinitely more important is the second decree of the Lord, "Render to God what is God's." Our citizenship is in heaven, St. Paul reminds us in Philippians 3:20. The main goal of each of our lives must be to spread the Kingdom of God. We must spread the Good News, the Gospel, that Jesus Christ has reunited us to our Heavenly Father. When we live his life in our own lives, he gives beauty and purpose and meaning to our lives. So, can an American be a good Catholic? Can a good Catholic be an American? Of course, on both counts. A good Catholic cares for his country because he loves God and wants his country to continue to reflect the love of God in every aspect of national life. By serving his country properly, as a committed Catholic, he will be serving God. Our prayer today is for God to help us render unto Caesar what is Caesar's and unto God what is God's

Deacon Al

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

La frase "Dad al César lo que es del César y a Dios lo que es de Dios" tiene implicaciones más profundas, particularmente para nosotros. aquí en los Estados Unidos. En primer lugar, "dad al César lo que es del César". Tenemos la responsabilidad de ser buenos ciudadanos de nuestro país. Eso significa participar en la protección de nuestro país de aquellos que lo destruirían uniéndonos al ejército y apoyando a los militares. No necesitamos otro 11 de septiembre para recordarnos que hay personas en el mundo que están buscando formas de destruirnos. Lo que hacen los militares es proteger a nuestro país incluso si esto significa sacrificar sus vidas por nuestro país. Tenemos una deuda con todos los que sirven o han servido. En segundo lugar, tenemos la responsabilidad tomar un papel activo en nuestro gobierno desde el ayuntamiento hasta Washington, DC. Si nosotros, como católicos, queremos que las leyes de nuestro país se basen en los principios de la moral católica y la justicia social, tenemos que participar en el gobierno, no ser solamente espectadores. Sí, necesitamos votar, pero más que votar, necesitamos participar activamente en el funcionamiento de nuestro gobierno. Así es como podemos llevar a nuestro país a desarrollar y expandir nuestra democracia. Por supuesto, lo menos que podemos hacer es votar, no sólo en las elecciones presidenciales sino en todas las elecciones. Nuestra voz católica necesita ser escuchada. Esos son solo algunos puntos que surgen de "Dad al César lo que es del César". Infinitamente más importante es el segundo decreto del Señor, "Dad a Dios lo que es de Dios". Nuestra ciudadanía está en el cielo, nos recuerda San Pablo en Filipenses 3:20. El objetivo principal de la vida de cada uno de nosotros debe ser difundir el Reino de Dios. Debemos difundir la Buena Nueva, el Evangelio, que Jesucristo nos reunió con nuestro Padre Celestial. Cuando vivimos su vida en nuestras propias vidas, él da belleza, propósito y significado a nuestras vidas. Entonces, ¿puede un estadounidense ser un buen católico? ¿Puede un buen católico ser estadounidense? Por supuesto, en ambos aspectos. Un buen católico se preocupa por su país porque ama a Dios y quiere que su país continúe reflejando el amor de Dios en todos los aspectos de la vida nacional. Al servir adecuadamente a su país, como católico comprometido, estará sirviendo a Dios. Nuestra oración hoy es para que Dios nos ayude a dar al César lo que es del César y a Dios lo que es de Dios.
