WHAT IS DISCERNMENT?

Continuation of the last week...

TAKE A STEP

Having covered the basics, the next part of vocational discernment is taking a step. It is typical to wish that God would light up the whole path of our lives so that we would know exactly where to go, but He most often chooses to light up only the next step. Why the agony of waiting?

God is not content merely to inform us; He wants to transform us. By taking a step in faith, even when we do not know where the next one will lead, our hearts are stretched. And when the time comes for Him to inform us of our vocation, there is so much more of us to inform. Our hearts are transformed as we trust Him step by step so that when we embrace our vocation, we will be able to love as He loves. He wants us to settle for nothing less because He made our hearts for nothing less.

Depending on where you are in your vocational discernment journey, the following options may be appropriate steps for you to take:

Call your Vocation Director

Having started with the information provided on this website, your conversation with the vocation director will be even more fruitful. He will be able to listen to your story, answer question, and offer counsel that is specific to you.

Start / Join a Discernment Group

In addition to aiding your own discernment, starting a Discernment Group with your friends is a beautiful way to evangelize! Contact Fr. Greg for an easy way to share the good news of Jesus' call to holiness and a helpful program to guide you on your path of vocational discernment.

Start Discernment 180

Discernment 180 is a six-month guide to help you discern the priesthood or consecrated life. Much like Exodus 90, Magnify 90, and other similar programs, it includes a rule of life, daily meditations for prayer, and facilitates good actions to take as you seek to know God's will.

Attend a Vocation Event

The best vocational discernment occurs with others on the same path. The Vocations Office offers events for men and women throughout the year to connect you with peers and guides who will support you along your path of following Christ.

FOLLOW GOD'S DIRECTION

You have mastered the basics and taken a step. It's time, now, to follow God's direction. Again, God typically does not light up the whole path of our lives; He lights up the next step. When we take that step, one of two things will happen: He will confirm that direction, or He will redirect us.

Perhaps the next step He is offering you is another one listed above. Perhaps you have peace and joy about moving towards marriage. Eventually, though, the next step for those continuing to discern celibate vocations is applying to seminary or a community.

Applying to seminary is not the final decision to become a priest; it is the recognition that in your vocational discernment, God has consistently confirmed the direction of the priesthood to you and that the only way to receive further confirmation in any direction is to go to seminary.

¿QUE ES DISCERNIMIENTO?

...Continuación de la semana pasada...

DA EL SIGUIENTE PASO

Habiendo cubierto lo básico, la siguiente parte del discernimiento vocacional es dar un paso. Es típico desear que Dios ilumine todo el camino de nuestras vidas para que sepamos exactamente a dónde ir, pero la mayoría de las veces Él elige iluminar sólo el siguiente paso. ¿Por qué la agonía de la espera?

Dios no se contenta simplemente con informarnos; Él quiere transformarnos. Al dar un paso en la fe, incluso cuando no sabemos adónde nos llevará el siguiente, nuestro corazón se ensancha. Y cuando llegue el momento de que Él nos informe de nuestra vocación, habrá mucho más de nosotros que informar. Nuestros corazones se transforman a medida que confiamos en Él paso a paso para que, cuando abracemos nuestra vocación, podamos amar como Él ama. Él quiere que no nos conformemos con nada menos porque Él hizo nuestros corazones para nada menos.

Dependiendo de dónde se encuentre en su camino de discernimiento vocacional, las siguientes opciones pueden ser pasos apropiados a seguir:

Llama a tu Director Vocacional

Habiendo comenzado con la información proporcionada en este sitio web, su conversación con el director vocacional será aún más fructífera. Él podrá escuchar su historia, responder preguntas y ofrecerle consejos específicos para usted.

Iniciar / Unirse a un Grupo de Discernimiento

¡Además de ayudarte en tu propio discernimiento, iniciar un Grupo de Discernimiento con tus amigos es una hermosa manera de evangelizar! Póngase en contacto con el P. Greg por una manera fácil de compartir las buenas nuevas del llamado de Jesús a la santidad y un programa útil para guiarte en tu camino de discernimiento vocacional.

Iniciar el discernimiento 180

Discernimiento 180 es una guía de seis meses para ayudarte a discernir el sacerdocio o la vida consagrada. Al igual que Éxodo 90, Magnify 90 y otros programas similares, incluye una regla de vida, meditaciones diarias para la oración y facilita buenas acciones a tomar mientras busca conocer la voluntad de Dios.

Asista a un evento vocacional

El mejor discernimiento vocacional se da con otros que están en el mismo camino. La Oficina de Vocaciones ofrece eventos para hombres y mujeres durante todo el año para conectarte con compañeros y guías que te apoyarán en tu camino de seguir a Cristo.

SIGUE LA DIRECCIÓN DE DIOS

Has dominado los conceptos básicos y has dado un paso. Ahora es el momento de seguir la dirección de Dios. Una vez más, Dios normalmente no ilumina todo el camino de nuestras vidas; Él ilumina el siguiente paso. Cuando demos ese paso, sucederá una de dos cosas: Él confirmará esa dirección o nos redirigirá.

Quizás el siguiente paso que Él le ofrece sea otro de los mencionados anteriormente. Quizás tengas paz y alegría de avanzar hacia el matrimonio. Sin embargo, eventualmente el siguiente paso para aquellos que continúan discerniendo vocaciones célibes es postularse al seminario o a una comunidad.

Solicitar ingreso al seminario no es la decisión final para convertirse en sacerdote; es el reconocimiento de que en vuestro discernimiento vocacional, Dios os ha confirmado consistentemente la dirección del sacerdocio y que la única manera de recibir mayor confirmación en cualquier dirección es ir al seminario.

Did You Know?

The section of the church where the parishioners sit is called the "nave".

Referring to the "barque of Peter" and "Noah's Ark", the word is derived from the Latin word for ship, navis.

¿Sabías Que?

La sección de la iglesia donde se sientan los feligreses se llama "nave".

Refiriéndose a la "barca de Pedro" y al "Arca de Noé", la palabra se deriva de la palabra latina para barco, navis.

DEACON'S CORNER

The bridegroom comes!

Our gospel reading this week is about the ten virgins waiting for the bridegroom. Five are ready when he arrives and are invited into the wedding feast and five are not; they allowed their lights to go out. A good example of how Christ comes to us as more than just King and Shepard. He comes as the bridegroom with the Church as his bride. The Old Testament is filled with examples of how God viewed his relationship with Israel. The relationship was that of a marriage.

Jesus's very first miracle at the Wedding at Cana was to provide the wine, the duty of the bridegroom. And he does so with abundance and unsurpassed quality. Christ marries his bride, The Church, on the cross and makes her perfect and worthy of him by his sacrifice. This relationship of Christ to His Church is so fundamental to our faith, that our Catechism teaches that The Church was not created to save the world, but rather God created the world so there would be a church; so that Christ would have his bride.

When the prodigal son returned to his father, he knew he wasn't worthy of his father's love. He said "Father, I have sinned against you and heaven, and don't deserve to be your son anymore. Treat me like a hired servant." But the father responded by having the son anointed and placing a ring on his finger. The message was clear: "You are my child. You will always be mine and nothing can change that. You will never be treated like a servant."

Therefore, the most basic reality of our faith is not that our sins are forgiven, and we are saved, but that we are adopted into God's family. We have a place at the wedding feast that won't be taken from us. Only we can refuse it by allowing our light of faith to go out.

Blessings and peace, Deacon Steve

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

¡Viene el novio!

Nuestra lectura del evangelio de esta semana trata sobre las diez vírgenes que esperan al novio. Cinco están listos cuando él llega y son invitadas al banquete de bodas y cinco no; permitieron que se apagaran sus luces. Un buen ejemplo de cómo Cristo viene a nosotros como algo más que Rey y Pastor. Él viene como el novio con la Iglesia como su esposa. El Antiguo Testamento está lleno de ejemplos de cómo Dios veía su relación con Israel. La relación era la de un matrimonio.

El primer milagro de Jesús en las bodas de Caná fue proporcionar el vino, el deber del novio. Y El lo hace con abundancia y calidad insuperable. Cristo se casa con su esposa, la Iglesia, en la cruz y la hace perfecta y digna de él por su sacrificio. Esta relación de Cristo con Su Iglesia es tan fundamental para nuestra fe, que nuestro Catecismo enseña que La Iglesia no fue creada para salvar al mundo, sino más bien Dios creó el mundo para que hubiera una iglesia; para que Cristo tuviera su novia.

Cuando el hijo pródigo regresó con su padre, supo que no era digno del amor de su padre. Él dijo: "Padre, yo he pecado contra ti y contra el cielo y ya no merezco ser tu hijo. Trátame como a un criado." Pero el padre respondió haciendo ungir al hijo y colocándole un anillo en el dedo. El mensaje fue claro: "Tú eres mi hijo. Siempre serás mío y nada puede cambiar eso. Nunca serás tratado como un sirviente".

Por lo tanto, la realidad más básica de nuestra fe no es que nuestros pecados sean perdonados y nosotros salvos, sino que somos adoptados en la familia de Dios. Tenemos un lugar en el banquete de bodas que nadie nos quitará. Solo nosotros podemos rechazarlo permitiendo que se apague la luz de nuestra fe.

Bendiciones y paz, Diácono Steve.
