ONE STAR and many spotlights....

The story of the Epiphany or the Three Wise Men, is a text with a very strong theological density, which in simple words wants to tell us that this child who has been born, surpasses national limits, and will be a king for all nations, a savior for all towns. Certainly, today we are witnesses of this. Jesus has come to reign in our hearts and homes, but it remains a challenge for us not to deviate from this goal, that Jesus be the one who reigns.

When they saw the star again, they were filled with immense joy (Mt 2, 1-12). I ask myself these questions: What does the star mean to me? How can I apply this to my life today? This is this idea that came to me and I want to share it with you.

There is only one star, but many spotlights that tempt us to deviate from the path of peace that a star offers us.

We all start with very good resolutions, like the ones we just made at the beginning of this new year, but over time they are overshadowed by other lights that appear along the way. All marriages start with the best intentions. In fact, all of us, by natural tendency of our hearts, seek God and live in his love; but... what happens? Then comes temptation, sin, and greed which makes us look away from our conscience, from our purpose, and draws us to something artificial, that ends up deceiving us with lies and distances us from the true path.

These wise men walked many miles following the light of the star, but when they approached the capital of Jerusalem, they imagined that there they would find the king's son. Also consider that inside the city with so many artificial lights it is difficult to see the natural light of the star. It is not until digging into the scriptures that they regain their path and until then they see the star again and their hearts are filled with immense joy... the same thing happens today with us, that being seduced by so many desires we can end up losing peace, love, joy and even family. It will not be until we meditate on the Holy Scriptures that we are able to recover the path and listen to our inner voice, the light of our conscience. When search the Scriptures only then will we be filled with immense joy, and even this will not be compared to what awaits us at the end of the path, the true Sun of Justice, Jesus Christ our Lord.

What is your star? And what are the spotlights that can divert you from the true path? If you feel lost, remember that it is in Holy Scripture where we find our way back.

Fr. Everardo Cázares

Una Estrella y muchos reflectores....

El relato de la Epifanía o de los Reyes Magos, es un texto con una densidad teológica muy fuerte, que en palabras sencillas quiere decirnos que este niño que ha nacido, sobrepasa los límites nacionales, será un rey para todas las naciones, un Salvador para todos los pueblos. Y ciertamente, hoy somos testigos de esto. Jesús ha venido a reinar a nuestros corazones y hogares, pero sigue siendo un reto para nosotros no desviarnos de este objetivo, que Jesús sea el que reine.

Al ver de nuevo la estrella, se llenaron de inmensa alegría (Mt 2, 1-12). Al preguntarme ¿qué significará para mí la estrella? ¿Cómo poder aplicar esto a mi vida el día de hoy? Me surge este pensamiento que quiero compartirlo contigo.

Solo hay una estrella, pero muchos reflectores que nos invitan a desviarnos del camino de paz que nos ofrece una estrella.

Todos iniciamos con muy buenos propósitos, como los que acabamos de hacer al inicio de este año nuevo, pero que con el tiempo se van opacando por otras luces que aparecen en el camino. Todos los matrimonios inician con las mejores intenciones. Incluso, todos por tendencia natural de nuestro corazón buscamos a Dios y a vivir en su amor; pero... ¿qué sucede? Que vienen la tentación, el pecado, la codicia que hace que se nos desvíe la mirada de nuestra conciencia, de nuestro propósito, por algo artificial que termina engañándonos con la mentira y alejándonos del verdadero camino.

Estos magos caminaron mucho siguiendo la luz de la estrella, pero al acercarse a la capital de Jerusalén, se imaginaron que ahí encontrarían al hijo del rey, y adentro de la ciudad con tantas luces artificiales es difícil ver la luz natural de la estrella. No es hasta que al indagar en las escrituras recuperan el camino y hasta entonces vuelen a ver la estrella y sus corazones se llenan de inmensa alegría... lo mismo pasa hoy con nosotros, que siendo seducidos por tantos deseos podemos terminar perdiendo la paz, el amor, la alegría e incluso la familia. No será hasta que indagando en las Sagradas Escrituras seamos capaces de recuperar el camino y escuchando nuestra voz interior, la luz de nuestra conciencia nos llenemos de una inmensa alegría, y que aun ésta, no se comparará con lo que nos espera al final del camino, el verdadero sol de justicia, Jesucristo nuestro Señor.

¿Cuál es tu estrella? ¿Y cuáles son los reflectores que te pueden desviar del verdadero camino?

Si te sientes extraviado o perdido, recuerda que es en la Sagrada Escritura en donde encontramos el regreso.

DEACON'S CORNER

Who were they, these three men we call magi? Were they kings? Popular tradition refers to them as the three kings, and maybe they were. Certainly, their gifts were those one king would offer to another. The title "king" was used rather loosely in the ancient East. They may have been more similar to the medieval counts or dukes. The Hebrew prophets, particularly Isaiah, had foretold that kings would flock to Jerusalem to worship the Lord. So, it would be acceptable to consider them as kings. Sometimes they are referred to as magi or astrologers. Were they astrologers? Well, not astrologers in the sense of Madame Take-your-money, who says whatever she figures would keep her cash flow solid. But they were astrologers in the sense that they studied the sky looking for the sign that the Golden Age would begin. Perhaps, they were more astronomers than astrologers. The ancient people believed that the birth of the Great One would be accompanied by rejoicing in the heavens. The Hebrew people also believed that nature would respond to the momentous event. Recent studies have shown that those east of Judea would have indeed seen a phenomenon in the sky, a star in their sense of the term, right at the time of the birth of Jesus. However that doesn't explain how on leaving Jerusalem they were overjoyed to find the star guiding them to Bethlehem and resting over the place where Jesus was. By the way, notice that the magi entered a house, not a stable. Maybe by the time they got there some people gave the Holy Family a room in which to stay. Or perhaps Joseph found a VRBO. Were the three, wise men? Certainly, they were wise, wiser than most men. They were willing to leave their lands, their comforts, and journey to find the great King whose birth was announced by the star. And so, we journey to the Lord. Where exactly are we going to find Him? We really don't know. He may be in marriage. He may be in the priesthood or religious life. He may be in the life of the single determined to spread Christianity. He may be in children and Teens. He may be in a career. He may be in our caring for a sick spouse or relative. He may be in the outcast who reach out for us. He is in all these and countless more places. If we are wise, we will spend our lives seeking Him out, wherever He is.

Keep searching. Deacon Al

"We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage."

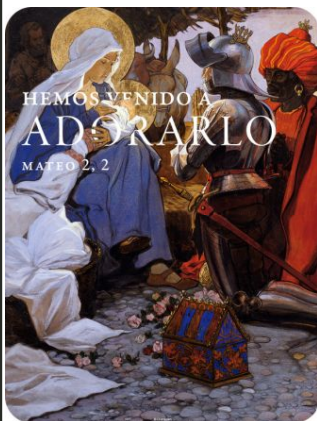

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

¿Quiénes eran esos tres hombres a los que llamamos magos? ¿Eran reyes? La tradición popular se refiere a ellos como los tres reyes, y tal vez lo eran. Cierto, sus regalos eran los que un rey ofrecería a otro. El título "rey" se usaba de manera bastante vaga en el antiguo Oriente. Es posible que se parecieran más a los condes o duques medievales. Los profetas hebreos, particularmente Isaías, habían predicho que los reyes acudirían en masa a Jerusalén para adorar al Señor. Entonces, sería aceptable considerarlos reyes. A veces se les llama magos o astrólogos. ¿Eran astrólogos? Bueno, no astrólogos en el sentido de Madame Toma-tu-dinero, que dice cualquier cosa que crea que mantendrá sólido su flujo de caja. Pero eran astrólogos en el sentido de que estudiaban el cielo buscando la señal de que comenzaría la Edad de Oro. Quizás eran más astrónomos que astrólogos. Los antiguos creían que el nacimiento del Grande iría acompañado de regocijo en los cielos. El pueblo hebreo también creía que la naturaleza respondería al trascendental acontecimiento. Estudios recientes han demostrado que los habitantes del este de Judea habrían visto un fenómeno en el cielo, una estrella en el sentido del término, justo en el momento del nacimiento de Jesús. Sin embargo eso no explica cómo al salir de Jerusalén se llenaron de alegría al encontrar la estrella que los guiaba a Belén y se posaba sobre el lugar donde estaba Jesús. Por cierto, fíjate que los magos entraron a una casa, no a un establo. Quizás cuando llegaron allí algunas personas le dieron a la Sagrada Familia una habitación para quedarse. O quizás José encontró un VRBO. ¿Eran los tres reyes magos?

Ciertamente eran sabios, más sabios que la mayoría de los hombres. Estaban dispuestos a dejar sus tierras, sus comodidades y viajar para encontrar al gran Rey cuyo nacimiento fue anunciado por la estrella. Y así, caminamos hacia el Señor. ¿Dónde exactamente lo vamos a encontrar? Realmente no lo sabemos. Puede que esté casado. Puede estar en el sacerdocio o en la vida religiosa. Puede que en la vida del soltero esté decidido a difundir el cristianismo. Puede ser en niños y adolescentes. Puede que esté en una carrera. Puede que esté en nuestro cuidado de un cónyuge o pariente enfermo. Puede que esté entre los marginados que se acercan a nosotros. Él está en todos estos y en innumerables lugares más. Si somos sabios, pasaremos nuestra vida buscándolo, dondequiera que esté.
