They immediately
followed him.

Today when I think of Jesus as that poor man from Nazareth, especially in his first months of public ministry, who without even performing miracles was capable of captivating so many people. I myself am captivated with how Christ, with just a single invitation to his disciples, drew all these men to leave everything and follow him... what was it about that man from Nazareth that captivated them? Could it be his fresh and revolutionized message of love? Would it be his insurmountable gestures of mercy? Would it be his song of freedom? Could it be his poetic message of love that inspired people to lay down their weapons...? Could it be his relationship with God that was so personal that he invited everyone to relate to God as their own father...? Could it be that his heart burned with one purpose and one direction, to love everyone? Could it be that that sigh of utopia was loaded with reality that beautified souls just by hearing this good news, of a better world, of a family restored with a forgiven heart...

WHO WAS THIS MAN... that so many followed him...?

I think that only a few people have existed with such strong determination, with such a clear purpose, with such a defined mission that they are capable of influencing others with their heroic steps. In a culture where everyone was lost and in darkness, where people did not know what they were doing or why they were doing it, where empty existence reigned, Jesus came with his message. It was impossible to remain indifferent to his life, his message and his love.

But you know something, that man from Nazareth who raised so many feelings and expectations, so many opinions and confrontations with his poetic message of love, has transcended so much that even today he continues to make so many people fall in love with him. Many are still able to leave everything and follow Him, just like two thousand years ago. Today there are still people who testify that their lives have radically changed by having an encounter with him, by accepting his message of love. Today he is still the same as he was two thousand years ago. Today he continues to captivate with the same message that does not go out of style because it is a divine word. Today more than ever, in a society full of darkness of bitterness and emptiness, of vanities and superficialities, today more than ever, we need to meet that gaze of love, listen to that message and respond to the invitation: "Follow me." Today we need people with high purposes and such clear goals, with fire in their hearts that they are capable of influencing others with the best adventure known to man, building the Kingdom of God among us, a message of pure love and forgiveness that continues renewing those who receive it. It is embracing the project of God made man, the best project that has ever existed and the one that will never be surpassed: Following the lamb.

Jr. Everardo Cázares

Hoy cuando pienso en Jesús como aquel pobre de Nazaret, sobre todo en sus primeros meses de ministerio público, que sin siquiera hacer milagros fue capaz de cautivar a tanta gente. Yo mismo estoy cautivado de cómo Cristo, con una sola invitación a sus discípulos, atrajo a todos estos hombres a dejarlo todo y seguirlo... ¿qué tenía aquel hombre de Nazaret que los cautivó? ¿Será su fresco y revolucionado mensaje de amor? ¿Serían sus insuperables gestos de misericordia? ¿Sería su canción de libertad? ¿Será su mensaje poético de amor el que inspiró a la gente a deponer las armas...? ¿Será su relación con Dios que era tan personal que invitaba a todos a relacionarse con Dios como a su propio padre...? ¿Será que su corazón ardía con un propósito y una dirección, amar a todos? ¿Será que ese suspiro de utopía estaba cargado de realidad que embellecía las almas con solo escuchar esta buena noticia, de un mundo mejor, de una familia restaurada con un corazón perdonado...

¿QUIÉN ERA ESTE HOMBRE... que tantos lo seguían...?

Creo que sólo unas pocas personas han existido con una determinación tan fuerte, con un propósito tan claro, con una misión tan definida que son capaces de influir en otros con sus pasos heroicos. En una cultura donde todos estaban perdidos y en oscuridad, donde la gente no sabía lo que hacía ni por qué lo hacía, donde reinaba el vacío existencial, Jesús vino con su mensaje. Era imposible permanecer indiferente ante su vida, su mensaje y su amor.

Pero sabes una cosa, ese hombre de Nazaret que tantos sentimientos y expectativas, tantas opiniones y enfrentamientos levantó con su poético mensaje de amor, ha trascendido tanto que aún hoy sigue enamorando a tanta gente de él. Muchos todavía son capaces de dejarlo todo y seguirlo, como hace dos mil años. Hoy todavía hay personas que dan testimonio de que sus vidas han cambiado radicalmente al tener un encuentro con él, al aceptar su mensaje de amor. Hoy sigue siendo el mismo que hace dos mil años. Hoy sigue cautivando con el mismo mensaje que no pasa de moda porque es una palabra divina. Hoy más que nunca, en una sociedad llena de oscuridades, de amarguras y vacíos, de vanidades y superficialidades, hoy más que nunca necesitamos encontrarnos con esa mirada de amor, escuchar ese mensaje y responder a la invitación: "Sígueme". Hoy necesitamos personas con propósitos elevados y metas tan claras, con fuego en el corazón que sean capaces de influir en los demás con la mejor aventura conocida por el hombre, construir el Reino de Dios entre nosotros, un mensaje de amor puro y perdón que se siga renovando a quienes lo reciben. Es abrazar el proyecto de Dios hecho hombre, el mejor proyecto que jamás ha existido y el que jamás será superado: Seguir al Cordero.

Jr. Everardo Cázares

Quality is in the details, and it is the small details that make the biggest difference.

Countless people have expressed to me, their appreciation of the beauty of our Parish.

Many appreciate the spirituality and solemnity with which we celebrate our faith. This is a very clear sign of our faith and commitment.

Quality is in the details, and it is the small details that make the biggest difference.

We have been busy maintaining the entire campus, but I want at this time to mention just a few of the projects we have worked on, just in our temple. When I arrived, the first thing I noticed was the urgent need to change the Altar Linens. I greatly appreciate the support of PCCW in making that possible.

One by one all the liturgical books were changed.

We also replaced the cables in the sound system several times due to the rats chewing on them.

Finally, we were able to protect them by installing conduit. This was a large investment but well worth the effort.

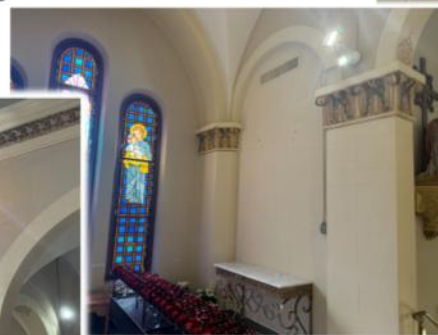

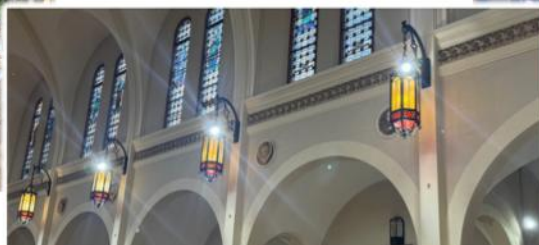

Our Tabernacle, a piece of art which is an important part of our history, was refurbished and repaired and remains a living statement of who we are as a Catholic community.

The base of the Paschal Easter candle was also polished and resumes its proper dignity.

The liturgical season drapes behind the Altar, and decorations that beautify our church were also added, along with lights to the presbytery to enhance our live streaming.

Three years ago, the steps at the entrance of the church were changed due to the badly damaged tiles from the ice storm. I am so grateful to those who donated to this job, especially Kenjura Tile and their dedicated workers.

Other changes were undertaken, such as the windows in the confessionals, the maintenance of the sound equipment and the bell tower, repairing the plaster on one of the walls, new camera and equipment for our growing live streaming, along with countless other projects that have been completed over the years.

There are many needs remaining, but since my arrival, in my mind and in my heart, I have recognized the need to replace the vestments used to celebrate the Holy Mass and all the other sacraments we celebrate. These vestments are a testament of our love and devotion to our Lord and Savior.

The vestments that I use at mass are my own, they are my personal property. You may remember, Fr. Joven and Father Enrique used their own vestments too. On some occasions I have seen priests who celebrate Mass here a second time, often bring their own vestments. When was the last time we bought vestments for our celebrations? No one knows for sure.

I believe it is time for our parish to have its own vestments, worthy of the celebration of the faith we profess.

Here is a photo of the stole that was used for years in the confessional. At a recent penitential service, the priest who was in the confessional made a comment to me with great charity, and with great reason. "Can this community not have more worthy vestments?"

I know that we have many expenses, but our liturgical celebration has to be a priority.

Below, I present an example of the vestments that I have chosen for our Parish. They are simple yet dignified. They are what we need, and I invite you to put this intention in your heart, and help me to pray and ask God for benefactors, so that we can cover these expenses quickly. We have reached the point where it is not a luxury, but a necessity. If anyone would like to present an offering towards this intention, it would be greatly appreciated

10 Chasubles

With this we cover all the liturgical colors that are used during the year.

DEACON'S CORNER

Here we are in the third week of January 2024. Following the New Year resolutions that we made on January 1st. The things that we promised ourselves to change in in our life to make our lives easier and better. Real big promises to ourselves. I usually start the New Year promising to lay low on eating chocolate but that promise is usually broken on January 2nd as Sandy starts making her delicious cookies for our family party. Sandy's "peanut butter blossoms" just defies me to stay away from them – to no avail. Two years ago, both Sandy and I made a resolution for ourselves by signing up to the "Bible in a Year" study course with Father Mike Schmidt. This was a yearlong commitment that took up 15 to 20 minutes a day. Last year I signed up to the "Catechism in a Year" with Fr. Mike. Another 15 minutes a day commitment. Well, I figured if I was able to stick to a yearly plan, I would take on another new program for this year. I have made a resolution/commitment and have started learning a new language. I am now in my third week of "Rosetta Stone" in a year with a goal of being able to have a conversation in the Spanish language. This is going to be a hearty commitment and a challenge for my 80 plus years brain. Last July, 2023, I wrote a four-week Deacon Corner on "Preparing to arrive home" and received many positive responses from the article. This is what I heard: "Wonderful I need to visit with you." Great, I need to do this." "Sounds like a plan." Also "I will get in touch with you." Well, here we are in the third week of January 2024 and I have received the resounding response of three people taking us up on our offer to ease the burdens on your family when you die and arrive home to be with God. Make a resolution to follow up on your responses.

Your parish, St. Mary Immaculate Conception, is here for you to help you pre-plan your journey home by providing, not only help at the office, but also by using our website at <https://brenhamcatholic.org/>. On the front page of the website is a tab that says "Funeral" and this tab leads you to a page that will help you to choose your scripture readings and hymns. We have also provided a form for you to fill in with your information to be saved by you and to send to us for safe keeping. After we receive your information, we will call you to gather other pertinent information. And of course, we can also meet with you in person to help you to prepare your wishes.

This is Deacon Al calling – please do not send me to voice mail.

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

Aquí estamos en la tercera semana de enero de 2024. Siguiendo los propósitos de Año Nuevo que hicimos el 1 de enero. Las cosas que nos prometimos cambiar en nuestra vida para hacerla más fácil y mejor. Grandes promesas reales para nosotros mismos. Normalmente comienzo el Año Nuevo prometiendo no comer chocolate, pero esa promesa generalmente se rompe el 2 de enero cuando Sandy comienza a preparar sus deliciosas galletas para nuestra fiesta familiar. Las "flores de mantequilla de maní" de Sandy simplemente me desafían a mantenerme alejado de ellas, sin éxito. Hace dos años, tanto Sandy como yo tomamos la resolución de inscribirnos en el curso de estudio "La Biblia en un año" con el padre Mike Schmidt. Este fue un compromiso de un año que tomó de 15 a 20 minutos por día. El año pasado me inscribí en el "Catecismo en un año" con el Padres Mike. Otros 15 minutos de compromiso al día. Bueno, pensé que si podía ceñirme a un plan anual, emprendería otro programa nuevo para este año. He tomado una resolución/compromiso y he comenzado a aprender un nuevo idioma. Ahora estoy en mi tercera semana de "Rosetta Stone" en un año con el objetivo de poder tener una conversación en español. Este será un compromiso sincero y un desafío para mi cerebro de más de 80 años. En julio de 2023, escribí un Rincón del Diácono de cuatro semanas sobre "Prepararse para llegar a casa" y recibí muchas respuestas positivas del artículo. Esto es lo que escuché: "Maravilloso, necesito visitarte". Genial, necesito hacer esto". "Suena como un plan." También "me pondré en contacto contigo". Bueno, aquí estamos en la tercera semana de enero de 2024 y he recibido la respuesta rotunda de tres personas que aceptaron nuestra oferta de aliviar las cargas de tu familia cuando mueras y llegues a casa para estar con Dios. Tome una resolución para dar seguimiento a sus respuestas.

Su parroquia, Santa María Inmaculada Concepción, está aquí para ayudarlo a planificar previamente su viaje a casa brindándole no solo ayuda en la oficina, sino también utilizando nuestro sitio web en <https://brenhamcatholic.org/>. En la página principal del sitio web hay una pestaña que dice "Funeral" y esta pestaña lo lleva a una página que lo ayudará a elegir sus lecturas de las Escrituras e himnos. También le proporcionamos un formulario para que lo complete con su información para que la guarde y nos la envíe para su custodia. Después de recibir su información, lo llamaremos para recopilar otra información pertinente. Y por supuesto, también podemos reunirnos con usted en persona para ayudarlo a preparar sus deseos.
