It is not enough if it is not imbued with love

Not every confession of faith is good or sufficient, to put it simply. We can see, for example, in the case of the demons, that Jesus not only did not accept the profession of faith they made to him, but he even silenced them. It is not the statement that is said or recited by heart that makes a confession of faith good, but through something else that cannot be missing, love.

Allow me to tell you with all due respect an anecdote that at first offended me a lot, but over time I have discovered a lot of truth in it and it has given me a lot to think about...

It was a group of friends who went on vacation and in the middle of the adventure they decided to jump out of an airplane with a parachute. Everything was going well, but when the last one jumped, a very strong gust of wind unexpectedly occurred at the moment when he opened his parachute, which lifted him up and quickly took him to another distant place with many trees. Fortunately, he was not hurt, but he was left hanging from one of the very tall trees. Seeing himself exhausted and unable to get down, he decided to wait for the rescuers, since the parachute was equipped with a tracking system.

When he sees a peasant passing by, to whom he shouts to get his attention, the peasant approaches and greets him politely. The man who was still hanging asks him where he is. To which the farmer responds very kindly that he is hanging from a tree. That young man in that somewhat uncomfortable situation responded to the farmer very kindly: "Oh, I see, you must be a good Christian, right?" The farmer with a smile and a shine in his eyes answers: "yes, of course! how did you know?" That young man still hanging from the parachute responds: "because what you have told me is absolutely an irrefutable truth, but it is useless to me."

Telling the truth is not enough if it is not imbued with love. Today many claim to have the Truth, as if it were an object of possession. I prefer to believe that the Truth is a person with a proper name. Jesus is the truth. And rather than trying to possess him, we should let the truth of him possess us. And that is achieved when we live in love.

Fr. Everardo Cázares

No es suficiente si no está revestida de amor

No toda confesión de fe es buena o suficiente, por decirlo de una manera simple. Podemos ver por ejemplo en el caso de los demonios, que Jesús no solo no aceptó la profesión de fe que le hacían, sino que incluso los callaba. No es solo el enunciado que se dice o se recita de memoria, sino algo más que no puede faltar, el amor.

Permíteme contarte con todo respeto una anécdota que en un principio me ofendió mucho, pero con el tiempo he ido descubriendo en ella mucha verdad y mucho que pensar...

Era un grupo de amigos que se fueron de vacaciones y en medio de la aventura decidieron saltar con paracaídas. Todo iba bien, pero cuando saltó el último inesperadamente sobrevino una ráfaga de viento muy fuerte en el momento en que el había abierto el paracaídas, lo que lo elevó de nuevo y lo llevó rápidamente a otro lugar distante y con muchos árboles. El afortunadamente no se lastimó, pero quedó colgando de uno de los árboles muy altos. Al verse rendido e imposibilitado de poder bajar, decidió esperar a los rescatistas, pues el paracaídas estaba equipado con un sistema de rastreo.

Cuando en eso ve que va pasando un campesino, a quien le grita para llamar su atención el campesino se acerca y lo saluda cortésmente. El hombre que estaba aún colgado, le pregunta que en qué lugar se encuentra. A lo que el campesino le responde con mucha amabilidad que él está colgando de un árbol. Aquel joven en esa situación un poco incomoda le responde al campesino con mucha amabilidad: "oh, ya veo, ¿ha de ser usted un buen cristiano verdad?" El campesino con una sonrisa y brillo en los ojos le responde: "¡si, claro! ¿cómo lo supo?" aquel joven aun colgado del paracaídas le responde: porque lo que me has dicho es absolutamente una verdad irrefutable, pero no me sirve de nada.

Decir la verdad, no es suficiente si no está revestida de amor. Hoy muchos que aseguran tener la Verdad, como si esta fuera un objeto de posesión. Yo prefiero creer que la Verdad es una persona de nombre propio, Jesús es la Verdad. Y más que tratar de poseerlo deberíamos de dejar que su verdad nos posea a nosotros. Y eso se logra cuando vivimos en el amor.

DEACON'S CORNER

Parents have authority due to their position in the family. God tells children to honor their mothers and fathers. That's the Fourth Commandment. But the authority of parents is diminished or even destroyed when the parents act in ways that are not Christian. For example, all parents want their children to be kind to each other. But if their children observe Mom and Dad being nasty to each other, the children are going to learn nastiness, not kindness, as standard way of acting. When these same parents say to their children that they should be kind to each other, the children respond with their actions as though their parents no longer have authority to tell them how to behave. That's negative. Let's look at the positive. Many of our seniors have spent years taking care of their sick spouses. Retirement was not what they expected. Instead of going and doing, their days were spent caring and cleaning, and organizing doctor appointments. But when someone makes a comment that he or she is such a good spouse, the caring spouse merely says, "I took vows." And in those few words supported with a lifetime of action, that husband or wife speaks more eloquently about marriage than any priest or preacher could possibly speak. For his or her words have authority, the authority of the One who called him to the sacrament of marriage and the authority of the spouse who lives the sacrament of marriage. Jesus spoke with authority. He was not like the scribes and pharisees. He was not two faced. He was not hypocritical. He didn't have a dark side of his life that he kept hidden. He didn't just speak the truth, He was the Truth Incarnate. Jesus gave orders to unclean spirits, and they obeyed him. It wasn't the words that kicked the devil out, it was the person who spoke those words. He didn't call us just to do some of the things He did, He called us to be His presence for others. We are called to destroy evil in our world. We cannot do this unless we are determined to be Christlike. He calls us to speak for Him. He gives us authority. For us to exercise this authority both our words to be true and we must live as committed Christians.

Deacon Al

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

Los padres tienen autoridad debido a su posición en la familia. Dios les dice a los niños que honren a sus madres y padres. Ese es el Cuarto Mandamiento. Pero la autoridad de los padres disminuye o incluso se destruye cuando los padres actúan de maneras que no son cristianas. Por ejemplo, todos los padres quieren que sus hijos sean amables entre sí. Pero si sus hijos observan que mamá y papá son desagradables entre sí, aprenderán a ser desagradables, a no ser amables, como forma estándar de actuar. Cuando estos mismos padres les dicen a sus hijos que deben ser amables unos con otros, los niños responden con sus acciones como si sus padres ya no tuvieran autoridad para decirles cómo comportarse. Eso es negativo. Veamos lo positivo. Muchas de nuestras personas mayores han pasado años cuidando a sus cónyuges enfermos. La jubilación no fue lo que esperaban. En lugar de ir y hacer, pasaban el día cuidando, limpiando y organizando citas médicas. Pero cuando alguien hace un comentario de que es un buen cónyuge, el cónyuge cariñoso simplemente dice: "Hice votos". Y en esas pocas palabras respaldadas por toda una vida de acción, ese esposo o esposa habla más elocuentemente sobre el matrimonio de lo que cualquier sacerdote o predicador podría hablar. Porque sus palabras tienen autoridad, la autoridad de Aquel que lo llamó al sacramento del matrimonio y la autoridad del cónyuge que vive el sacramento del matrimonio. Jesús habló con autoridad. No era como los escribas y fariseos. No tenía dos caras. No fue hipócrita. No tenía un lado oscuro de su vida que mantuviera oculto. Él no sólo dijo la verdad, Él era la Verdad Encarnada. Jesús dio órdenes a los espíritus inmundos y ellos le obedecieron. No fueron las palabras las que expulsaron al diablo, fue la persona que pronunció esas palabras. Él no nos llamó sólo para hacer algunas de las cosas que Él hizo, sino que nos llamó a ser Su presencia para los demás. Estamos llamados a destruir el mal en nuestro mundo. No podemos hacer esto a menos que estemos decididos a ser semejantes a Cristo. Él nos llama a hablar por Él. Él nos da autoridad. Para que podamos ejercer esta autoridad tanto nuestras palabras deben ser verdaderas como debemos vivir como cristianos comprometidos.
