For Moses the solution is to isolate the sick person, for Jesus the solution is to manifest love.

It is nice to know that where Jesus is: there is life, there is health, there is love... In the gospels we are told incredible situations, unexpected miracles, stories of deep and true love. We can read how Jesus intentionally approaches the sick to heal them and how the sick also approach Jesus to be healed. Much of Jesus' ministry was healing the sick, that is possible when love is present. It is rightly said that love conquers all things.

Although there are many miracles narrated in the gospel, it is obvious to us that these are few in comparison to the needs for all humanity. There are many more in need of a miracle, and for that reason, we must return to the Gospel to fully understand the secret of Jesus. So obvious yet so easily unnoticed by us; love. Jesus' love from within, was stronger than any fear or any prejudice.

In a time where the health norm was "if you can't cure it, at least prevent it from harming others, so as not to spread the disease". The idea was clear, isolate, separate, let them die alone. Jesus knows that love is stronger. And I'm not talking about an emotional love, but about a love of conviction. A love capable of putting itself at risk to accept the rejected, to touch the marginalized, to even touch the leprosy. Someone once told me: "If we don't see miracles today, it is because we are unaware of the love of God or because we have not learned to love as Jesus taught us."

The recommendation of many doctors is that when your defenses or antibodies are low, do not expose yourself to crowds as they can infect you with a virus. That is true, but could there be an antibody that spreads health? Jesus had it, love.

If we have been taught to love, if we have learned to love, we must teach others to love. With love, people should not feel isolated with no connection to others in society. Love does not hurt others and does not exist in prisons. Of we had more loving people today, more heroes, more role models with a warm smile and a helping hand, we would have less to fear.

Fr. Everardo Cázares

Para Moisés la solución es aislar al enfermo, para
Jesús la solución es manifestar el amor.

Es bonito saber que donde esta Jesús hay vida, hay salud, hay amor... En los evangelios se nos narran situaciones increíbles, milagros inesperados, historias de amor profundo y verdadero. Podemos leer cómo Jesús se acerca intencionalmente a los enfermos para sanarlos y cómo también los enfermos se acercan a Jesús para ser sanados. Gran parte del ministerio de Jesús fue sanar a los enfermos, eso es posible cuando el amor está presente. Con mucha razón se dice que el amor todo lo puede.

A pesar de que los milagros que narran las páginas de los evangelios son muchos, nos queda claro que también son muy pocos comparados con las necesidades de toda la humanidad. Son más, mucho más los que aún siguen necesitando de un milagro. Y precisamente por eso, es que tendríamos que volver a las páginas del Evangelio y entender cuál era el secreto de Jesús, que siendo este tan evidente nos puede pasar desapercibido. El amor que había en él era más fuerte que el temor o los prejuicios.

En una época donde la norma sanitaria era "si no puedes curarlo, por lo menos evita que dañe a otros, que no se contagie la enfermedad" la idea era clara, aislar, separar, dejarlos morir solos. Jesús sabe que el amor es mas fuerte. Y no hablo de un amor emocional, sino de un amor de convicción, capaz de ponerse en riesgo para aceptar al rechazado, para tocar al marginado, para incluso tocar la lepra... una vez alguien me dijo: "Si no vemos milagros el día de hoy, es porque poco nos exponemos al amor de Dios o porque poco amamos como Jesús nos enseñó".

La recomendación de muchos doctores es que cuando tus defensas o anticuerpos estén bajos, no te expongas a las multitudes pues estás te pueden contagiar de algún virus. Eso es cierto, ¿pero podrá existir algún anticuerpo que contagie la salud? Jesús lo tenía, el amor.

Si se nos hubiera enseñado a amar, si aprendiéramos a amar, si enseñáramos a amar, hoy no tuviéramos a personas aisladas para que nos hagan daño, como en las prisiones, y si tuviéramos hoy más gente feliz, tuviéramos más héroes de una sonrisa cálida y una mano dispuesta a ayudar. A ejemplo de Jesús no le tengamos miedo a la lepra, tengamos más bien miedo a no vivir en el amor como Él nos ha enseñado.

Deacon's Corner

We pray for rain

Our parish had the opportunity to see and hear from a transitional deacon this past year. How many of you were happy to see a young man preparing to enter the priesthood here in our church? Do you know we were the only parish in the diocese so blessed? That's because Deacon Mathew will be the only priest in his class. Last year was the first year in the history of our diocese where we didn't have any new priests ordained. You may be thinking, yes, Deacon Steve, there is a great shortage of priests; but what can I do about it? Well, you can pray.

We have a Holy Hour of adoration before the Blessed Sacrament on the first Thursday of every month where we pray for vocations; especially vocations to the priesthood. It amazes me how few people come and pray to our Savior that he would raise up for us more priests.

When I moved to Brenham in 2011, most of Texas was in the middle of a great drought. If we had scheduled a Holy Hour for rain when we were in that drought, I imagine the church would have been filled with people praying for rain. The drought we have in priestly vocations today is far worse.

Would it not be wonderful if every parish in the diocese had a young man preparing for the priesthood, for people to see and hear? If we had so many priests in our diocese, that we were sending them out to other places where they were needed. With our prayers, that can happen. Please pray for priests.

Blessings and peace, Deacon Steve

Rezamos por la lluvia

Nuestra parroquia ha tenido la oportunidad de ver y escuchar a un diácono transitorio el año pasado. ¿A cuántos de ustedes le alegró ver a un joven preparándose para ingresar al sacerdocio aquí en nuestra iglesia? ¿Sabías que somos la única parroquia de la diócesis tan bendecida? Esto se debe a que el diácono Mathew será el único sacerdote de su clase. El año pasado fue el primer año en la historia de nuestra diócesis en el que no hubo ningún nuevo sacerdote ordenado. Quizás esté pensando, sí, diácono Steve, hay una gran escasez de sacerdotes; pero ¿qué puedo hacer al respecto? Bien, puedes orar.

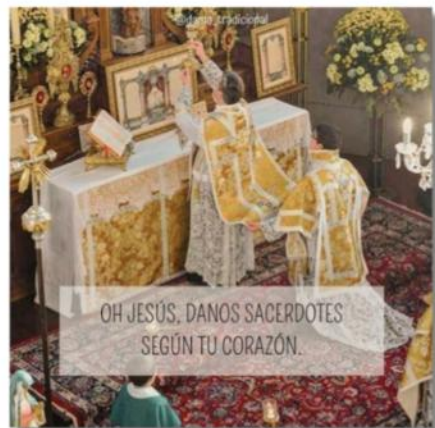

Tenemos una Hora Santa de adoración ante el Santísimo Sacramento el primer jueves de cada mes donde oramos por las vocaciones; especialmente las vocaciones al sacerdocio. Me sorprende la poca gente que viene y reza a nuestro Salvador que nos mande más sacerdotes.

Cuando me mudé a Brenham en 2011, la mayor parte de Texas estaba en medio de una gran sequía. Si hubiésemos programado una Hora Santa por la lluvia cuando estábamos en esa sequía, me imagino que la iglesia se hubiera llenado de gente orando por la lluvia. La sequía que tenemos hoy por las vocaciones sacerdotales es mucho peor.

¿No sería maravilloso si cada parroquia de la diócesis tuviera un joven preparándose para el sacerdocio, para que la gente puede verlos y escucharlos? Si tuviéramos tantos sacerdotes en nuestra diócesis, que los enviáramos a otras lugares donde son necesarios. Con nuestras oraciones, eso puede suceder. Por favor oren por los sacerdotes..

Bendiciones y paz, Diácono Steve.
