16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd;
and he began to teach them many things.

Mt 9:36

Cuando Jesús desembarcó, vio una numerosa multitud que lo estaba esperando y se compadeció de ellos, porque andaban como ovejas sin pastor, y se puso a enseñarles muchas cosas.

Mt 9, 36

16° DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

The Need for Rest

Allow me to share a story that vividly illustrates the point I want to make:

Once upon a time, two lumberjacks were assigned to the same worksite: Juan, who was much younger and stronger, and Pedro, who was older. As expected, Juan underestimated Pedro, thinking he wouldn't be able to keep up with his own production pace. However, at the end of the first day, they both had the same output, much to Juan's surprise.

On the second day, driven by envy, Juan decided to put in more effort to outdo Pedro. Yet again, by the end of the day, Pedro had cut down more trees than Juan. On the third day, determined not to be outdone, Juan closely watched Pedro and started chopping trees without taking any breaks, hoping to surpass him. In contrast, Pedro took his regular breaks. At the end of the day, Pedro had outperformed Juan once more. Frustrated, Juan confronted Pedro, asking how it was possible for him to cut more trees despite taking breaks.

Pedro, with a compassionate look and a slight smile, replied: "Juan, I take breaks because my body needs rest, but not only that. During those breaks, I also sharpen my axe, which allows me to work as efficiently as when I started. You, on the other hand, not only exhaust yourself physically by not resting but also dull your axe, making your work harder and slower. Learn to take breaks."

When I read in the gospel about Jesus caring for his disciples' need for rest, it makes me reflect on the importance of not only physical rest but also emotional and spiritual rejuvenation. By sharpening our "axe" and revitalizing ourselves, we can focus better on our life's true purpose, making our work easier and more enjoyable.

Jr. Everardo Cázares

La necesidad del descanso

Permíteme contarte esta historia que ilustra muy bien el punto que quisiera explicar:

En una ocasión, había dos leñadores que fueron asignados al mismo lugar de trabajo: Juan, que era mucho más joven y fuerte, y Pedro, ya avanzado en años. Como era de esperarse, Juan subestimó a su compañero de trabajo, pensando que este no iba a alcanzar el ritmo de producción que él mismo, joven y fuerte, podía lograr. Sin embargo, al finalizar el primer día de trabajo, ambos alcanzaron la misma producción, lo cual sorprendió mucho a Juan.

El segundo día, Juan, movido por un poco de envidia, decidió poner más empeño en su trabajo para poder talar más árboles que Pedro. Pero, al final del día, Pedro había talado más árboles que Juan. Al tercer día, Juan tomó la determinación de no dejarse ganar, así que, observando muy bien a Pedro, empezó a talar árboles sin detenerse, ni siquiera tomó tiempo de descanso para poder talar más árboles que Pedro y llevarle ventaja. Por el contrario, Pedro sí tomaba sus horas de descanso. Al finalizar el día, Pedro había talado muchos más árboles que Juan. Juan, movido por un sentimiento de profunda indignación, se acercó a Pedro y lo confrontó, dejando entrever su frustración. Juan le preguntó a Pedro cómo era posible que él, que no tenía la misma fuerza y tomaba horas de descanso, hubiera talado más árboles que él, que no descansaba y trabajaba sin detenerse.

Pedro, con una mirada de compasión y una ligera sonrisa en sus labios, le contestó: "Juan, ciertamente tomo horas de descanso porque mi cuerpo lo necesita, pero no solamente mi cuerpo. En esas horas de descanso también afilo el hacha, lo que hace posible que cuando regrese a trabajar tanto mi cuerpo como mi hacha tengan la misma fuerza que al principio. Tú, por el contrario, al decidir no tomar tiempos de descanso, no solo te agotas físicamente, sino que tu hacha pierde el filo, lo que hace más difícil y lento el proceso de trabajo. Aprende a tomar descanso."

Cuando en el evangelio veo que Jesús se preocupa por darles descanso a sus discípulos, me hace reflexionar sobre la importancia, no solo de descansar físicamente, sino también de afilar el hacha, logrando tener un descanso emocional y espiritual, revitalizándonos y enfocándonos en el verdadero proyecto de nuestra vida. Así, se nos hará más fácil el trabajo y lo disfrutaremos mejor.

New Organ for St. Mary's

For decades, the sanctuary of St. Mary's has been blessed with the heavenly music of our Kilgen pipe organ. Over the years, time has taken its toll on the organ. Keys are sticking and have begun to lose their covers, two foot pedals have become disconnected and no longer function, and the organ itself is a half step flat resulting in music not becoming of our great worship space.

Many years ago, we researched the possibility of buying a refurbished organ or building a new one. With an aging AV unit on our church building and several major roofing projects needed on our campus, the project was put on hold. With the Kilgen organ becoming not able to function, we have researched organ manufacturers for an organ to accommodate our space. We have located a new organ in Virginia. We have some funds in our Organ savings account to purchase the unit and we want to do it. This will enable us to maintain the Catholic tradition of organ music. Although we have the funds for the instrument they are not enough, we are asking for donations to complete the cost, for shipping, installation and modifications needed in the choir loft. Please send any donations to the office and if you have any questions please call Michael Derkowski.

Several of you have asked me about the organ, well this is an opportunity that we have to obtain an organ according to the beauty of our church. Help us make it possible.

Prayers for our Nation

With the news of today's shooting at a presidential rally, we pray for the deceased, those injured and for former President Donald Trump's recovery. I remain steadfast with the Bishops of the United States in condemning all forms of violence, which has no place in politics and serves only to undermine our cherished democracy. May Christ, the Prince of Peace, hold us together as one nation united against hatred and violence in exercising our faithful citizenship for the common good. ~Bishop Joe S. Vásquez

DEACON'S CORNER

When we think of leaders, we naturally tend to think about those in the highest echelons of authority: the Holy Father, the leaders of the Church, the president, the leaders of governments throughout the world. But leadership does not stop here. Through the sacrament of marriage, husbands and wives assume the responsibility of leading their spouses and their children to God. Through the sacrament of Holy Orders, deacons, priests and bishops assume the responsibility of leading in word and sacrament. By the grace of the sacrament of confirmation we are all given the responsibility of being leaders in the Church. We often ask you to pray for your priests. All priests have individual gifts which they must develop in order to serve Christ. The prayers and support of the people are effective in helping the priest develop these gifts. As in all leadership, the priest must reflect Christ in being strong yet compassionate. A priest must stick to the truth even when it is unpopular and inconvenient; yet, he must care for the needs of the people. When in doubt, the priest must simply ask the question, "What would Jesus do in this situation?" The prayers of the people help the priest to ask this question and to find the proper answers to it. The leadership we all share in as confirmed Catholics is directly related to the leadership entrusted to the Apostles on Pentecost Sunday. When the Apostles received the Holy Spirit, the Spirit spoke through them and they proclaimed Jesus Christ. This is an area where we all need help. We are all tempted to compromise with a society that has rejected Christ. Or, at least, we are tempted to keep quiet when others are attacking the faith. We need to pray for each other that we be compassionate while never deserting the Truth that is Christ. So, today we pray for all leaders: in the Church, in the world, in our families, among our ordained clergy, and among all the confirmed. We pray that we and all leaders may combine the Christ-like characteristics of being strong and compassionate. We have to be people of integrity. We have to have the courage to demand the truth in our own lives as well as in the lives of all we love. People need leaders to show them the love and the compassion of Christ. They need leaders who have a firm hold on integrity. They need us to be those leaders. We can do this. We must do this. The prophet Jeremiah said, "A day is coming when people will say, 'The Lord is our justice, our integrity.'" That day is upon us. Jesus is with us. Jesus is yearning to be reflected in our lives. He is calling us to be the people we can be.

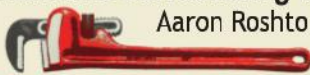

Deacon Al

RINCON DEL DIACONO

Cuando pensamos en líderes, naturalmente tendemos a pensar en aquellos que se encuentran en los niveles más altos de autoridad: el Santo Padre, los líderes de la Iglesia, el presidente, los líderes de los gobiernos de todo el mundo. Pero el liderazgo no se detiene aquí. A través del sacramento del matrimonio, los esposos y las esposas asumen la responsabilidad de conducir a sus cónyuges y a sus hijos hacia Dios. A través del sacramento del Orden Sagrado, los diáconos, presbíteros y obispos asumen la responsabilidad de liderar en la palabra y el sacramento. Por la gracia del sacramento de la confirmación, a todos se nos da la responsabilidad de ser líderes en la Iglesia. A menudo les pedimos que recen por nuestros sacerdotes. Todos los sacerdotes tienen dones individuales que deben desarrollar para servir a Cristo. Las oraciones y el apoyo de la gente son eficaces para ayudar al sacerdote a desarrollar estos dones. Como en todo liderazgo, el sacerdote debe reflejar a Cristo siendo fuerte pero compasivo. Un sacerdote debe apegarse a la verdad incluso cuando sea impopular e inconveniente; sin embargo, debe preocuparse por las necesidades de la gente. En caso de duda, el sacerdote simplemente debe hacer la pregunta: "¿Qué haría Jesús en esta situación?" Las oraciones del pueblo ayudan al sacerdote a plantearse esta pregunta y a encontrar las respuestas adecuadas. El liderazgo que todos compartimos como católicos confirmados está directamente relacionado con el liderazgo confiado a los Apóstoles el domingo de Pentecostés. Cuando los Apóstoles recibieron el Espíritu Santo, el Espíritu habló a través de ellos y proclamaron a Jesucristo. Esta es un área donde todos necesitamos ayuda. Todos estamos tentados a transigir con una sociedad que ha rechazado a Cristo. O, al menos, nos sentimos tentados a guardar silencio cuando otros atacan la fe. Necesitamos orar unos por otros para que seamos compasivos sin abandonar nunca la Verdad que es Cristo. Por eso, hoy oramos por todos los líderes: en la Iglesia, en el mundo, en nuestras familias, entre nuestro clero ordenado y entre todos los confirmados. Oramos para que nosotros y todos los líderes podamos combinar las características cristianas de ser fuertes y compasivos. Tenemos que ser personas íntegras. Tenemos que tener el coraje de exigir la verdad en nuestras propias vidas y en las vidas de todos los que amamos. La gente necesita líderes que les muestren el amor y la compasión de Cristo. Necesitan líderes que tengan un firme control de la integridad. Necesitan que seamos esos líderes. Podemos hacer esto. Debemos hacer esto. El profeta Jeremías dijo: "Viene el día en que la gente dirá: 'El Señor es nuestra justicia y nuestra integridad'". Ese día está sobre nosotros. Jesús está con nosotros. Jesús anhela verse reflejado en nuestras vidas. Él nos está llamando a ser las personas que podemos ser.
