The Solemnity of Christ the King

The Solemnity of Christ the King

Today, the Church celebrates a great solemnity: the feast of Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. This celebration emphasizes that Christ is sovereign over all creation. It does not imply, as some might wonder, the existence of kingdoms on other planets; rather, it means that Christ reigns over absolutely everything created. To understand this feast, we must remember that Jesus was recognized as "Kyrios" or Lord, a title underscoring His divine authority, which the early Christians attributed to Him as the Lord of their lives.

The Kingdom of God on Earth

Jesus is the King, and anyone who accepts Him as Lord and Savior enters the Kingdom of God, experiencing salvation and the reign of Christ in their life. This kingdom does not refer to a political structure but a spiritual state. Those who receive Jesus as their King undergo an inner transformation that allows them to reign with Him, accessing the peace and love He offers. Thus, the Kingdom of God is present wherever Jesus is accepted and adored.

Distinction Between the Heavenly King and Earthly Ruler

The gospel presents a contrast between Pilate, a governor with earthly power, and Jesus, the eternal King. Pilate represents the authority of this world, with thrones and power that impose and demand obedience. In contrast, Jesus, abandoned and mistreated, appears without arms or riches, but His reign is superior and eternal. His kingdom is not of this world; it is a kingdom of love and truth that surpasses the material and temporary values that Pilate symbolizes.

The Heart of the True King

The true reign of Jesus is manifest in His heart: free, fearless, and full of peace. Unlike Pilate, who fears the opinions of others and is a prisoner of the corrupt politics of his time, Jesus acts with divine freedom and authority. His self-control and inner peace distinguish Him as a true king, while Pilate, entangled by his fears and passions, reveals the fragility of earthly power.

Jesus, the King Who Gives All

Jesus demonstrates His kingship not by taking, but by giving. He has given us His word, His testimony, and even His life abundantly. In contrast, Pilate represents power that demands, imposes, and takes. Jesus offers love and peace to all, while earthly power often seeks to accumulate and oppress. The true king is one who gives without expectation, and in this generosity, the authentic kingship of Christ is revealed.

Reigning in Love and Peace

Acknowledging Jesus Christ as our King means living according to His commandments and values, which fill our hearts with peace and freedom. His kingdom does not lie in golden crowns or material thrones, but in justice, love, and peace. By confessing Christ as our King and living according to His word, we experience His kingdom here and now, preparing us for eternity. This is the true meaning of His universal reign: Christ as the sovereign of our lives and the source of spiritual fulfillment.

Jr. Everardo Cázares

¡Viva Cristo Rey!

La Solemnidad de Cristo Rey

Hoy celebramos una gran solemnidad en la Iglesia: la fiesta de Jesucristo, Rey del Universo. Esta celebración subraya que Cristo es soberano sobre toda la creación. No implica, como algunos podrían pensar, la existencia de reinos en otros planetas, sino que significa que Cristo reina sobre absolutamente todo lo creado. Para comprender esta fiesta, debemos recordar que Jesús fue reconocido como "Kyrios" o Señor, título que resalta su autoridad divina y que los primeros cristianos le atribuían como el Señor de sus vidas.

El Reino de Dios en la Tierra

Jesús es el Rey, y todo aquel que lo acepta como Señor y Salvador entra en el Reino de Dios, experimentando la salvación y el reinado de Cristo en su vida. Este reino no se refiere a una estructura política, sino a un estado espiritual. Aquellos que reciben a Jesús como su rey viven una transformación interior que les permite reinar con Él, accediendo a la paz y al amor que Él ofrece. Así, el Reino de Dios está presente donde Jesús es aceptado y adorado.

Diferencia entre el Rey Celestial y el Rey Terrenal

El evangelio presenta un contraste entre Pilato, un gobernador con poder terrenal, y Jesús, el Rey eterno. Pilato representa la autoridad de este mundo, con tronos y poder que imponen y exigen obediencia. En cambio, Jesús, abandonado y maltratado, se presenta sin armas ni riquezas, pero su reinado es superior y eterno. Su reino no es de este mundo; es un reino de amor y verdad que supera los valores materiales y temporales que simboliza Pilato.

El Corazón del Verdadero Rey

El verdadero reinado de Jesús se manifiesta en su corazón: libre, sin miedo y lleno de paz. A diferencia de Pilato, quien teme al qué dirán y es un prisionero de las políticas corruptas de su tiempo, Jesús actúa con libertad y autoridad divina. Su dominio propio y su paz interior lo destacan como un verdadero rey, mientras que Pilato, atrapado por sus miedos y pasiones, revela la fragilidad del poder terrenal.

Jesús, el Rey que Da Todo

Jesús demuestra su reinado no tomando, sino dando. Nos ha entregado su palabra, su testimonio, e incluso su vida en abundancia. En contraste, Pilato representa el poder que exige, impone y toma. Jesús ofrece amor y paz a todos, mientras que el poder terrenal muchas veces busca acumular y oprimir. El verdadero rey es aquel que da sin esperar, y es en esta generosidad donde se manifiesta el auténtico reinado de Cristo.

Reinando en el Amor y la Paz

Reconocer a Jesucristo como nuestro Rey implica vivir según sus mandamientos y valores, lo cual llena nuestros corazones de paz y libertad. Su reino no está en coronas de oro ni en tronos materiales, sino en la justicia, el amor y la paz. Al confesar a Cristo como nuestro Rey y vivir de acuerdo a su palabra, experimentamos su reino aquí y ahora, preparándonos para la eternidad. Este es el verdadero significado de su reinado universal: Cristo como soberano de nuestras vidas y fuente de plenitud espiritual. ¡Viva Cristo Rey!

DEACON'S CORNER

Christ our King

I suggested to a good friend of mine that one day we would all have self-driving cars. We would just tell the car where we wanted to go, and it would take us. We would tell the car to drop off the kids and school and it would take them and come back. We could have the car go to the store for us, and it would come back with the food.

My friend said she would never trust a self-driving car to be safe and would always want a human driver to be at the wheel. I pointed out that self-driving cars wouldn't have to be perfect, just better than human drivers; human drivers who are sometimes tired, sometimes drunk, sometimes high on drugs and sometimes just aren't paying attention. My friend was unmoved by my logic and said she would still rather be 'in control'.

It occurred to me that this unwillingness to trust a self-driving car mirrors in some ways our unwillingness to surrender our lives to Jesus. Even though, unlike a self-driving car, Jesus is perfect and promises that our lives will be richer, more joyful, and fruitful if we will only surrender to his authority, we still want to keep control to ourselves. In a very real way, we are rejecting life in the Garden, walking in close union with God, because we would rather be our own king.

This Sunday is the Celebration of Christ the King. Today we recognize that Christ is king of the universe and has legitimate authority over all creation. The question each of us should ask is if we are ready to accept him as king in our own lives. If we are ready to trust "the driving" to him and are willing to simply go where he takes us, instead of fighting him for the wheel.

Blessings and peace, Deacon Steve

RINCON DEL DIACONO

Cristo nuestro Rey

Le sugerí a una buena amiga que un día todos tendríamos coches que se condujeran solos. Simplemente le diríamos al coche adónde queríamos ir y nos llevaría. Le diríamos al coche que dejara a los niños y los llevara a la escuela y los llevaría y volvería. Podríamos hacer que el coche fuera a la tienda por nosotros y regresaría con la comida.

Mi amiga dijo que nunca confiaría en que un coche autónomo fuera seguro y que siempre querría que un conductor humano estuviera al volante. Le señalé que los coches autónomos no tendrían que ser perfectos, solo mejores que los conductores humanos; conductores humanos que a veces están cansados, a veces borrachos, a veces drogados y a veces simplemente no prestan atención. Mi amiga no se conmovió ante mi lógica y dijo que preferiría tener el "control".

Se me ocurrió que esta falta de voluntad para confiar en un coche autónomo refleja en cierto modo nuestra falta de voluntad para entregar nuestras vidas a Jesús. Aunque, a diferencia de un coche que se conduce solo, Jesús es perfecto y promete que nuestras vidas serán más ricas, más alegres y fructíferas si tan solo nos sometemos a su autoridad, aún queremos mantener el control para nosotros mismos. De una manera muy real, estamos rechazando la vida en el Jardín, caminando en estrecha unión con Dios, porque preferiríamos ser nuestro propio rey.

Este domingo es la celebración de Cristo Rey. Hoy reconocemos que Cristo es el rey del universo y tiene autoridad legítima sobre toda la creación. La pregunta que cada uno de nosotros debería hacerse es si estamos listos para aceptarlo como rey en nuestras propias vidas. Si estamos listos para confiarle "la conducción" y estamos dispuestos a simplemente ir a donde Él nos lleve, en lugar de luchar con Él por el volante.

Bendiciones y paz, Diácono Steve

Deja que Dios
tome el asiento
del conductor.
