Recognizing the Mission of Jesus

In today's Gospel, we reflect on how Jesus presents His mission at the beginning of His public ministry. I am deeply moved by how Jesus, upon taking the scroll of the prophet Isaiah in the synagogue, not only reads the text but declares that today this promise is fulfilled. His mission is clear: to bring hope, heal wounded hearts, and free the captives. This proclamation not only defines who He is but also invites us to reflect on our identity and purpose as His followers.

Anointing: Its Meaning and Power

The concept of anointing, which we may not fully grasp today, carried significant weight in the culture of Jesus. The word "anointing" in Hebrew is "Messiah," and in Greek, "Christ." That is why we call Jesus "The Anointed One." In those times, oil was a vital element used to preserve, protect, and strengthen, whether in cooking or in the care of people and animals. Spiritually, anointing symbolizes the living presence of the Holy Spirit, who gives strength, guidance, and protection to our lives.

The Holy Spirit as Our Guide

If Jesus needed the anointing of the Holy Spirit to fulfill His mission, how much more do we need it? I reflect on how this anointing, symbolized by oil, helps us face life's challenges, remain steadfast in adversity, and repel the "spiritual parasites" that may cling to our souls. Just as an engine needs oil to function without damage, our spiritual lives require the constant renewal of this anointing to avoid wear and internal conflict.

Renewing Our Mission Daily

Jesus teaches us that experiencing God should not be confined to the past. We must renew our relationship with the Holy Spirit daily because relying on past experiences can become a hindrance. I reflect on how the mission God gives us is clear and personal, and how embracing this anointing prepares me to fulfill it. Just as Jesus declared, "Today this is fulfilled," I, too, must live in the present, confident that with the Spirit's guidance, everything will unfold according to His plan.

The Call to Live Anointed and Guided Lives

God desires to anoint my life, prepare me for a specific mission, and accompany me every step of the way. By living this daily experience of faith, I know that difficulties become manageable because I am strengthened by the Holy Spirit. It reminds me that the one who walks with Jesus is stronger than any adversity in the world. Today, I choose to renew my anointing, open my heart to the Holy Spirit, and move forward confidently in my mission, knowing that God is by my side and wants the very best for me.

Jr. Everardo Cázares

Reconociendo la misión de Jesús

En el Evangelio de hoy, reflexionamos sobre cómo Jesús presenta su misión al inicio de su ministerio público. Me llama profundamente la atención cómo Jesús, al tomar el rollo del profeta Isaías en la sinagoga, no solo lee el texto, sino que declara que hoy se cumple esa promesa. Su misión es clara: llevar esperanza, sanar corazones heridos y liberar a los cautivos. Esta proclamación no solo define quién es Él, sino que también nos invita a reflexionar sobre nuestra identidad y propósito como seguidores suyos.

La unción: su significado y poder

La unción, un concepto que tal vez no entendemos del todo en la actualidad, tiene un peso significativo en la cultura de Jesús. La palabra "unción" en hebreo es "Mesías" y en griego, "Cristo". Es decir, llamamos a Jesús "El Ungido". En aquella época, el aceite era un elemento vital que preservaba, protegía y fortalecía, tanto en la cocina, como en el cuidado de personas y animales. De manera espiritual, la unción simboliza la presencia viva del Espíritu Santo, que da fuerza, dirección y protección a nuestra vida.

El Espíritu Santo como guía

Si Jesús necesitó la unción del Espíritu Santo para cumplir su misión, ¿cuánto más la necesitamos yo y tú? Reflexiono sobre cómo esta unción, simbolizada por el aceite, nos permite combatir las dificultades de la vida, mantenernos firmes frente a las adversidades y ahuyentar los "parásitos" espirituales que pueden adherirse a nuestra alma. Al igual que un motor necesita aceite para funcionar sin dañarse, nuestra vida espiritual requiere la constante renovación de esta unción para evitar el desgaste y los conflictos internos.

Renovar nuestra misión cada día

Jesús nos enseña que la experiencia de Dios no debe ser algo del pasado. Debemos renovar diariamente nuestra relación con el Espíritu Santo, porque vivir de experiencias antiguas puede volverse un obstáculo. Reflexiono sobre cómo la misión que Dios nos da es clara y personal, y cómo aceptar esa unción me prepara para cumplirla. Al igual que Jesús declaró "hoy se ha cumplido", yo también debo vivir el presente con la certeza de que, con la guía del Espíritu, todo se cumplirá según su plan.

El llamado a vivir ungidos y guiados

Dios quiere ungir mi vida, prepararme para cumplir una misión específica y acompañarme en cada paso. Al vivir esta experiencia diaria de fe, sé que las dificultades son manejables porque estoy fortalecido por el Espíritu Santo. Es un recordatorio de que quien está con Jesús es más fuerte que cualquier adversidad del mundo. Hoy decido renovar mi unción, abrir mi corazón al Espíritu Santo y avanzar con confianza en mi misión, sabiendo que Dios está a mi lado y quiere lo mejor para mí.

DEACON'S CORNER

If I set you free

If I set you free as you make your start – You might not return, it's breaking my heart
Will you turn your back on me and my home, to go your own way, and go it alone?
If I set you free just where would you land? Secure on a rock, or sinking in sand?
Can I take your hand? May I be your guide, to see you through safe and keep you alive?

If I set you free, whose voice will you hear, my message of love will be lost now, I fear.
You'll listen to one who will lead you astray, then laugh as you falter and fall by the way.
If I set you free then would you abuse the free will I gave you in evil pursuit?
Would you harden our heart and ignore my laws, and then close your eyes to the pain that you caused?
Don't you know how it hurts me when you offend both me, who loves you, and my other children?

If I set you free don't you understand, that freedom without me is water on sand?
That freedom to sin is not to your gain. It will end up only in bondage and pain.
If I set you free then what will you have? Life without me will be empty and drab.
For deep inside you is a place just for me. You need me to fill it you surely will see.
If I set you free and this love you sever, it's breaking my heart to lose you forever.

But to hold you captive is not who I am. I must set you free or free will is a sham.
But know that I love you and wherever you roam, I'll always be trying to bring you back home.

Blessings and peace, Deacon Steve

RINCON DEL DIACONO

Si te deajo libre

Si te deajo libre mientras comienzas tu camino – Puede que no regreses, me rompe el corazón

*¿Me darás la espalda a mí y a mi hogar, para seguir tu propio camino, y hacerlo solo?
Si te deajo libre, ¿dónde aterrizarías? ¿Seguro en una roca, o hundiéndote en la arena?
¿Puedo tomar tu mano? ¿Puedo ser tu guía, para verte a salvo y mantenerte con vida?*

*Si te deajo libre, ¿la voz de quién escucharás? Mi mensaje de amor se perderá ahora, me temo.
Escucharás a alguien que te llevará por mal camino, luego reirás mientras vacilas y caes en el camino.
Si te deajo libre, ¿abusarás del libre albedrío que te di en una búsqueda malvada?
¿Endurecerás nuestro corazón e ignorarás mis leyes, y luego cerrarás los ojos al dolor que causaste?
¿No sabes cuánto me duele cuando me ofendes a mí, que te amo, y a mis otros hijos?*

*Si te deajo libre, ¿no entiendes que la libertad sin mí es agua sobre la arena?
Que la libertad de pecar no te beneficia. Terminará solo en esclavitud y dolor.
Si te deajo libre, ¿qué tendrás? La vida sin mí estará vacía y monótona.
Porque en lo más profundo de ti hay un lugar solo para mí. Necesitas que lo llene, seguramente lo verás.
Si te deajo libre y cortas este amor, me romperá el corazón perderte para siempre.*

*Pero mantenerte cautivo no es lo que soy. Debo liberarte o el libre albedrío es una farsa.
Pero debes saber que te amo y donde sea que deambules, siempre intentaré traerte de regreso a casa.*

Bendiciones y paz, Díacono Steve
