Listening to the Good Shepherd

A Familiar Gospel with New Depth

Since my teenage years, the Gospel of the Good Shepherd always felt easy to understand. The image of Jesus as the shepherd and myself as one of His sheep was simple and comforting. Through songs and activities, I learned to see myself as part of His flock. Yet, as I grew older, I began to look more attentively at the nature of the sheep itself—an animal fragile and defenseless, entirely dependent on the shepherd’s care. That complete dependence challenged me to recognize my own need to be guided, protected, and sustained by Christ.

The Power of the Shepherd’s Voice

What strikes me now in this Gospel is the emphasis on the Shepherd’s voice. Jesus says that His sheep hear His voice, recognize Him, and follow Him. I learned that sheep do not need to be branded like cattle; they simply respond to the unique sound of their shepherd’s call. And so I ask myself: am I truly listening to the voice of Jesus, or only to the distorted echoes repeated by others? Now more than ever, I must silence the noise of the world and attune my inner ear to His living and personal Word.

Belonging to Christ’s Flock

Jesus also says, “My sheep,” implying that not all sheep belong to Him. This statement confronts me. Do I truly belong to His flock? Do I follow Him freely and faithfully, or do I act more like an animal that must be pushed or dragged toward faith? True belonging is revealed not only by listening, but by following. It is not enough to hear His voice if I am not moved to walk after Him. In that daily choice to follow freely, without coercion, I discover a deep peace that only He can give.

Discerning the True Voice

In an age full of voices and opinions—even within the Church—I realize that not every voice belongs to the Good Shepherd. Some voices divide, confuse, and spread fear or suspicion. But the true Shepherd gives life, peace, and direction. Listening directly to what He says—in the Gospel, in authentic Church teaching, in the faithful voice of our pastors—helps me avoid being misled by human judgments. In the end, I will not answer to men, but to God. And I long to recognize Him, not through rumors, but by His voice.

A Daily Decision

This short Gospel passage left me with a lasting question: am I a sheep who listens and follows, or one that must be struck in order to obey? The Good Shepherd continues to speak to me each day, offering eternal life. He asks only that I listen and follow Him. I do not wish to be deaf to His voice, nor justify my choices with prejudices. I want to remain with Him, in His flock, under His care. For only in His hand am I truly safe, and only in His voice do I find life in abundance.

Fr. Everardo Cázares

Un Evangelio Familiar con Nuevas Profundidades

Desde adolescente, el Evangelio del Buen Pastor me resultaba fácil de entender. La imagen de Jesús como pastor y yo como una ovejita era sencilla y reconfortante. Con cantos y dinámicas aprendí a verme así, parte de su rebaño. Pero al ir creciendo, comencé a mirar con más atención a la figura de la oveja. Un animal frágil, indefenso, que depende por completo del cuidado del pastor. Esa dependencia absoluta me hizo reflexionar sobre mi propia necesidad de dejarme guiar, proteger y sostener por Cristo.

El Poder de la Voz del Pastor

Lo que más me impacta ahora de este Evangelio es la importancia de la voz. Jesús dice que sus ovejas escuchan su voz, lo reconocen y lo siguen. Aprendí que las ovejas no necesitan ser marcadas, como el ganado; basta con que escuchen a su pastor para seguirlo. Y me pregunto si yo estoy escuchando realmente la voz de Jesús, o sólo los ecos distorsionados que otros repiten. Hoy más que nunca, necesito silenciar los ruidos del mundo y afinar el oído interior para reconocer su Palabra viva, directa y personal.

Ser del Redil de Cristo

Jesús también dice “mis ovejas”, lo que implica que no todas lo son. Me confronta esta frase. ¿Pertenezco realmente a su rebaño? ¿Lo sigo con fe y libertad, o a veces actúo como un animal que necesita ser empujado, forzado, arrastrado a la fe? La verdadera pertenencia se demuestra no sólo escuchando, sino siguiendo. No basta con oír su voz si no me muevo tras Él. Y en esa decisión de seguirlo con libertad, sin imposición, descubro una paz profunda que sólo Él puede dar.

Discernir la Voz Verdadera

En tiempos de tantas voces y opiniones, incluso dentro de la Iglesia, me doy cuenta de que no todas son del Buen Pastor. Hay voces que dividen, que confunden, que siembran temor o sospecha. Pero el Pastor verdadero da vida, da paz, da dirección. Escuchar directamente lo que Él dice —en el Evangelio, en el magisterio auténtico, en la voz de nuestros pastores fieles— me ayuda a no dejarme arrastrar por juicios humanos. Al final, no le daré cuentas a los hombres, sino a Dios. Y quiero reconocerlo no por rumores, sino por su voz.

Una Decisión de Cada Día

Este Evangelio, aunque breve, me dejó una pregunta que aún resuena en mi interior: ¿soy una oveja que escucha y sigue, o una que necesita ser golpeada para obedecer? El Buen Pastor sigue hablándome cada día, y me ofrece vida eterna. Sólo me pide que lo escuche y lo siga. No quiero ser sordo a su voz, ni justificar mis decisiones con prejuicios. Quiero estar con Él, en su rebaño, bajo su cuidado. Porque sólo en su mano estoy verdaderamente seguro, y sólo en su voz encuentro vida en abundancia.

DEACON'S CORNER

In the Hollywood movie The Apostle, Academy Award winning actor Robert Duvall plays the part of "Sonny"; a charismatic Pentecostal preacher who, while struggling between sin and grace in his own life, founds a small church in Louisiana and soon begins drawing large crowds to his church.

Above the church he places a neon lighted arrow pointing up to the sky... In lights the sign says One Way Road to Heaven. Sonny calls his Church the One Way Road to Heaven Holiness Temple. At one point Sonny says: "I'd rather die today and go to heaven than live to be a hundred and go to hell" ...how many of us would say that?

The scriptures say that Jesus is the one-way road to heaven. There is no other name in heaven or on earth by which we may be saved... (Acts 4:12). There is one mediator between God and man ...Jesus Christ, who gave himself as a ransom for all (1 Tim 2:4-6). John chapter 3...No one can enter God's kingdom without being born of water and the Holy Spirit...born from above....born again. Also from John: I am the way the truth and the life...no one can come to me unless the Father draw him.. Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood you have no life in you....I shall raise him up on the last day... I go to prepare a place for you, in my Father's house there are many mansions... In the Gospel Jesus claims to be one with the Father and the source of eternal life. Do we proclaim Jesus? How are others going to believe and come to Christ if we do not proclaim him? We proclaim this good news to others not only by our words and by our lives... Take confidence and have joy and peace in the fact that God has given you the grace of salvation in Jesus Christ. Proclaim him to others...Be the light of the world...And then look forward and be encouraged by that day when your life and tasks here being complete you will enter that kingdom where is no more sorrow, no sadness, but only endless love and joy and peace. Where God will hold you in his hand....and wipe every tear away and with the angels at your side you will sing the praises of God forever.

Alleluia!

Deacon John

RINCON DEL DIACONO

En la película de Hollywood El Apóstol, el actor ganador del Oscar Robert Duvall interpreta a "Sonny", un carismático predicador pentecostal que, mientras lucha entre el pecado y la gracia en su vida, funda una pequeña iglesia en Luisiana y pronto comienza a atraer grandes multitudes a su iglesia.

Sobre la iglesia, coloca una flecha iluminada de neón apuntando hacia el cielo...

*En las luces, el letrero dice "Camino de ida al cielo". Sonny llama a su iglesia el Templo de Santidad del Camino de ida al cielo. En un momento dado, Sonny dice: "Prefiero morir hoy e ir al cielo que vivir cien años e ir al infierno"... ¿Cuántos de nosotros diríamos eso?

Las Escrituras dicen que Jesús es el camino de ida al cielo. No hay otro nombre en el cielo ni en la tierra por el cual podamos ser salvos... (Hechos 4:12). Hay un solo mediador entre Dios y los hombres... Jesucristo, quien se dio a sí mismo en rescate por todos (1 Timoteo 2:4-6). Juan capítulo 3... Nadie puede entrar en el reino de Dios sin nacer de agua y del Espíritu Santo... nacer de arriba... nacer de nuevo. También de Juan: Yo soy el camino, la verdad y la vida... nadie puede venir a mí si el Padre no lo trae... Si no comen la carne del Hijo del Hombre y beben su sangre, no tienen vida en ustedes... Yo lo resucitaré en el último día... Voy a prepararles un lugar; en la casa de mi Padre hay muchas moradas... En el Evangelio, Jesús afirma ser uno con el Padre y fuente de vida eterna. ¿Proclamamos a Jesús? ¿Cómo creerán otros y vendrán a Cristo si no lo proclamamos? Proclamamos esta buena noticia a los demás no solo con nuestras palabras, sino con nuestras vidas... Tengan confianza, gozo y paz en el hecho de que Dios les ha dado la gracia de la salvación en Jesucristo. Proclamenlo a los demás... Sean la luz del mundo... Y luego miren hacia adelante y animense por ese día en que, al completar su vida y sus tareas aquí, entrarán en ese reino donde ya no habrá pena ni tristeza, sino solo amor, alegría y paz infinitos. Donde Dios los sostendrá en su mano... y enjugará cada lágrima, y con los ángeles a su lado cantarán las alabanzas de Dios para siempre.

Aleluya!
