Partying with Angels

While the first reading from Sirach and the Gospel focus on humility (“Humble yourself . . . and you will find favor with God” [Sirach 3:18] and “go and take the lowest place” [Luke 14:10], with a surprise reversal of the humble being exalted), the reading from Hebrews surprises us in a different way. The author uses apocalyptic imagery to show how much the relationship between God and humanity has changed. He starts with images of fire, storms, and trumpet blasts—images that may remind you of an erupting volcano: something you want to view from very far away. Even God’s words brought fear and trembling.

It may not be surprising that God is beyond human comprehension, but Hebrews says no. God doesn’t want to be so far beyond us that we only approach in fear. Using more images from the end-time, the author gives us a picture of the baptized partying with angels and all the just who have died. And of course God is the host. Let’s look at some of those images to see how our relationship with the Lord has grown.

The heavenly Jerusalem reminds us that the Church is our home—not just our parish church building but the whole community of faith. How “at home” are you with your fellow parishioners? Do you regularly gather with that family for prayer? A church community can be a place to support those who are sick or jobless or depressed. It is also a place to be supported, to see God’s love in action. The angels in Hebrews may be a symbol of that support.

The “firstborn” and “spirits of the just” could remind us of those who went before us and now rest in the Lord. They had their own struggles in life, and now live in glory. They help us to keep our true goal in mind, to remember the real meaning of life, and to look forward to eternal life with hope.

Jesus came to show us how much God loves us and how close God can be. When he shed his blood on the cross (the final sign in our reading), he renewed the covenant with God’s people. So we no longer have to accomplish our salvation; it has already been offered to us by Jesus’ death and resurrection. We accept that gift not just by a verbal statement of faith, but by a life lived as Jesus showed us, in love of God and our neighbor

Hacer fiesta con los ángeles

Mientras que la primera lectura del Sirácida y el Evangelio se enfocan en la humildad: “procede con humildad... y hallarás gracia ante el Señor” (Eclesiástico 3,18) y “ocupa el último lugar” (Lucas 14,10), con una sorprendente inversión de la exaltación del humilde, la lectura de Hebreos nos sorprende de una forma diferente. El autor usa imágenes apocalípticas para mostrar cuánto ha cambiado la relación entre Dios y la humanidad. Comienza con imágenes de fuego, tormentas y trompetas, imágenes que pueden recordarnos a un volcán en erupción: algo que deseamos ver muy de lejos. Incluso las palabras de Dios nos infundieron temor y temblor.

Puede que no sea sorprendente que Dios esté más allá de la comprensión humana, pero la carta a los Hebreos nos dice que no. Dios no quiere estar tan lejos de nosotros que solo nos acerquemos con miedo. Usando más imágenes del fin de los tiempos, el autor nos ofrece una imagen de los bautizados celebrando con ángeles y todos los justos que han muerto. Y, por supuesto, Dios es el anfitrión. Veamos algunas de esas imágenes para ver cómo ha crecido nuestra relación con el Señor.

La Jerusalén celestial nos recuerda que la Iglesia es nuestro hogar; no solo nuestra parroquia, sino toda la comunidad de fe. ¿Qué tan "en casa" te sientes con los otros feligreses? ¿Te reúnes regularmente con esa familia para orar? Una comunidad eclesial puede ser un lugar para apoyar a quienes están enfermos, desempleados o deprimidos. También es un lugar para recibir apoyo, para ver el amor de Dios en acción. Los ángeles en Hebreos pueden ser un símbolo de ese apoyo.

Los "primogénitos" y los "espíritus de los justos" podrían recordarnos a quienes nos precedieron y ahora descansan en el Señor. Ellos tuvieron sus propias batallas en la vida y ahora viven en gloria. Nos ayudan a mantener presente nuestro verdadero objetivo, a recordar el verdadero significado de la vida y a anhelar la vida eterna con esperanza.

Jesús vino a mostrarnos cuánto nos ama Dios y cuán cerca puede estar. Al derramar su sangre en la cruz (la última señal de las lecturas), renovó la alianza con el pueblo de Dios. Así que ya no tenemos que lograr nuestra salvación; ya se nos ha sido ofrecida por la muerte y resurrección de Jesús. Aceptamos ese don no solo con una declaración verbal de fe, sino viviendo como Jesús nos enseñó, por amor a Dios y al prójimo.

How does our parish attract inquires each year who consider becoming Catholic?

The short answer is you! When any parish has many inquiries year after year, it is the fruit of the Holy Spirit as parish members open their hearts to welcome others. Members of a welcoming and evangelizing community take seriously their call to share the Divine message of salvation. It happens in parish families, in the workplace, in gathering of friends and neighbors, and in our everyday contacts. Give thanks to God as he continuously strengthens each of us who seek to do His will in offering a gentle, humble, and clear welcome to the Catholic faith.

Do you know someone that is interested in the Catholic faith? Sessions will be starting in September, for more information please call the office @ (979) 836- 4441; ask for Michael or email : mike@brenhamcatholic.org.

DEACON'S CORNER

Be humble and take the lowest place. Today's readings speak of the virtue of humility and that humility pleases and will be rewarded by God. But what is humility?

Teresa of Avila says humility is truth. The humble acknowledge that they are nothing compared to Almighty God. They keep things in proper perspective. However, our lowly place before God should not lead us to despair because God loves us so much that he calls us his children and is willing to share his divine life with us both here on earth and for eternity in heaven.

The Catechism says that humility is the virtue by which we acknowledge that God is the author and source of all good. Humility is the foundation for turning to God in prayer because we recognize that God is all good and we want to have a relationship with Him and we seek the grace necessary to live our lives as His followers. Jesus is the perfect example of humility. Jesus says learn from me for I am meek and humble of heart (Matt:11:29). Jesus humbly gave up the eternal manifestation of his divinity. He was a man of prayer and loyalty to His Father! He went to the cross for us sinners. Humility is the opposite of and the antidote to the sin of pride. The prideful often have an undue love of themselves, e.g., an undue self esteem, often seeking attention, honor, notoriety. They tend to love compliments. They often consider themselves better than others because of their intellect, material possessions or supposed holiness.

Final thought. In the Gospel Jesus uses a parable of a wedding banquet to describe the humble person being given a place of honor. The deeper meaning of the parable is: a humble person will be given a place of honor in the eternal banquet, the wedding feast of heaven. Are we humble? Do we take the lowest place?

Peace, Deacon John

RINCON DEL DIACONO

Sé humilde y ocupa el último lugar. Las lecturas de hoy hablan de la virtud de la humildad y de que la humildad agrada y será recompensada por Dios. Pero ¿qué es la humildad?

Teresa de Ávila dice que la humildad es la verdad. Los humildes reconocen que no son nada comparados con Dios Todopoderoso. Mantienen las cosas en la perspectiva adecuada. Sin embargo, nuestra humilde posición ante Dios no debe llevarnos a la desesperación, porque Dios nos ama tanto que nos llama sus hijos y está dispuesto a compartir su vida divina con nosotros, tanto aquí en la tierra como por la eternidad en el cielo.

El Catecismo dice que la humildad es la virtud por la cual reconocemos que Dios es el autor y la fuente de todo bien. La humildad es la base para acudir a Dios en oración porque reconocemos que Dios es toda bondad y deseamos tener una relación con Él, buscando la gracia necesaria para vivir como sus seguidores. Jesús es el ejemplo perfecto de humildad. Jesús dice: «Aprendan de mí, que soy manso y humilde de corazón» (Mt 11,29). Jesús renunció humildemente a la manifestación eterna de su divinidad. ¡Fue un hombre de oración y lealtad a su Padre! Fue a la cruz por nosotros, pecadores. La humildad es lo opuesto y el antidoto contra el pecado del orgullo. Los orgullosos suelen tener un amor indebido por sí mismos, por ejemplo, una autoestima excesiva, buscando a menudo atención, honor y notoriedad. Tienden a amar los halagos. A menudo se consideran superiores a los demás debido a su intelecto, posesiones materiales o supuesta santidad.

Reflexión final. En el Evangelio, Jesús usa la parábola de un banquete de bodas para describir a la persona humilde que recibe un lugar de honor. El significado más profundo de la parábola es: a una persona humilde se le dará un lugar de honor en el banquete eterno, la fiesta de bodas del cielo. ¿Somos humildes? ¿Ocupamos el último lugar?

Paz, Diácono John
