No Good Deed Goes Unpunished

When Jesus rose from the dead, he showed his disciples that even death will be overcome by God. In today's Gospel, he expands that to include most of the bad things that can happen to both non-believers and disciples alike.

Starting with the destruction of the temple in Jerusalem, Jesus mentions most of the scary things that people thought would bring the end of the world. He gives two pieces of advice. First, don't be fooled by anyone who says this is the end or who claims to be Jesus. When Jesus comes again, there will be no doubt about who it is. You won't have to learn about it on the evening news. Then, don't be terrified by natural disasters or wars. Wars, epidemics, earthquakes, and the rest happen throughout history and will happen again.

As disciples, we hope we would respond to disasters not with fear, but with love. Believers can voluntarily help those affected, comfort the survivors, or help rebuild their homes or schools. You may choose to give at a blood drive or donate to one of the charities that help disaster victims. People have welcomed strangers into their homes after a flood or hurricane has destroyed a neighborhood.

There is a saying that "no good deed goes unpunished." Jesus never says that his disciples would be given awards for their acts of charity. In the second half of the Gospel, he says that his disciples would be persecuted, hated, and even betrayed by their own families. Jesus has advice for that situation, too. He presents it as an opportunity to give testimony, or witness, to our faith. His advice sounds strange at first. Unlike a modern lawyer, who practices with a witness before they go into the courtroom, Jesus tells us "not to prepare your defense," but to let him give us the words. I suspect that he means not to worry about what you might say, lest you become scared speechless. If you let him, Jesus will "prepare" you with the scripture readings, your pastor's homilies, and your own prayer life. All of these can help open us to the gifts of the Spirit, who helps us proclaim our faith without fear.

Cuando Jesús resucitó, mostró a sus discípulos que incluso la muerte será vencida por Dios. En el Evangelio de hoy, amplía esta idea para incluir la mayoría de las cosas malas que pueden suceder tanto a los no creyentes como a los discípulos.

Comenzando con la destrucción del templo en Jerusalén, Jesús menciona la mayoría de las cosas aterradoras que la gente creía que traerían el fin del mundo. Da dos consejos. Primero, no se dejen engañar por nadie que diga que este es el fin o que dice que es Jesús. Cuando Jesús regrese, no habrá duda de quién es. No tendrán que enterarse por las noticias de la noche. Luego, no se dejen aterrorizar por los desastres naturales ni las guerras. Guerras, epidemias, terremotos y demás ocurren a lo largo de la historia y volverán a ocurrir.

Como discípulos, esperamos responder a los desastres no con miedo, sino con amor. Los creyentes pueden ayudar voluntariamente a los afectados, consolar a los sobrevivientes o ayudar a reconstruir sus hogares o escuelas. Pueden optar por donar sangre o dar a una de las organizaciones benéficas que ayudan a las víctimas de desastres. Hay personas que han recibido a desconocidos en sus hogares después de que una inundación o un huracán destruye un vecindario.

Hay un dicho que dice que “ninguna buena obra queda sin castigo”. Jesús nunca dice que sus discípulos serían recompensados por sus actos de caridad. En la segunda mitad del Evangelio, dice que sus discípulos serían perseguidos, odiados e incluso traicionados por sus propias familias. Jesús también tiene un consejo para esa situación. La presenta como una oportunidad para dar testimonio de nuestra fe. Su consejo suena extraño al principio. A diferencia de un abogado moderno, que practica con un testigo antes de entrar en la sala del tribunal, Jesús nos dice “no tienen que preparar de antemano su defensa,” sino dejemos que él nos dé las palabras. Creo que se refiere a no preocuparse de lo que vamos a decir, para no quedarnos sin palabras por el miedo. Si se lo permites, Jesús te “preparará” con las lecturas de las Sagradas Escrituras, las homilías de tu párroco y tu propia vida de oración. Todo esto puede abrirnos a los dones del Espíritu, quien nos ayuda a proclamar la fe sin miedo.

DEACON'S CORNER

In today's Gospel Jesus speaks with his disciples near the Jewish Temple. Last week we spoke about this Temple, the central place of Jewish worship and a beauty to behold. It took forty years to build. It held thousands of people. To the apostle's surprise Jesus says the Temple will be destroyed.

And so it happened in 70 AD the Romans destroyed Jerusalem and the Temple. It was a total loss of Jewish religious freedom and worship. The apostles ask what will be the sign when this happens and Jesus' coming at the end of the age. Jesus later predicts that they will see him coming on the clouds of heaven with great power and glory. While the apostles did see Jesus rising on the clouds of heaven at His ascension, Jesus' words also refer to the end of the world when He will come in Great Glory as the Son of Man with all power and authority. The destruction of the temple prefigures the destruction of the heavens and earth that will occur at Jesus' second coming. Jesus predicted war, persecutions, the rise of false messiahs, starvation, and that the apostles would be brought before civil and religious authorities because of their teaching. Then the destruction of the Jewish center of worship with a total loss of religious freedom occurred. The Jews who lived became refugees. Many died. How do these predictions apply to us today?

We see similar things today. We live in a time that is becoming increasingly more hostile to religion as the Romans were hostile to the Jews. Persecution of Christians is not new. It has been happening since the time of Jesus but it is increasing today for example in Nigeria and other countries. Priests and bishops have been incarcerated. Some churches are vandalized. Christians are mocked. Some are put to death. What should we do? Three things: pray. The scriptures say pray without ceasing that we will be able to endure whatever may come. Second: don't keep silent about Jesus or our religious values. Don't be afraid to witness to Jesus. Finally: be ready, watchful and ready at all times. We don't know if or when persecutions might happen or when Jesus will return. Are we ready for whatever may happen? Don't be weighed down with the cares of this life. May God bless us and strengthen us with his grace. AMEN.

Deacon John

RINCON DEL DIACONO

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús habla con sus discípulos cerca del Templo judío. La semana pasada hablamos de este Templo, el lugar central del culto judío y una belleza digna de admirar. Su construcción duró cuarenta años y tenía capacidad para miles de personas. Para sorpresa de los apóstoles, Jesús dice que el Templo será destruido.

Y así sucedió en el año 70 d.C., cuando los romanos destruyeron Jerusalén y el Templo. Fue una pérdida total de la libertad religiosa y del culto judío. Los apóstoles preguntan cuál será la señal de que esto suceda y de la venida de Jesús al final de los tiempos. Jesús predice que lo verán venir sobre las nubes del cielo con gran poder y gloria. Si bien los apóstoles vieron a Jesús ascender a los cielos, las palabras de Jesús también se refieren al fin del mundo, cuando vendrá con gran gloria como el Hijo del Hombre con todo poder y autoridad. La destrucción del templo prefigura la destrucción de los cielos y la tierra que ocurrirá en la segunda venida de Jesús. Jesús predijo guerras, persecuciones, el surgimiento de falsos mesías, hambruna y que los apóstoles serían llevados ante las autoridades civiles y religiosas a causa de sus enseñanzas. Luego ocurrió la destrucción del centro de culto judío con una pérdida total de la libertad religiosa. Los judíos que sobrevivieron se convirtieron en refugiados. Muchos murieron. ¿Cómo se aplican estas predicciones a nosotros hoy?

Hoy vemos cosas similares. Vivimos en una época que se vuelve cada vez más hostil a la religión, como los romanos lo fueron con los judíos. La persecución de los cristianos no es nueva. Ha estado ocurriendo desde la época de Jesús, pero hoy se está intensificando, por ejemplo, en Nigeria y otros países. Sacerdotes y obispos han sido encarcelados. Algunas iglesias son vandalizadas. Los cristianos son objeto de burlas. Algunos son asesinados. ¿Qué debemos hacer? Tres cosas: orar. Las Escrituras dicen que oremos sin cesar para que podamos soportar lo que venga. Segundo: no guardemos silencio sobre Jesús ni sobre nuestros valores religiosos. No tengamos miedo de dar testimonio de Jesús. Finalmente: estemos preparados, vigilantes y listos en todo momento. No sabemos si ocurrirán persecuciones ni cuándo regresará Jesús. ¿Estamos preparados para lo que pueda suceder? No nos agobiemos con las preocupaciones de esta vida. Que Dios nos bendiga y nos fortalezca con su gracia. AMÉN.
