DEACON'S CORNER

Our liturgy on Palm Sunday begins with a celebration of the entry of the Lord into the Holy City and then rapidly focuses in on the Crucifixion of the Lord, this year from the Gospel of Matthew. What a contrast! We go from Jerusalem where the crowds were celebrating Jesus, crowding him, singing hosanna, to Golgotha, where Jesus was mostly deserted by all as he died on the cross. What is it that we celebrate this Holy Week? Is it the historical events of a little less than 2,000 years ago? Perhaps, but this is only a small part of our commemoration of Holy Week. What we celebrate this Holy week is our participation in the Paschal Mystery, the sacrifice of the Lamb of God. On Holy Thursday we join the disciples at the Last Supper and the Garden of Olives. We remember that the mandate to serve is fundamental. The symbolic washing of feet reminds us of that the mandate to serve is fundamental to our being people of the Eucharist. On Good Friday, we call up the courage to stand at the foot of the cross and ask our Savior to allow us to join our lives to his death. At the Solemn Easter Vigil, we remember the promises of the Hebrew Scriptures and rejoice at the fulfillment of the prophecies of salvation. At all the Masses of Easter we reaffirm our Baptismal vows and recommit our lives to living for the Kingdom of God. Come and pray with us this week. Come. Come and celebrate the Life that makes all life meaningful.

RINCON DEL DIACONO

*Nuestra liturgia del Domingo de Ramos comienza con la celebración de la entrada del Señor en la Ciudad Santa y luego se centra rápidamente en la Crucifixión del Señor, este año del Evangelio de Mateo. ¡Qué contraste! Pasamos de Jerusalén, donde las multitudes celebraban a Jesús, amontonándolo, cantando hosanna, al Gólgota, donde Jesús fue prácticamente abandonado por todos al morir en la cruz. ¿Qué celebramos esta Semana Santa? ¿Son los acontecimientos históricos de hace poco menos de 2000 años? Quizás, pero esto es solo una pequeña parte de nuestra conmemoración de la Semana Santa. Lo que celebramos esta Semana Santa es nuestra participación en el Misterio Pascual, el sacrificio del Cordero de Dios. El Jueves Santo nos unimos a los discípulos en la Última Cena y en el Huerto de los Olivos. Recordamos que el mandato de servir es fundamental. El lavatorio simbólico de los pies nos recuerda que el mandato de servir es fundamental para ser pueblo de la Eucaristía. El Viernes Santo, nos armamos de valor para estar al pie de la cruz y pedirle a nuestro Salvador que nos permita unir nuestras vidas a su muerte. En la Solemne Vigilia Pascual, recordamos las promesas de las Escrituras Hebreas y nos regocijamos por el cumplimiento de las profecías de salvación. En todas las Misas de Pascua, reafirmamos nuestros votos bautismales y renovamos nuestro compromiso de vivir para el Reino de Dios. Ven a orar con nosotros esta semana. Ven. Ven a celebrar la Vida que da sentido a toda vida.
