DEACON'S CORNER

Rejoice!

“But Israel is saved by the Lord with everlasting salvation; you shall not be put to shame or confounded to all eternity. In the Lord all the offspring of Israel shall triumph and glory.” – Isaiah 45:17, 25

Imagine you're in a football game and you just missed your block. Your running back got thrown back for a big loss on the play. However, the score is currently 50 – 0, in your favor, and there's only a minute left in the game. So, you know you're going to win. You could get very upset about missing that assignment. After all, you want to play to the last whistle and always try to do your best. It's not good that your team has a bad play because of you messing up. But sometimes we need to step back and look at the big picture. You're going to win!!! The play didn't matter!

It's Easter and Christ is risen from the dead! He has won his victory over sin and death; the victory of the cross! We are saved! Don't allow any of the tribulations of this life to get you down today. They are nothing compared to the joys you are promised. Sure, the play could have gone better, but we won the game! Satan for all his devices and lies has failed and Christ is triumphant. Let us rejoice in our victory and be glad.

This will be my last Deacon's corner until July. My wife sometimes scolds me for being too negative (too fire and brimstone, lol), so I want to end Easter with a joyful message. Be sure to catch next week's message, where I again turn this space over to Deacon Brian. I suspect it will be his last "Deacon's Corner", since his next message in a bulletin will, God willing, be from Father Brian. I want to thank him for the friendship, insight, and good cheer he has shared with me while he has been here with us.

Happy Easter, Deacon Steve

RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

¡Alégrense!

«Pero Israel es salvado por el Señor con salvación eterna; no serán avergonzados ni confundidos por toda la eternidad. En el Señor, toda la descendencia de Israel triunfará y se gloriará». – Isaías 45:17, 25

Imagina que estás en un partido de fútbol americano y acabas de fallar tu bloqueo. Tu corredor fue derribado, sufriendo una gran pérdida de yardas en la jugada. Sin embargo, el marcador actual es de 50 a 0 a tu favor, y solo queda un minuto para que termine el partido. Por lo tanto, sabes que vas a ganar. Podrías molestarte mucho por haber fallado en esa asignación. Al fin y al cabo, quieres jugar hasta el último silbatazo y siempre intentas dar lo mejor de ti. No es bueno que tu equipo tenga una mala jugada porque tú cometiste un error. Pero a veces necesitamos dar un paso atrás y ver el panorama general. ¡¡¡Vas a ganar!!! ¡Esa jugada no importó!

¡Es Pascua y Cristo ha resucitado de entre los muertos! Él ha obtenido su victoria sobre el pecado y la muerte: ¡la victoria de la cruz! ¡Hemos sido salvados! No permitas que ninguna de las tribulaciones de esta vida te desanime hoy. No son nada en comparación con las alegrías que se te han prometido. Claro, la jugada podría haber salido mejor, ¡pero ganamos el partido! Satanás, con todas sus artimañas y mentiras, ha fracasado, y Cristo ha triunfado. Alegrémonos en nuestra victoria y regocijémonos.

Este será mi último «Rincón del Diácono» hasta julio. Mi esposa a veces me regaña por ser demasiado negativo (demasiado apocalíptico, jajaja), así que quiero cerrar la Pascua con un mensaje alegre. Asegúrense de leer el mensaje de la próxima semana, en el que cederé nuevamente este espacio al diácono Brian. Sospecho que será su último «Rincón del Diácono», ya que su siguiente mensaje en el boletín será, si Dios quiere, del Padre Brian. Quiero agradecerle por la amistad, la sabiduría y el buen ánimo que ha compartido conmigo durante el tiempo que ha estado aquí con nosotros.

¡Feliz Pascua! — Diácono Steve
