DEACON'S CORNER

SEEN AND HEARD, VALUED AND LOVED

We are all growing older, and it is a blessing to be aging. Many of us, as we grow older, will remain in our homes or the homes of our family members. Some of us will join the two to five million older adults in the U.S. who are “homebound,” a term to describe people who are unable to leave their home, usually due to illness or old age. Many older adults who are homebound are at risk of becoming isolated from their faith community and the very practices that help them feel and experience the presence of God, such as the Sacraments, the Eucharist particularly, Scripture and fellowship. As followers of Christ, we are invited to “Share with the Lord’s people who are in need. Practice hospitality” (Rom 12:13)

Lets us extend our hospitality beyond the walls of our church into our community and the homes where older adults seek to connect to their faith and their Catholic family. We are blessed to have a very rich faith. There are many Catholic organizations that support older adults – the Catholic Chaplain Corps, Catholic Charities, and St. Teresa of Calcutta, to name a few. Here at St. Mary Immaculate Conception we have Eucharistic ministers who visit people who are homebound and those in the nursing facilities.

If you are at home, we want you to know that you are not forgotten and you are not alone. We see you and we hear you. We love you, and we value you.

To be continued next week – stay tuned.

RINCON DEL DIACONO

VISTOS Y ESCUCHADOS, VALORADOS Y AMADOS

*Todos estamos envejeciendo, y envejecer es una bendición. Muchos de nosotros, a medida que nos hacemos mayores, permaneceremos en nuestros propios hogares o en los de nuestros familiares. Algunos nos uniremos a los dos a cinco millones de adultos mayores en los EE. UU. que se encuentran "confinados en casa" (o homebound), un término que describe a las personas que no pueden salir de su hogar, generalmente debido a una enfermedad o a la edad avanzada. Muchos adultos mayores que se encuentran confinados en casa corren el riesgo de aislarse de su comunidad de fe y de las mismas prácticas que les ayudan a sentir y experimentar la presencia de Dios, tales como los Sacramentos —particularmente la Eucaristía—, las Sagradas Escrituras y la vida comunitaria. Como seguidores de Cristo, estamos invitados a: "Compartan con el pueblo del Señor que está necesitado. Practiquen la hospitalidad" (Rom 12:13).*

*Extendamos nuestra hospitalidad más allá de los muros de nuestra iglesia, hacia nuestra comunidad y hacia los hogares donde los adultos mayores buscan conectarse con su fe y con su familia católica. Tenemos la bendición de poseer una fe muy rica. Existen muchas organizaciones católicas que brindan apoyo a los adultos mayores: el Cuerpo de Capellanes Católicos, Catholic Charities y la organización Santa Teresa de Calcuta, por nombrar solo algunas. Aquí, en la parroquia de la Inmaculada Concepción de Santa María (St. Mary Immaculate Conception), contamos con ministros de la Eucaristía que visitan a las personas confinadas en sus hogares y a aquellas que residen en centros de cuidados para ancianos.*

Si usted se encuentra en casa, queremos que sepa que no ha sido olvidado y que no está solo. Lo vemos y lo escuchamos. Lo amamos y lo valoramos.

Continuará la próxima semana; manténgase atento.
