CONGRATULATIONS!

Brian Paul McNaughton was born and raised in Austin. He is the son of Paul and Christy McNaughton and the oldest of four children. He attended Holy Family Catholic School and graduated from St. Dominic Savio Catholic High School in 2015.

He attended Texas A&M University, where he earned a degree in computer engineering. In college, Brian met a group of friends at church who challenged him to pray each day and sincerely ask God what his plans were for his life. After college, he continued discerning while working at ExxonMobil. It soon became clear that the only way to know whether he was being called to the priesthood was to enter seminary and give himself fully to the journey.

During his years of formation, Brian came to recognize the desire to give his life in love was being fulfilled in a call to spiritual fatherhood through the priesthood.

Brian Paul McNaughton nació y creció en Austin. Es hijo de Paul y Christy McNaughton y el mayor de cuatro hermanos. Asistió a la escuela católica Holy Family y se graduó de la escuela secundaria católica St. Dominic Savio en 2015.

Cursó estudios en la Universidad Texas A&M, donde obtuvo un título en ingeniería informática. Durante su etapa universitaria, Brian conoció en la iglesia a un grupo de amigos que lo animaron a orar diariamente y a preguntar sinceramente a Dios cuáles eran sus planes para su vida. Tras finalizar sus estudios, continuó su proceso de discernimiento mientras trabajaba en ExxonMobil. Pronto se hizo evidente que la única manera de saber si estaba llamado al sacerdocio era ingresar al seminario y entregarse plenamente a ese camino.

A lo largo de sus años de formación, Brian llegó a comprender que su deseo de entregar la vida por amor se estaba haciendo realidad en una llamada a la paternidad espiritual a través del sacerdocio.

¡FELICIDADES!

DEACON'S CORNER

This is a continuation from Last week's corner.

My strongest passion as a Deacon is deeply rooted from the Gospel of Matthew. Chapter 25: 34-37.

“For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me.”

I enjoy visiting people in the hospital, the homebound and the various living facilities here in Washington County. And it is here that I mostly hear the loneliness, sadness and the hurting. I was sick and you looked after me. I know that most of the people that I visit in the hospital will be going home. The people living in the various living facilities do have contact with the caretakers at the facility they are living in. And I know that many of the residents do have family visiting them. We also have faithful Eucharistic ministers visiting and taking Communion to them. Although we do not know all of the Catholics who are living in these facilities. And so, this is a hint for you if you know someone who has moved into one of our living facilities to let us know so that we can visit with them.

It is the homebound to whom I find to be most lonely, to be trapped in their home day after day. It is like being trapped in a prison. “I was in prison and you came to visit me.” I know that there are people you know who are homebound. Someone who is very lonely. Someone who has not been able to receive Eucharist for a long time. All it takes is a phone call to the church office (979-836-4441) to give us their information. Also, nothing is stopping you from visiting someone who is homebound.

A challenge from Deacon Al

RINCON DEL DIACONO

Esta es una continuación de la columna de la semana pasada.

Mi mayor pasión como diácono está profundamente arraigada en el Evangelio de Mateo, capítulo 25, versículos 34 al 37:

«Porque tuve hambre y me dieron de comer, tuve sed y me dieron de beber, fui forastero y me acogieron, estuve desnudo y me vistieron, estuve enfermo y me cuidaron, estuve en la cárcel y fueron a visitarme».

Disfruto visitar a las personas en el hospital, a los confinados en sus hogares y a los residentes de los diversos centros de asistencia aquí en el condado de Washington. Es precisamente allí donde percibo con mayor intensidad la soledad, la tristeza y el sufrimiento. «Estuve enfermo y me cuidaron». Sé que la mayoría de las personas que visito en el hospital regresarán a sus casas. Quienes viven en centros de asistencia tienen contacto con el personal que los atiende, y sé que muchos residentes reciben visitas de sus familiares. También contamos con fieles ministros de la Eucaristía que los visitan y les llevan la Comunión. Sin embargo, no conocemos a todos los católicos que viven en estos centros. Por ello, les pido que, si saben de alguien que se haya mudado a uno de estos centros, nos avisen para que podamos visitarlo.

Considero que las personas confinadas en sus hogares son quienes más sufren la soledad, al verse atrapadas en casa día tras día. Es como estar prisionero. «Estuve en la cárcel y fueron a visitarme». Sé que ustedes conocen a personas confinadas en sus casas: alguien que se siente muy solo o alguien que lleva mucho tiempo sin poder recibir la Eucaristía. Basta con una llamada a la oficina de la iglesia (979-836-4441) para facilitarnos sus datos. Además, nada les impide visitar personalmente a alguien que esté confinado en su hogar.

Un desafío del diácono Al
