Confirmation journey

Hello, my name is Abby Escobedo. I was asked to construct an essay about my confirmation journey. I'm a part of the youth, and with that, I've been able to learn more about God and hear incredible stories of what God has done for them. But also learning about different things you can do for the church. When going to youth, I feel embraced with God's love, but also it's warming to be surrounded by friends and seeing people come together to hear about a person who loves us all.

Last year, when my class started to dig a little deeper into confirmation, I wasn't truly sure who I was going to have as my saint or what I was going to do with my faith journey. Feeling unsure, my mom told me that there was a retreat in the summer that I could attend, which is known as Steubenville. Not knowing what to do, I reluctantly said yes and packed my bags, and off to Dallas I went. When on this retreat, I realized that no matter how big or small you make it in life, God will always be there with open arms waiting for you. Which made me think, wow, he does so much for me by just being there in my presence, just listening to me pray. Thinking to myself, I thought I don't thank him enough as much as I should, which led me into me praying more often and get more active in my prayer life. By the end of the retreat, I soon knew I was chosen as His child for a reason and was excited to see what I was going to do next. A bonus with this retreat was that I found out I like praise and worship and started to listen to worship more, which gave me a fired-up feeling.

Fast forward to this year, confirmation starts to roll around the corner, and I'm still unsure of what saint to pick. In the years prior, I knew I wanted to pick a saint that meant a lot to me, but one never stood out to me. Feeling doubt in myself, I started to look at saints who could help me in my extracurriculars. Then, wala, I finally found the saint. It is Saint Sebastian, the patron saint of athletes. I chose Saint Sebastian as my confirmation saint because he represents strength, perseverance, and courage. As a runner and dancer, I admire how he stayed determined and faithful even through difficult challenges. Running and dancing have taught me discipline and endurance, and Saint Sebastian reminds me to keep pushing forward with faith and confidence in both sports and life. I hope to follow his example by staying strong in my beliefs and supporting others with kindness and determination.

Camino de Confirmación

Hola, me llamo Abby Escobedo. Me pidieron que escribiera un ensayo sobre mi camino hacia la Confirmación. Formo parte del grupo de jóvenes; gracias a ello, he podido aprender más sobre Dios y escuchar historias increíbles de lo que Él ha hecho por los demás, además de descubrir diversas formas de servir a la Iglesia. Al asistir a las reuniones de jóvenes, me siento acogida por el amor de Dios; también me reconforta estar rodeada de amigos y ver a personas unirse para escuchar sobre alguien que nos ama a todos.

El año pasado, cuando mi grupo comenzó a profundizar en el tema de la Confirmación, no estaba segura de qué santo elegiría ni de qué camino seguiría en mi fe. Ante esta incertidumbre, mi madre me habló de un retiro de verano al que podía asistir, conocido como Steubenville. Sin saber bien qué hacer, acepté a regañadientes, hice las maletas y partí hacia Dallas. Durante el retiro, comprendí que, sin importar cuán grande o pequeño sea el éxito que alcance en la vida, Dios siempre estará allí esperándome con los brazos abiertos. Eso me hizo reflexionar: «¡Vaya! Él hace tanto por mí con solo estar presente y escuchar mis oraciones». Me di cuenta de que no le agradecía tanto como debería, lo cual me motivó a orar con mayor frecuencia y a participar más activamente en mi vida de oración. Al finalizar el retiro, supe que había sido elegida como Su hija por una razón y me entusiasmé por ver qué pasos seguiría. Un aspecto positivo adicional fue descubrir que me gusta la música de alabanza y adoración; empecé a escucharla más a menudo, lo que me llenó de un gran fervor espiritual.

Ya en el presente año, la fecha de la Confirmación se acerca y todavía no estoy segura de qué santo elegir. En años anteriores, sabía que quería escoger a un santo que fuera significativo para mí, pero ninguno terminaba de convencerme. Al sentir dudas, comencé a buscar santos que pudieran ayudarme en mis actividades extracurriculares. Entonces, ¡voilà!, por fin encontré al santo. Se trata de San Sebastián, el patrón de los atletas. Elegí a San Sebastián como mi santo de confirmación porque representa fortaleza, perseverancia y valentía. Como corredor y bailarín, admiro cómo se mantuvo decidido y fiel incluso ante desafíos difíciles. Correr y bailar me han enseñado disciplina y resistencia, y San Sebastián me recuerda que debo seguir adelante con fe y confianza, tanto en el deporte como en la vida. Espero seguir su ejemplo manteniéndome firme en mis convicciones y apoyando a los demás con amabilidad y determinación.

San Sebastián

Oración

Glorioso San Sebastián intercede ante Dios por nosotros, para que podamos tener el mismo amor y la misma valentía que tuviste para combatir por la Gloria de Dios. Poderoso guerrero, sé mi protector, sostenme con tus brazos victoriosos, así no tendré más miedo al maligno. Hoy te pido que me ayudes con (tu petición), sabiendo que para Dios nada es imposible si pedimos con fe y confianza. Ayúdame a ser fuerte ante la dificultad y que de testimonio de mi fe en Jesucristo en cada acto de mi vida.

Amén

I humbly come before you, praying for your divine intervention in the life of athletes. Please give them the courage and strength to face every challenge on their road to victory.

May they follow your example of unwavering commitment as an inspiration to improve in sports daily. Allow them to find comfort in you in times of injury or when impatient.

DEACON'S CORNER

“My yoke is easy and my burden light”

Jesus describes himself as “meek and humble of heart” and that his yoke is easy, and his burden is light. To understand this beautiful metaphor, we need to understand how to take the word “meek”. Today, meek can mean weak and submissive, but that isn’t the meaning here. When you coupled two animals together, horses, oxen or mules, with a yoke, it was important they pull together with equal strength. If one animal pulls much harder than the other, the yoke doesn’t stay straight and most of the power is lost because the team isn’t pulling together. An animal was said to be “meek” if it would restrain itself and match its strength to his partner, so they would pull together.

Jesus promises us that if we come to Him and live the life He has planned for us, we will find our burden to be light, and we can rest from the troubles of the world. One might question this, looking at the lives of the saints who did indeed follow Jesus and took upon themselves His yoke. I mean, we all admired Mother Teresa, but few of us would expect that her life would make us happy. However, everyone who spent any time with her would always speak of how she was filled with joy. God has a plan for you and Jesus says if only you will come to him, you will find that life of joy.

We are told to come to Jesus like little children. Have you never seen how children behave? They pull away from Mom or Dad and go out and explore for a while; but then decide to come running back. They are lifted up by their parent and find peace and comfort, resting in their mother or their father’s arms. That is how Jesus asks us to come to him. With the trust of a child who knows they will be safe and at peace when they are lifted up.

Blessings and peace, Deacon Steve

RINCON DEL DIACONO

«Mi yugo es suave y mi carga ligera»

Jesús se describe a sí mismo como «manso y humilde de corazón», y afirma que su yugo es suave y su carga es ligera. Para comprender esta hermosa metáfora, debemos entender el sentido de la palabra «manso». Hoy en día, «manso» puede asociarse con debilidad o sumisión, pero ese no es el significado en este contexto. Cuando se unían dos animales —ya fueran caballos, bueyes o mulas— mediante un yugo, era fundamental que tiraran al unísono y con la misma fuerza. Si un animal tiraba con mucha más fuerza que el otro, el yugo se desviaba y se perdía gran parte de la potencia, ya que la yunta no tiraba en conjunto. Se decía que un animal era «manso» si sabía contenerse y ajustar su fuerza a la de su compañero para tirar coordinadamente.

Jesús nos promete que, si acudimos a Él y vivimos la vida que ha planeado para nosotros, nuestra carga será ligera y podremos descansar de las tribulaciones del mundo. Alguien podría cuestionar esto al observar las vidas de los santos que, efectivamente, siguieron a Jesús y asumieron su yugo. Todos admirábamos a la Madre Teresa, pero pocos esperaríamos que su vida nos hiciera felices. Sin embargo, quienes pasaban tiempo con ella siempre hablaban de la gran alegría que la llenaba. Dios tiene un plan para ti, y Jesús dice que, si tan solo acudes a Él, encontrarás esa vida de alegría.

Se nos pide que acudamos a Jesús como niños pequeños. ¿No has visto alguna vez cómo se comportan los niños? Se alejan de mamá o papá para explorar un rato, pero luego deciden volver corriendo. Sus padres los alzan en brazos y ellos encuentran paz y consuelo, descansando en el regazo de su madre o de su padre. Así es como Jesús nos pide que acudamos a Él: con la confianza de un niño que sabe que estará seguro y en paz al ser alzado.

Bendiciones y paz, diácono Steve.
