ST. MARY MAGDALENE

Patron Saint of Converts - July 22

Saint Mary Magdalene! You heard from the loving lips of Jesus that your many sins were forgiven because you loved much. Pour out your love at His sacred feet on our behalf. Your tears of repentance and of love won for you the pardon of your sins and the vision of your Risen Jesus on Easter morning. Surely, dear Saint, He who refused nothing to your love on earth, will graciously replenish us with those blessings, for which we implore your prayers.

SANTA MARIA MAGDALENA

Patrona de los conversos - 22 de julio

¡Santa María Magdalena! Escuchaste de los labios amorosos de Jesús que tus muchos pecados te eran perdonados porque habías amado mucho. Derrama tu amor a sus pies sagrados en nuestro favor. Tus lágrimas de arrepentimiento y de amor te alcanzaron el perdón de tus pecados y la visión de Jesús resucitado en la mañana de Pascua. Sin duda, querida Santa, Aquel que nada negó a tu amor en la tierra nos colmará bondadosamente de aquellas bendiciones que imploramos mediante tus oraciones.

One of our Diocese's requirements is that all parish volunteers register for and attend an EIM class and renew it every three years. This program is designed to protect our children and the elderly. It highlights the subtle signs of abuse and inappropriate behavior that can exist in our society without us realizing it. Our goal is to prevent inappropriate behavior and recognize potential signs of its presence.

If you are a new volunteer and need to take your Virtus Workshop, here is a list of available workshops in our Diocese.

Mission

DEACON'S CORNER

Each Sunday at the end of mass we are sent out on mission; the mission of the Church, which is to bring people to God. It is worth asking the question, however, just how prepared are we to carry out our mission. Imagine that we drop off a team of our soldiers in a dangerous spot and give them an important mission to accomplish. We would expect them to be well led, well equipped, and well trained. And we would expect them to not only have a plan, but also to know when and how to adapt it to circumstances to overcome unexpected challenges. And we would expect them to be successful.

But now imagine that we have a team with no leaders, no training, and no experience with any equipment they might have. They are dropped off and not only have no plan, but no real understanding of the mission. How do you think they would do? For far too many parishes in our Church, that seems to be what happens each Sunday when we are sent out at the end of mass.

Each of us should ask ourselves if we have done what is necessary to prepare ourselves to go on mission. Do we have a plan? Do we look for opportunities to share our faith with others, especially with others who might not agree with us? Do we even know what success looks like?

We expect our crack team of soldiers to be successful because they are physically fit. (Do you pray daily?) Our team knows how to well use their equipment because of constant training. (Do you study your faith and know it well enough to defend it?) The members of our team were there because when called to serve they weren't too busy with other distractions in their lives. They knew the mission to be important and where available when called on.

Our pastor and leadership committees are working on our parish plan and we will have it soon, but we already should be preparing ourselves, doing the exercises, getting in shape, so that when it's ready, we'll be ready.

Blessings and peace, Deacon Steve

RINCON DEL DIACONO

La misión

Cada domingo, al finalizar la Misa, somos enviados a cumplir una misión: la misión de la Iglesia, que consiste en llevar a las personas hacia Dios. Sin embargo, vale la pena preguntarse qué tan preparados estamos realmente para llevar a cabo esta misión. Imaginemos que desplegamos un equipo de soldados en una zona peligrosa y les encomendamos una misión importante. Esperaríamos que estuvieran bien dirigidos, bien equipados y bien entrenados. Esperaríamos que no solo tuvieran un plan, sino que también supieran cuándo y cómo adaptarlo a las circunstancias para superar desafíos imprevistos. Y esperaríamos que tuvieran éxito.

Pero imaginemos ahora un equipo sin líderes, sin formación y sin experiencia en el manejo del equipo que pudieran tener. Son desplegados y no solo carecen de un plan, sino que tampoco comprenden realmente la misión. ¿Cómo creen que les iría? En demasiadas parroquias de nuestra Iglesia, eso parece ser lo que sucede cada domingo cuando somos enviados al terminar la misa.

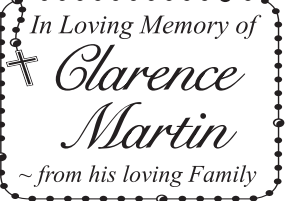

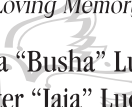

Cada uno de nosotros debería preguntarse si ha hecho lo necesario para prepararse para esta misión. ¿Tenemos un plan? ¿Buscamos oportunidades para compartir nuestra fe con los demás, especialmente con aquellos que tal vez no estén de acuerdo con nosotros? ¿Sabemos siquiera en qué consiste el éxito?

Esperamos que nuestro equipo de élite tenga éxito porque sus miembros están en buena forma física. (¿Rezas a diario?) Nuestro equipo sabe utilizar bien su equipamiento gracias a un entrenamiento constante. (¿Estudias tu fe y la conoces lo suficiente como para defenderla?) Los miembros de nuestro equipo estaban allí porque, al ser llamados a servir, no estaban demasiado ocupados con otras distracciones de la vida; sabían que la misión era importante y estaban disponibles cuando se les requirió.

Nuestro párroco y los comités de liderazgo están trabajando en el plan parroquial y pronto lo tendremos; pero ya deberíamos estar preparándonos, realizando los ejercicios y poniéndonos en forma para que, cuando el plan esté listo, nosotros también lo estemos.

Bendiciones y paz, diácono Steve.
