ST. MATTHEW - A FRIEND OF JESUS

St. Matthew lived about 2,000 years ago in the land where Israel is today. Before he met Jesus, Matthew worked as a tax collector. Tax collectors collected money from people for the Roman government. Many people did not like tax collectors because they were often dishonest or unfair.

One day, Jesus saw Matthew sitting at his tax booth and said: “Follow me.”

Matthew got up, left his job, and followed Jesus. He became one of Jesus' twelve apostles and traveled with Him, listening to His teachings and seeing His miracles. Matthew later became known for writing the Gospel of Matthew, one of the four books about Jesus' life in the New Testament.

His Gospel teaches us about Jesus' birth, His teachings, His miracles, His death, and His resurrection.

Matthew reminds us that Jesus welcomes everyone and gives people a chance to change and follow Him, no matter what they did in the past.

👉 Fun fact: St. Matthew is traditionally represented by a winged human or angel. His feast day is September 21.

SAN MATEO - AMIGO DE JESUS

San Mateo vivió hace unos 2.000 años en la tierra donde hoy se encuentra Israel. Antes de conocer a Jesús, Mateo trabajaba como recaudador de impuestos. Los recaudadores de impuestos cobraban dinero a la gente para el gobierno romano. A muchas personas no les agradaban los recaudadores de impuestos porque a menudo eran deshonestos o injustos. Un día, Jesús vio a Mateo sentado en su puesto de recaudación y le dijo: «Sígueme».

Mateo se levantó, dejó su trabajo y siguió a Jesús. Se convirtió en uno de los doce apóstoles de Jesús y viajó con Él, escuchando sus enseñanzas y presenciando sus milagros. Más tarde, Mateo se hizo conocido por escribir el Evangelio de Mateo, uno de los cuatro libros sobre la vida de Jesús en el Nuevo Testamento. Su Evangelio nos enseña sobre el nacimiento de Jesús, sus enseñanzas, sus milagros, su muerte y su resurrección. Mateo nos recuerda que Jesús acoge a todos y da a las personas la oportunidad de cambiar y seguirle, sin importar lo que hayan hecho en el pasado.

👉 Dato curioso: Tradicionalmente, a San Mateo se le representa con una figura humana con alas o un ángel. Su festividad se celebra el 21 de septiembre.

DEACON'S CORNER

From our earliest years, we Americans have been brought up to value justice. Play fair, is part of our earliest training in life. That's why when we hear today's Gospel, the Parable of the Laborers in the Vineyard, we immediately think, "That's just not right. The guys who worked all day have a good argument. They should have been paid more." But the parable is not about who should get paid what. The parable is about God. He is the Good Employer, the Divine Employer. This parable is not about the workers, it is about God who offers His grace to people at various times in their lives.

St. John Paul II was very much aware of the working of God's Mercy. He addressed women who had suffered through an abortion and now mourned the loss of the baby they had killed. He empowered them with the determination to work for life and protect other women from going through what they went through. This is the Amazing Grace of the Divine Employer.

Sadly, many of us have given up on ourselves. But the Lord never gives up on us. Sometimes, we have the view that "it is just too late". We think that something we have done in our past is so terrible that God could never return us to a full share of His love. If this type of thought has come into your mind, let me tell you with the authority of the Gospel: You are wrong. You are judging by human standards, not by the standards of the Love and Mercy and Compassion of the Lord. God never gives up. He never gives up on us. We do not have the right to give up on ourselves. We can always start new, whether we have just been lukewarm Christians or whether we have been at war with God. Not only does God refuse to hold us to our pasts, He transforms us to become vehicles of conversion for others. The Divine Employer does not want us wasting any more time. Even if we are well advanced in age, and the day is drawing to a close.

Dcn. Al He still has work for us to do. He wants us to work for Him, no matter what our pasts have been.

RINCON DEL DIACONO

Desde nuestros primeros años, a nosotros, los estadounidenses, se nos ha educado para valorar la justicia. Jugar limpio es parte de nuestra formación inicial en la vida. Por eso, al escuchar el Evangelio de hoy —la parábola de los trabajadores de la viña—, pensamos de inmediato: «Eso no es justo. Los hombres que trabajaron todo el día tienen un argumento válido; deberían haber cobrado más». Pero la parábola no trata sobre quién debe cobrar qué cantidad; trata sobre Dios. Él es el Buen Patrón, el Patrón Divino. Esta parábola no se centra en los trabajadores, sino en Dios, quien ofrece su gracia a las personas en distintos momentos de sus vidas.

San Juan Pablo II era muy consciente de cómo actúa la misericordia de Dios. Se dirigió a mujeres que habían pasado por un aborto y lloraban la pérdida del bebé al que habían puesto fin a la vida; las fortaleció con la determinación de defender la vida y proteger a otras mujeres para que no vivieran lo mismo que ellas. Esa es la gracia maravillosa del Patrón Divino.

Lamentablemente, muchos de nosotros nos hemos dado por vencidos con respecto a nosotros mismos. Pero el Señor nunca se rinde con nosotros. A veces pensamos que «ya es demasiado tarde». Creemos que algo que hicimos en el pasado es tan terrible que Dios jamás podría devolvernos a la plenitud de su amor. Si este pensamiento ha pasado por tu mente, permíteme decirte con la autoridad del Evangelio: te equivocas. Estás juzgando según criterios humanos, no según los criterios del amor, la misericordia y la compasión del Señor. Dios nunca se rinde; nunca se rinde con nosotros. Nosotros no tenemos derecho a rendirnos con nosotros mismos. Siempre podemos empezar de nuevo, tanto si hemos sido cristianos tibios como si hemos estado en guerra con Dios. Dios no solo se niega a encadenarnos a nuestro pasado, sino que nos transforma en instrumentos de conversión para los demás. El Patrón Divino no quiere que perdamos más tiempo, aunque seamos ya mayores y el día esté llegando a su fin.

Él todavía tiene trabajo para nosotros. Quiere que trabajemos para Él, sin importar cómo haya sido nuestro pasado.
